In Light of Genesis Pamela White Hadas, 1980 Jewish Poetry Series JPS: The Americanization of Jewish Culture, 1888-1988 Jonathan D. Sarna, 2021-09 Published to mark the 100th anniversary of The Jewish Publication Society Jonathan Sarna's engaging blend of anecdote and analysis presents the personalities and the controversies the struggles and the achievements behind a century of publishing by the oldest English language publisher of Jewish books in the world Includes black and white photographs and extensive listings of JPS officers and editors governing boards and authors translators and illustrators up to 1988 At the Stone of Losses T. Carmi, 1983 The Jewish Quarterly, 1981 Lilith, 1981 Sh'ma, 1981 The Pennsylvania Writers Collection, 1984 Selected Poems of Yankev Glatshteyn Jacob Glatstein, 1987 Jewish Quarterly, 1981 Books in Series, 1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles Monographic Series Library of Congress, Paul and the Restoration of Humanity in Light of Ancient Jewish Traditions Aaron Sherwood, 2012-10-12 In Paul and The Restoration of Humanity in Light of Ancient Jewish Traditions Aaron Sherwood questions the assumption of universalism in Pauline thought and finds instead that relevant Pauline traditions depict a partly restricted and particularly Israelite restoration of humanity This important Jewish component of Paul's thought remains largely unrecognized but Pauline and other ancient Jewish traditions consistently present Israel and non Israelites uniting in their worship of Yhwh as the restoration of both Israel and humanity Aaron Sherwood demonstrates in Pauline traditions the same deployment of Israel nations unification as in biblical and post biblical traditions This suggests that rather than secondarily finding space for Gentile justification the restoration of humanity plays a generative role in Paul's theology mission and apostolic self identity Judaism, 1982 Sho'ah V'eha-siah Ha-post-moderni Sidra DeKoven Ezrahi, 1994 The Making of the Modern Jewish Bible Alan T. Levenson, 2011-07-07 The Making of the Modern Jewish Bible explains how Jewish translators commentators and scholars made the Bible a keystone of Jewish life in Germany Israel and America In each site a particular need religion nationalism ethnicity drove the enterprise of Bible study as scholars wrestled with the demands of the non Jewish environment and their own indigenous traditions Contrary to popular conceptions the author argues that the modern period has been the golden age of Jewish Bible study In New York Moshe Leib Halpern, 1982 The Galatians Commentary Collection Scot McKnight, Thomas R. Schreiner, Robert K. Rapa, 2017-01-31 This all in one commentary bundle on the book of Galatians features volumes from the NIV Application Commentary Series Zondervan Exegetical Commentary Series and Expositor's Bible Commentary Series Each volume provides new and unique insights from leading biblical scholars Scot McKnight Thomas Schreiner and Robert Rapa The unique features from each volume along with the diverse insights provided by the authors gives you all the tools you need to study and master the book of Galatians Reading the Gospels Wisely Jonathan T. Pennington, 2012-07-01 This textbook on how to read the Gospels well can stand on its own as a guide to reading this New Testament genre as Scripture It is also

ideally suited to serve as a supplemental text to more conventional textbooks that discuss each Gospel systematically Most textbooks tend to introduce students to historical critical concerns but may be less adequate for showing how the Gospel narratives read as Scripture within the canonical framework of the entire New Testament and the whole Bible yield material for theological reflection and moral edification Pennington neither dismisses nor duplicates the results of current historical critical work on the Gospels as historical sources Rather he offers critically aware and hermeneutically intelligent instruction in reading the Gospels in order to hear their witness to Christ in a way that supports Christian application and proclamation

The Oxford Handbook of the Pentateuch Joel S. Baden, Jeffrey Stackert, 2021-04-29 Featuring contributions from internationally recognized scholars in the study of the Pentateuch this volume provides a comprehensive survey of key topics and issues in contemporary pentateuchal scholarship The Oxford Handbook of the Pentateuch considers recent debates about the formation of the Pentateuch and their implications for biblical scholarship At the same time it addresses a number of issues that relate more broadly to the social and intellectual worlds of the Pentateuch This includes engagements with questions of archaeology and history the Pentateuch and the Samaritans the relation between the Pentateuch and other Moses traditions in the Second Temple period the Pentateuch and social memory and more Crucially the Handbook situates its discussions of current developments in pentateuchal studies in relation to the field's long history one that in its modern critical phase is now more than two centuries old By showcasing both this rich history and the leading edges of the field this collection provides a clear account of pentateuchal studies and a fresh sense of its vitality and relevance within biblical studies religious studies and the broader humanities

Material Mystery Karmen MacKendrick, 2021-08-17 Material Mystery considers three apparently anthropocentric myths that are central to Abrahamic religions those of the primal human the incarnated and possibly divine redeemer and the resurrected body At first glance these stories reinforce a human centered theology and point to a very anthropomorphic God Taking them seriously seems to ignore the material turn in the humanities entirely with the same sort of willful ignorance that some of our politicians show in declaring that their myths count as facts or that the point of the rest of the world is to further human consumption But it is possible Karmen MacKendrick shows to read these figures through a particular tradition that emerges from the Hebrew Bible the tradition of Wisdom as a creative force Wisdom texts are common across the ancient Near East As the idea of creative Wisdom develops from antiquity into the middle ages it gathers philosophical influences from a range of philosophical traditions This exuberantly promiscuous impurity intellectual artistic and theological generates new interpretive possibilities In these interpretations each human like figure opens up onto the world's matter as an interdependent part of it and matter is thoroughly mixed with divinity Such mythic readings complement our factual scientific understanding of the material world to engage wider kinds of knowing and affective attention particularly Wisdom's combination of care and delight
