In A World Of Their Own Experiencing Unconsciousness:

In a World of Their Own Madelaine Lawrence, 1998-10-15 A medical professional is the first to describe what it is like to be unconscious from the patient's perspective John Paul II on the Vulnerable Jeffrey Tranzillo, 2013 In John Paul II on the Vulnerable Jeffrey Tranzillo provides a lucid introduction to John Paul II's philosophical and theological understanding of the human person The Unconscious Pascal Sauvayre, David Braucher, 2020-08-02 This book explores the unconscious in psychoanalysis using cross disciplinary input from the cultural social and linguistic perspectives This book is the first contemporary collection applying the various perspectives from within the psychoanalytic discipline It covers the unconscious from three main perspectives the metaphysical including links with quantum mechanics and Jung's thought the socio relational drawing on ideas from politics inter generational trauma and the interpersonal and the linguistic drawing on notions of the social construct of language and hermeneutics Throughout the history of psychoanalysis theorists have wrestled with the ubiquitousness and diverse nature of the unconscious This collection is an account of the contemporary psychoanalytic struggle to understand and work with this quintessential defining and foundational object of psychoanalysis This book is primarily of interest to practicing clinicians and trainees It is also of significant interest to any academic professionals and students who adapt psychoanalytic thought in their studies in the humanities including literature philosophy and the social sciences Spirit, the Family, and the Unconscious in Hegel's Philosophy David V. Ciavatta, 2010-07-02 Honorable Mention 2011 Biennial Book Prize presented by the Canadian Philosophical Association This original study of the role that family life plays in Hegel's Phenomenology of Spirit and Philosophy of Right pays particular attention to Hegel's characterization of the family as an unconscious form of ethical life rooted essentially in affectivity David V. Ciavatta also looks at Hegel's account of feeling in the Anthropology section of The Philosophy of Spirit highlighting the inherently porous nature of the self and this porosity is shown to be constitutive of the distinctive unconscious form of intersubjective recognition that forms the core of family bonds The book provides a rich understanding of the role that family has in one's psychological development with respect not only to other people but also to the world and one's own identity Incorporating existential phenomenological and psychoanalytic perspectives Ciavatta offers insightful investigations of many basic Hegelian themes such as spirit perception ethical agency language and property ownership Unconscious Incarnations Brian W. Becker, John Panteleimon Manoussakis, David M. Goodman, 2018-04-27 Unconscious Incarnations considers the status of the body in psychoanalytic theory and practice bringing Freud and Lacan into conversation with continental philosophy to explore the heterogeneity of embodied life By doing so the body is no longer merely an object of scientific inquiry but also a lived body a source of excessive intuition and affectivity and a raw animality distinct from mere materiality The contributors to this volume consist of philosophers psychoanalytic scholars and practitioners whose interdisciplinary explorations reformulate traditional psychoanalytic concepts such as trauma healing desire subjectivity and the unconscious Collectively they build toward the conclusion that phenomenologies of embodiment move psychoanalytic theory and practice away from representationalist models and toward an incarnational approach to psychic life Under such a carnal horizon trauma manifests as wounds and scars therapy as touch subjectivity as bodily boundedness and the unconscious real as an excessive remainder of flesh Unconscious incarnations signal events where the unsignifiable appears among signifiers the invisible within the visible and absence within presence In sum where the flesh becomes word and the word retains its flesh Unconscious Incarnations seeks to evoke this incarnational approach in order to break through tacit taboos toward the body in psychology and psychoanalysis This interdisciplinary work will appeal greatly to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists as well as philosophy scholars and clinical psychologists Third Reich in the

Unconscious Vamik D. Volkan, Gabriele Ast, William F. Greer, Jr., 2012-12-06 The Third Reich in the Unconscious

Transgenerational Transmission and Its Consequences examines the effects of the Holocaust on second generation survivors and specifically describes how historical images and trauma are transferred The authors reveal the many ways in which the psychological legacy of the Nazi regime manifests itself in subsequent generations and how psychopathology if present can assume a number of different forms Among the detailed case histories and treatment considerations the text provides insight for developing strategies that will tame and eventually prevent transgenerational transmission The Juridical Unconscious

Shoshana Felman, 2002-11-30 This book offers an account of the surprising interaction between trauma and justice Moving from texts by Arendt Benjamin Freud Zola and Tolstoy to the Dreyfus and Nuremberg trials and the trials of O J Simpson and Adolf Eichmann Felman argues that the adjudication of collective traumas in the 20th century transformed both culture and law The Jung Reader David Tacey, 2012-11-12 Carl Gustav Jung was the pioneering founder of analytical psychology a Unconscious at Work Anton Obholzer, Dr Vega Zagier Roberts, and Members of the Tavistock Clinic 'Consulting to Institutions' Workshop, 2003-09-02 Working in the human services has always been stressful and the current massive changes in the organization of these services together with dwindling resources and ever greater demands for cost effectiveness add to the stresses inherent in the work Even in the best run and best resourced organizations there are pockets of irrationality

where unconscious institutional processes undermine both effectiveness and morale The contributors to this book use ideas drawn from psychoanalysis open systems theory Bion s work with groups and group relations training to explore the difficulties experienced by managers and staff in a wide range of care settings Each concept is illustrated with examples from practice to make it recognizable and useful to the reader Each chapter develops a theme relating to work with a particular client group or setting including hospitals schools day centres residential units community services and many others or explores aspects of work organization for example the supervisory relationship facing cuts and closure or intergroup collaboration By describing both the difficulties and their own feelings and thoughts while consulting to these institutions the authors offer the reader new ways of looking at their own experiences at work which will be both enlightening and helpful

The Societal Unconscious Henning Salling Olesen, 2019-12-16 The Societal Unconscious presents an innovative development of theory and methodology for adult education and learning research recognizing psychodynamic dimensions of learning processes With few exceptions the unconscious has been neglected in critical adult education research The psychosocial approach in this book seeks to re integrate the societal and the psychodynamic dimensions in analyzing adult learners and learning processes The book responds to contemporary awareness of the societal and cultural nature of subjectivity with a new material and dialectic psychosocial theory comprising conscious as well as unconscious levels Tracing interdisciplinary inspirations it sets a new broad horizon for in depth understanding of learning in everyday life A number of empirical analyses demonstrate the entanglement of societal and psychodynamic dimensions of learning Firstly a part of the chapters deals with the complex subjective continuities and discontinuities in individual learning and career Secondly other chapters comprise analyses of leadership and the social psychology of organizational processes and the psycho social aspects of institutional regeneration Thirdly the book presents outlooks into the social psychology dimensions of wider societal and political processes including identity politics and xenophobia A last chapter finalizes the theoretical basis of the methodology

Jung and Levinas Frances Gray, 2015-11-19 This book brings C G Jung into conversation with the French philosopher Emmanuel Levinas taking a radical view of post modernist theory which the author argues is relentlessly introverted Frances Gray presents completely new research which extends analytical psychology into the world of dispute resolution in mediation within a deeply philosophical framework Arguing that mediation is a therapeutics that entails a psycho social archaeology which in turn requires recognition of the foundational roles of sex gender time and narrative in inter subjective relationships this book develops Jung s approach to projection as an ethical process that assumes the presence of a sex gendered Other Chapters explore the possibility of a psycho social archaeology through development of the argument that a radical turn to the fundamentals of our own consciousnesses can open up a landscape on which we begin to fashion the moral courage necessary for the practice of alternative dispute resolution in mediation This book highlights Jung s contention that withdrawal of projection is a fundamentally moral endeavour and that although Levinas face of the Other can be seen as a way of acknowledging the Otherness of the Other there are limits to its application in Jungian thinking This book maintains that the face of the Other is critical to any moral encounter and above all brings us to the transformational possibilities of the process of dispute resolution in mediation Jung and Levinas will appeal to researchers students and practitioners of analytical psychology dispute resolution applied ethics conflict studies and transformation Religion and the

A Social Dreaming Experience at the Time of COVID 19 Elisabetta Pasini, Cinzia Trimboli, 2023-11-07 The book describes the experience of four Social Dreaming Matrices held online between March and May 2020 during the first lockdown caused by the Covid 19 emergency The pandemic isolated us and imposed prolonged contact with ourselves and our solitary thoughts Against this backdrop there was hope for change a desire for a different kind of sociability and different forms of intimacy On the basis of this evidence our research supports the shift from experiencing trauma to reacting to trauma looking at a collective traumatic experience not only as something to be overcome but as an opportunity for a transformation that changes our mental schemes in relation to the external context We have identified Social Dreaming as a privileged technique to overcome a collective traumatic experience supporting its elaboration through collective feelings new connections between intuition and rational thought the discovery of community meanings The author's thesis is that the much needed transition from magical thinking to transformative thinking takes place in a setting that is able to contain the anxieties of life's transitional phases supporting the creation of new rituals and new social bonds and sustaining the passage from me to a wider we
