Homestead P. McAllister, 2020-09-29 This title was first published in 2001 This is also a study of rural Xhosa identity and community and its survival in the face of the overwhelming odds stacked against it by colonialism and apartheid The maintenance of homestead production can be properly understood only if this wider context is taken into consideration The analysis is thus directly relevant to current debates about agrarian change land reform and economic development in South Africa s communal areas since it shows how some rural Xhosa are able to maintain a sense of community and identity and of how they are able to harness the socio cultural resources at their disposal to engage in productive activity with some success

BOOK JACKET Our Dogs, Our Selves , 2016-09-12 The ubiquity of references to dogs in medieval and early modern texts and images must at some level reflect their actual presence in those worlds yet scholarly consideration of this material is rare and scattered across diverse sources This volume addresses that gap bringing together fifteen essays that examine the appearance meaning and significance of dogs in painting sculpture manuscripts literature and legal records of the period reaching beyond Europe to include cultural material from medieval Japan and Islam While primarily art historical in focus the authors approach the subject from a range of disciplines and with varying methodology that ultimately reveals as much about dogs as about the societies in which they lived Contributors are Kathleen Ashley Jane Carroll Emily Cockayne John Block Friedman Karen M Gerhart Laura D Gelfand Craig A Gibson Walter S Gibson Nathan Hofer Jane C Long Judith W Mann Sophie Oosterwijk Elizabeth Carson Pastan Donna L Sadler Alexa Sand and Janet Snyder Time , 1923 The

The Uncivilized Races of Men in All Countries of the World, Vol. 1 John G. Wood, 2022-11-24

Excerpt This work is simply as the title page states an account of the manners and customs of uncivilized races of men in all parts of the world Many travellers have given accounts scattered rather at random through their books of the habits and modes of life exhibited by the various people among whom they have travelled These notices however are distributed through a vast number of books many of them very scarce many very expensive and most of them ill arranged and it has therefore been my task to gather together in one work and to present to the reader in a tolerably systematic and intelligible form the varieties of character which develop themselves among races which have not as yet lost their individuality by modern civilization In this task I have been greatly assisted by many travellers who have taken a kindly interest in the work and have given me the invaluable help of their practical experience

The Agrarian History of England and Wales: Volume 3, 1348-1500 Edward Miller, Joan Thirsk, 1991-07-18 The third volume of The Agrarian History of England and Wales which was first published in 1991 deals with the last century and a half of the Middle Ages It concerns itself with the new demographic and economic circumstances created in large measure by endemic plague
