Harmonizing the Hundred Teachings Yi Neunghwa, The Baekgyo hoetong originally authored by Yi Neunghwa in 1912 is a book of comparative religion written from a Buddhist point of view As the first book authored by Yi a prominent Buddhist scholar and one of the top three researchers of Korean folk culture during modern times the Baekgyo hoetong is a significant work in the history of academic endeavors on Korean culture and Korean Buddhism While the title of the book can be translated as harmonizing the hundred teachings the content of the book reveals that the author considers Buddhism an important key in this harmonizing Initially Yi compares Buddhism with eleven teachings traditional foreign and indigenous showing that Buddhism has points of similarity with all of them After proceeding to produce an outline of basic Buddhist doctrine he concludes by arguing against the common criticisms of Buddhism at the time often using comparative examples from other religions Although the Baekgyo hoetong is written in the traditional styles of arraying quotes in the structure of a series of questions and answers it reflects well the complexity of Korea s newly modernizing society that was teeming with intellectual diversity for the first time in centuries Yi an avid scholar of Chinese classics Buddhist scriptures western science and Korean folk culture makes the book possible by his broad erudition Yi uses his newly acquired knowledge to harmonize the hundred teachings from a Buddhist point of view warning readers that dogmatic belief in one s own truth is in fact what is farthest from the truth
