In Corner B Short Stories:

In Corner B. (Short Stories) Ezekiel Mphahlele, 1967 In Corner B Es'kia Mphahlele, 2011-01-25 The quintessential story collection from the most important black South African writer of the present age George Moore Originally published in 1967 In Corner B contains the core stories of the original editions together with more recent pieces and is the first new edition of Mphahlele's work since his death in 2008 Written after his return from exile these stories inimitably capture life in both rural and urban South Africa during the days of apartheid A new introduction by Peter Thuynsma a South African scholar and former Mphahlele student presents the dean of African letters to a new generation of readers Index to Short Stories, 1929 Bury Me at the Marketplace N. Chabani Manganyi, David Attwell, 2009-11-01 When Chabani Manganyi published the first edition of selected letters twenty five years ago as a companion volume to Exiles and Homecomings A Biography of Es'kia Mphahlele the idea of Mphahlele's death was remote and poetic The title Bury Me at the Marketplace suggested that immortality of a kind awaited Mphahlele in the very coming and going of those who remember him and whose lives he touched It suggested too the energy and magnanimity of Mphahlele the man whose personality and intellect as a writer and educator would carve an indelible place for him in South Africa's public sphere That death has now come and we mourn it Manganyi's words at the time have acquired a new significance in the symbolic marketplace he noted the drama of life continues relentlessly and the silence of death is unmasked for all time The silence of death is certainly unmasked in this volume in its record of Mphahlele's rich and varied life his private words his passions and obsessions his arguments his loves hopes achievements and yes even some of his failures Here the reader will find many facets of the private man translated back into the marketplace of public memory Despite the personal nature of the letters the further horizons of this volume are the contours of South Africa's literary and cultural history the international affiliations out of which it has been formed particularly in the diaspora that connects South Africa to the rest of the African continent and to the black presence in Europe and the United States This selection of Mphahlele's own letters has been greatly expanded it has also been augmented by the addition of letters from Mphahlele's correspondents among them such luminaries as Langston Hughes and Nadine Gordimer It seeks to illustrate the networks that shaped Mphahlele's personal and intellectual life the circuits of intimacy intellectual inquiry of friendship scholarship and solidarity that he created and nurtured over the years The letters cover the period from November 1943 to April 1987 forty four of Mphahlele's mature years and most of his active professional life The correspondence is supplemented by introductory essays from the two editors by two interviews conducted with Mphahlele by Manganyi and by Attwell's insightful explanatory notes African Short Stories Chinua Achebe, Catherine Lynette Innes, 1987 A collection of stories by African writers which deal with life and customs in African society Index to Short Stories--Supplement Ina Ten Eyck Firkins, 1929 The Complete Short Stories of Charles Dickens: 190+ Titles in One Volume (Illustrated Edition) Charles Dickens, 2023-12-23 The Complete Short Stories of Charles Dickens 190 Titles in One Volume is a curated anthology that showcases the breadth of Dickens's literary genius through a remarkable collection of over 190 short stories. Ranging from masterful social critiques to whimsical sketches, these narratives reflect Dickens's ability to blend humor with poignant observations of Victorian society. His distinctive style, characterized by vivid characterizations and intricate plots, captures the complexities of human nature and the stark realities of his time. The inclusion of illustrations further enriches the reading experience, bringing to life the vibrant world Dickens inhabited. Charles Dickens, one of the most celebrated writers of the Victorian era, is known for his deep empathy and social concern, which profoundly shaped his storytelling. Raised in a poor working-class family, Dickens's experiences of hardship and social injustice fueled his enduring commitment to reform and shaped the characters and settings within his stories. His earlier works, including serialized novels, often explored themes of poverty, child labor, and class struggles, which resonate powerfully throughout his shorter pieces, inviting readers into a world that blends reality and imagination. This anthology is a must-read for anyone interested in the evolution of short fiction and the social fabric of Dickens's time. It serves both as a timeless collection for devoted fans and an accessible entry point for new readers seeking to appreciate the intricate craftsmanship of one of literature's greatest figures. Delve into this richly illustrated volume and discover the myriad emotions and insights contained within the pages of Dickens's unforgettable tales.

The Library News Newark Public Library,1903 Literature of Africa Douglas Killam,2004-11-30 As more works of African Literature are being incorporated into the Language Arts and Cultural Studies curriculum it becomes increasingly important to offer students and educators a meaningful context in which to explore these works As part of Greenwood s Literature as Windows to World Culture series this volume introduces readers to the cultural concerns of 10 of Africa s most renowned writers Written in clear accessible language close analysis is given for 14 novels including Achebe s Things Fall Apart and Paton s Cry the Beloved Country chosen because of their literary importance and the frequency with which they are assigned The ten analysis chapters each begin with a brief account of the authors lives and their writing careers noting especially the experiences and influences which have shaped their writing Following this section is a major essay on their most prominent and best known work Discussion of the historical and cultural issues in the novels is integrated into the literary commentary Students will gain not a deeper appreciation for the fiction but a more solid understanding of the core historical issues and cultural concerns that influence and shape the writing The Introduction outlines the general history and development of Sub Saharan African Literature The colonial experiences and postcolonial struggles the principal subject matter of African writers differs from region to region The geographic organization of this guide into West East and South Africa reflects these different perspectives Each section ends with a list of critical works that will assist readers and researchers further their understanding of the authors and their works Short biographical sketches on 80 authors are also provided to expand readers contact with African literature The index assists users in identifying not only title and authors but also major themes and topics that the writings reveal English in Africa ,2009 The World of Books ,1922 The Black Mind Oscar Ronald Dathorne,1976 The Complete Short Stories of Edgar Allan Poe Edgar Allan Poe,2023-11-27 In The Complete Short Stories of Edgar Allan Poe readers are transported into an intricate world of macabre and psychological depth epitomizing Poe s mastery in the short story form This anthology encompasses a rich array of themes including death madness and the supernatural all conveyed through his distinctive gothic style characterized by vivid imagery and rhythmic prose From the unsettling atmosphere of The Tell Tale Heart to the eerie nuances of The Fall of the House of Usher Poe s works exemplify the early emergence of modern horror positioned crucially within the Romantic literary context as a powerful exploration of human emotions and fears Edgar Allan Poe a pioneer of the detective fiction genre and a profound influence on American literature faced a tumultuous life marked by personal tragedies and societal challenges His experiences with loss and adversity informed his writing providing a lens through which he examined the complexity of the human psyche This exploration of existential dread and irrationality in his stories reflects both his personal struggles and his deep engagement with the emerging literary styles of his time The Complete Short Stories of Edgar Allan Poe is an essential read for those intrigued by the intricacies of human emotion and the darker facets of existence Engaging with Poe s stories not only offers a glimpse into the historical context of 19th century America but also invites readers to reflect on the timeless themes of fear and morality that resonate throughout his oeuvre

European-language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa

Albert S. Gérard, 1986-01-01

The first major comparative study of African writing in western languages

European language

Writing in Sub Saharan Africa edited by Albert S G rard falls into four wide ranging sections an overview of early contacts and colonial developments Under Western Eyes chapters on Black Consciousness manifest in the debates over Panafricanism and Negritude a group of essays on mental decolonization expressed in Black Power texts at the time of independence struggles and finally Comparative Vistas sketching directions that future comparative study might explore An introductory essay stresses the millennia of writing in Africa side by side with a richly eloquent and artistic set of vernacular oral traditions written and oral traditions have become interwoven in adaptations of imported forms and linguistic innovations that challenge traditional high literary norms G rard uses the mathematical concept of fuzzy sets to explain why the focus on Black Africa has led him to set aside for future analysis the literatures produced in North Africa which fall under the influence of Muslim civilization as well as the diasporic literatures of the New World Over sixty scholars from twenty two countries contribute specialized studies of creative writing by leading authors in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries such as Achebe Mphahlele Ngugi Senghor Soyinka and Tutuola Critical analyses are organized primarily around regions reflecting different colonial languages imposed through schools and other social institutions Some authors trace the adaptation of western genres others identify syncretism with folktales or myths The volumes are attentive to the heterogeneity of national literatures addressed to polyethnic and multilingual populations and they note the instrumental politics of language in newly independent states A closing chapter Tasks Ahead identifies areas for future scholars to explore
