In Lieu Of Memory Contemporary Jewish Writing In France:

In Lieu of Memory Thomas Nolden, 2006-01-23 This book provides a wide ranging analysis of French Jewish authors born after the Shoah and traces the development of the rich agenda of jeune littérature juive young Jewish writing from its beginnings in the late 1970s into the 1980s and 1990s when it gained intense momentum Thomas Nolden uses a wealth of biographical information to expound on his central thesis the abrupt interruption of transmission of the Jewish heritage by assimilation migration and near extermination required these writers to reinvent themselves their past and their memories as Jews Nolden provides concise readings of the fiction of more than two dozen writers of both Sephardic and Ashkenazi background living in present day France He demonstrates how contemporary Jewish writing has responded historically culturally politically and aesthetically to developments in French society and in Jewish culture His critical analysis of the major themes concerns and stylistic features of the authors work connects Jewish writing in France to the traditions of Jewish writing both during the Diaspora and in Israel

Contemporary Jewish Writing in Europe Vivian Liska, Thomas Nolden, 2007-12-05 With contributions from a dozen American and European scholars this volume presents an overview of Jewish writing in post World War II Europe Striking a balance between close readings of individual texts and general surveys of larger movements and underlying themes the essays portray Jewish authors across Europe as writers and intellectuals of multiple affiliations and hybrid identities Aimed at a general readership and guided by the idea of constructing bridges across national cultures this book maps for English speaking readers the productivity and diversity of Jewish writers and writing that has marked a revitalization of Jewish culture in France Germany Austria Italy Great Britain the Netherlands Hungary Poland and Russia

Places and Forms of Encounter in Jewish Literatures, 2020-09-25 In the past years reflections on Jewish literatures and theoretical and methodological approaches discussed in Comparative Literature have converged Places and Forms of Encounter in Jewish Literatures Transfer Mediality and Situativity brings together close readings and contextualizations of Jewish literatures with theories discussed in Comparative and World Literature Studies The contributions are arranged in five chapters capturing central processes actors and dynamics in the making of literatures namely Literary Agents Literary Figures Writing Voids Making of Literatures and Perceiving and Creating Languages The volume seeks to illuminate the interrelations between literary systems and to highlight Jewish literatures as a prism for encounters on the levels of text discourse and culture and their transformative force

Inventing the Israelite Maurice Samuels, 2009-12-07 In this book Maurice Samuels brings to light little known works of literature produced from 1830 to 1870 by the first generation of Jews born as French citizens These writers Samuels asserts used fiction as a laboratory to experiment with new forms of Jewish identity relevant to the modern world In their stories and novels they responded to the stereotypical depictions of Jews in French culture while creatively adapting the forms and genres of the French literary tradition They also offered innovative solutions to the central dilemmas of Jewish modernity in the French context including how to reconcile their identities as Jews with the universalizing demands of the French revolutionary tradition While their solutions ranged from complete assimilation to a modern brand of orthodoxy these writers collectively illustrate the creativity of a community in the face of unprecedented upheaval Post-war Jewish Women's Writing in French Lucille

Cairns,2017-12-02 How have French Jewish women reacted to the great traumas of the last century the Holocaust North African decolonization and the resulting migration of African Jews to France the Arab Israeli crisis and the aftermath of 9 11 Cairns s major new volume identifies the themes of books by French Jewish women from 1945 to the present day gauging to what extent they are dominated by informed by or relatively indifferent to these threatening events Thirty authors in particular serve as representatives of a great and greatly diverse pool divided not only as Ashkenazim or Sephardim but by origins scattered across Algeria Egypt Germany Hungary Morocco Poland Romania Russia Tunisia and Turkey Theirs is a transnational doubly diasporic and thus particularly complex paradigm in which feminism loyalty to family culture and to the traditions of Judaism often exists in tension with French Republican models of assimilation non differentiation and gender blindness Lucille Cairns is Professor of French Literature at the University of Durham A Sephardi Sea Dario

Miccoli,2022-07-26 A Sephardi Sea tells the story of Jews from the southern shore of the Mediterranean who between the late 1940s and the mid 1960s migrated from their country of birth for Europe Israel and beyond It is a story that explores their contrasting memories of and feelings for a Sephardi Jewish world in North Africa and Egypt that is lost forever but whose echoes many still hear Surely some of these Jewish migrants were already familiar with their new countries of residence because of colonial ties or of Zionism and often spoke the language Why then was the act of leaving so painful and why more than fifty years afterward is its memory still so tangible Dario Miccoli examines how the memories of a bygone Sephardi Mediterranean world became preserved in three national contexts Israel France and Italy where the Jews of the Middle East and North Africa and their descendants migrated and nowadays live A Sephardi Sea exploreshow practices of memory and heritage making from the writing of novels and memoirs to the opening of museums and memorials the activities of heritage associations and state led celebrations has filled an identity vacuum in the three countries and helps the Jews from North Africa and Egypt to define their Jewishness in Europe and Israel today but also reinforce their connection to a vanished world now remembered with nostalgia affection and sadness In the Face of Adversity Thomas

Nolden,2023-02-20 In the Face of Adversity explores the dynamics of translating texts that articulate particular notions of adverse circumstances The chapters illustrate how literary records of often painful experiences and dissenting voices are at risk of being stripped of their authenticity when not carefully handled by the translator how cultural moments in which the translation of a text that would have otherwise fallen into oblivion instead gave rise to a translator who enabled its preservation while ultimately coming into their own as an author as a result and how the difficulties the translator faces in intercultural or transnational constellations in which prejudice plays a role endangers projects meant to facilitate mutual understanding The authors address translation as a project of making available and preserving a corpus of texts that would otherwise be in danger of becoming censored misperceived or ignored They look at translation and adaptation as a project of curating textual models of personal communal or collective perseverance and they offer insights into the dynamics of cultural inclusion and exclusion through a series of theoretical frameworks as well as through a set of concrete case studies drawn from different cultural and historical contexts The collection also explores some of the venues that artists have pursued by transferring artistic expressions from one medium into another in order to preserve and disseminate important experiences in different cultural settings media and arts

Francophone Jewish Writers Lucille Cairns, 2015-11-24 Francophone Jewish Writers examines how Franco Jewish writers depict Israel in autobiographies memoirs and novels exploring how those depictions reflect and inflect current socio political tensions within and between France and Israel

The World in Movement, 2019-04-09 This book focuses on one of the main issues of our time in the Humanities and Social Sciences as it analyzes the impact of current global migrations on new forms of living together and the formation of identities and homes Using a transdisciplinary and transcultural approach the contributions shed fresh light upon key concepts such as hybrid performative diaspora transidentities hospitality belonging emotion body and desire Those concepts are discussed in the context of Cuban US American Maghrebian Moroccan Spanish Catalan French Turkish Jewish Argentinian Indian and Italian literatures cultures and religions

On the Mediterranean and the Nile Aimée Israel-Pelletier, 2018-03-12 Aimée Israel-Pelletier examines the lives of Middle Eastern Jews living in Islamic societies in this political and cultural history of the Jews of Egypt By looking at the work of five Egyptian Jewish writers Israel-Pelletier confronts issues of identity exile language immigration Arab nationalism European colonialism and discourse on the Holocaust She illustrates that the Jews of Egypt were a fluid community connected by deep roots to the Mediterranean and the Nile They had an unshakable sense of being Egyptian until the country turned toward the Arab East With Israel-Pelletier's deft handling Jewish Egyptian writing offers an insider's view in the unique character of Egyptian Jewry and the Jewish presence across the Mediterranean region and North Africa

A House with Seven Windows Kadya Molodowsky, 2006-04-07 A House with Seven Windows is the famed Yiddish poet's only collection of short stories Written in simple prose these stories are subtle portraits tragic comic bittersweet always generous spirited of ordinary people Jews in pre World War II Eastern Europe and Jews struggling to adjust to life in America A traditional minded husband is defeated by his wife who wants only the latest fashion A community leader's position is supported and maintained by his more energetic and political minded wife A couple ardent supporters of the newly formed state of Israel nevertheless find themselves at odds with their son who intends to live there An American Jew who almost single handedly supports his shtetl in Europe returns to find that it has been obliterated by the Nazis A couple newly arrived from the DP camps in Europe struggles to set sail on the wide seas of America and succeeds but at a price While many of the stories are set in Europe and are in fact memoirs of Jewish shtetl life others depict the classic dilemmas of immigrants wrestling with their own identity stories about adapting to a new culture yet attempting to maintain traditional customs stories about the inability of one generation to understand the other Molodowsky's lucid style and keen observation of the absurd and the sublime offer readers beautifully crafted stories filled with richly drawn character portraits

Representing the Immigrant Experience Marc Miller, 2007-01-10 Popular authors such as Sholem Aleichem and Sholem Asch gained multilingual fame in the early decades of the twentieth century with short stories and novels that represented a world foreign to many Jewish and non Jewish readers alike But the first Yiddish writer to serve successfully as an interpreter and representative of this world was Morris Rosenfeld Marc Miller examines the career of Rosenfeld a key figure in the development of Yiddish literature which was geared to American immigrants in the late 1800s and early 1900s Rosenfeld's early sweatshop poems were designed to foment discontent within capitalism among the working class Although he began his career as a protest poet Rosenfeld with almost no Yiddish literary tradition to draw upon soon moved beyond the narrow propagandistic dimensions of his early work to produce some of the most lasting poetry in the Yiddish language He abandoned his calls to arms and shifted the focus of his poetry to the immigrant self Instead of imploring workers to revolt against the upper classes Rosenfeld began to lament the sad life of the immigrant worker who toiled and lived under brutal conditions This new focus resulted in his widespread popularity that reached beyond his Yiddish speaking immigrant audience and earned him an international reputation as the representative of his time and place Sons of Saviors Rebekka Voß, 2023-07-04 Envisioned as a tribe of ruddy faced redheaded red bearded Jewish warriors bedecked in red attire who purportedly resided in isolation at the fringes of the known world the Red Jews are a legendary people who populated a shared Jewish Christian imagination But in fact the red variant of the Ten Lost Tribes of Israel is a singular invention of late medieval vernacular culture in Germany This idiosyncratic figure together with the peculiar term Red Jews existed solely in German and Yiddish the German Jewish vernacular These two language communities assessed the Red Jews differently and contested their significance which is to say they viewed them in different shades of red The voyage of the Red Jews through the Jewish and Christian imagination from their medieval Christian nascence through early modern Old Yiddish literature to modern Yiddish culture in Eastern Europe Palestine and America is the story of this book By studying this vernacular icon Rebekka Voß contributes to our understanding of the formation of minority awareness and the construction of Ashkenazic Jewish identity through visual cultural encounters She also spotlights the vitality of vernacular culture by demonstrating how the premodern motif of the Red Jews informed modern Yiddish literature and how the stereotype of Jewish red hair found its way into Jewish social critiques political thought and arts through the present day Sons of Saviors is a story about power the Yiddish reappropriation of the Red Jews subverted the Christian color symbolism by adjusting the focus on redness from a negative stereotype into a proud badge of self assertion The book also includes in an appendix the full text of a significant Yiddish tale featuring the Red Jews Childhood Moses Rosenkranz, 2007-12-24 Translated from the original Kindheit written in 1958 and published in German in 2003 David Dollenmayer's edition makes this remarkable work available to a much deserved wider audience Moses Rosenkranz came from impoverished roots in rural Bucovina and gained acclaim for his poetry only late in his life He survived the same Rumanian fascist work camp as his fellow poet Paul Celan only to be arrested by the Russians in 1947 and interned in the Gulag for ten years With his richly detailed recollections of rural life among Jews Ukrainians Rumanians Poles and Germans in Bucovina a colorful parade of characters and a remarkable eloquence Rosenkranz recaptures a vanished moment of cultural history The author's unvarnished portraits of love jealousy and passion in his extensive family bring a fresh resonance to his poetry Here and Now Todd Hasak-Lowy, 2008-03-29

The emergence of Zionism in the late nineteenth century and the evolution of Zionist society in Palestine were profoundly influenced by the Hebrew literature of the day As Todd Hasak Lowy cogently argues in this book Hebrew authors wrote with the belief that accurately representing Jewish society including its history in their texts would both record the past and establish its future course Hasak Lowy traces the tensions between the extraliterary the historical social and political and the literary the aesthetic formal and stylistic in Hebrew fiction Focusing on canonical Hebrew texts by S Y Abramovitz Y H Brenner S Y Agnon and S Yizhar the author establishes how their works and the works of other Jewish authors served as the intellectual and political leadership to the not yet fully amalgamated nineteenth century diaspora Recovering

"Yiddishland" Merle L. Bachman, 2008-01-17 According to traditional narratives of assimilation in the bargain made for an American identity Jews freely surrendered Yiddish language and culture Or did they Recovering Yiddishland seeks to return readers to a threshold where Americanization also meant ambivalence and resistance It reconstructs Yiddishland as a cultural space produced by Yiddish immigrant writers from the 1890s through the 1930s largely within the sphere of New York Rejecting conventional literary history the book spotlights threshold texts in the unjustly forgotten literary project of these writers texts that reveal unexpected and illuminating critiques of Americanization Merle Lyn Bachman takes a fresh look at Abraham Cahan's Yekl and Anzia Yezierska's Hungry Hearts tracing in them a re inscription of the Yiddish world that various characters seem to be committed to leaving behind She also translates for the first time Yiddish poems featuring African Americans that reflect the writers confrontation with their passage as Jews into white identities Finally Bachman discusses the modernist poet Mikhl Likht whose simultaneous embrace of American literature and resistance to assimilating into English marked him as the supreme threshold poet Conscious of the risks of any postmodern post assimilation attempt to recover the past Bachman invents the figure of the Yiddish student whose comments can reflect and keep in check the nostalgia and naivete of the returnee to Yiddish Jewish Ideas of France Meredith Scott, Nick Underwood, 2025-06-12 This innovative exploration of Jewish experiences in France and the Francophone world through nuanced questions and representations offers an intertwining of perspectives that challenge geographical chronological and theoretical boundaries Engaging the transnational it brings together studies highlighting the importance of migration diaspora identity and empire for Jewish communities in metropolitan France and beyond New and emerging scholars are invited into conversation with established thinkers to capture the present and future of French Francophone and Jewish Studies Because identities are layered and multifaceted the multidisciplinary studies in this volume are intended to illustrate how frameworks interact overlap and shift The result of these efforts is a collection of essays that reveals the complex interplay between French and Jewish identities and how they have changed over time Grounded in historical literary visual sociological and legal analyses they delve into questions of gender race religion empire migration culture and communal life Taken together they problematize the categories often created to make meaning of complex dynamics This book is an important secondary source for researchers undergraduate and graduate students and general readers interested in world history Jewish Studies French Studies European Studies and immigration and diaspora studies

Shadows in the City of Light Sara R. Horowitz, Amira Bojadzija-Dan, Julia Creet, 2021-05-01 The essays in Shadows in the City of Light explore the significance of Paris in the writing of five influential French writers Sarah Kofman Patrick Modiano George Perec Henri Raczymow and Irene Nemirovsky whose novels and memoirs capture and probe the absences of deported Paris Jews These writers move their readers through wartime and postwar cityscapes of Paris walking them through streets and arrondissements where Jews once resided looking for traces of the disappeared The city functions as more than a backdrop or setting Its streets and buildings and monuments remind us of the exhilarating promise of the French Revolution and what it meant for Jews dreaming of equality But the dynamic space of Paris also reminds us of the Holocaust and its aftermath The shadowed paths traced by these writers raise complicated questions about ambivalence absence memory secularity and citizenship In their writing the urban landscape itself bears witness to the absent Jews and what happened to them For the writers treated in this volume neither their Frenchness nor their Jewishness is a fixed point Focusing on Paris's dual role as both a cultural hub and a powerful symbol of hope and conflict in Jewish memory the contributors address intersections and departures among these writers Their complexity of thought artistry and depth of vision shape a new understanding of the impact of the Holocaust on Jewish and French identity on literature and literary forms and on the development of Jewish secular culture in Western Europe
