The Gospel According to Christ Mark A. Stelter, 2011-11-14 Christianity is in crisis We live in a time when millions of people profoundly misunderstand the message of the Gospel They believe that being a Christian means little more than being a nice person They view Jesus as a wise moral teacher who showed us how to live better lives and they conclude that the love of humanity is our greatest cause and its progress our primary purpose Whatever else may be said of this view of Christianity it is certainly not what Jesus taught It is an attempt to replace the concepts of sin redemption and salvation with the more socially acceptable virtues of tolerance compassion and social progress It elevates humanity and the world above God and his kingdom and reduces Jesus to a mere moral philosopher But who did Jesus say he was What was the essential message of Christ The Gospel According to Christ answers those questions by examining the words of Jesus in their context and in their entirety The answers will be shocking to many Christians

Restoring the Story Anne van Gend, 2024-03-29 Are we getting too squeamish about the atonement There is a quiet crisis of confidence in many Western churches Confusion debates and changing sensibilities have thrown doubt on whether one of our central doctrines can be reliably communicated as good news today This book approaches atonement through story allowing imagination to illuminate the multi faceted meanings in Christ s atoning work and exploring how those rich stories can be good news for the complex issues of our day

The Analogy of Love Gary Chartier, 2015-11-09 This book offers an overview of Christian theology organized around the twin themes of divine and human love The book covers the traditional theological topics as well as basic questions of theological method It seeks to integrate a focus on love throughout While love is regularly canvassed as a dominant theme in Christian thought it has rarely been the focus of Christian theological construction or a constraint on theological formulation The book seeks to suggest chapter by chapter how a given topic relates to the broad theme of love The book is written in a way designed to make it accessible to university students and educated laypersons At the same time it takes positions on controverted scholarly issues and the methodological approach outlined at the beginning will be of interest to academic theologians

Stories of Transformation and Hope Irene Alexander, 2014-01-08 What if the people I know were to be transformed by an encounter with the cosmos The immigrant woman who argues with the doctor the homeless man on the street corner the corrupt politician the fisherman risking his life to make a living What if I met up with them in a decade and found that each had experienced a life transformation after meeting the God Man Jesus who touched them in the deepest core of their being And what if one of Jesus closest companions Mary Magdalene was to meet them and listen to their story the story of their life and their encounter with the one who brought transformation This book collects the imagined stories of men and women of whom we know very little only the bare bones of their encounters and turns them into stories for today for the immigrant woman the homeless man the politician and the fisherman any of us who want to deeply encounter a God who meets us as a real person The stories touch us because they are refashioned into the contextual thinking of our time and our culture and yet they reflect the reality of another time a time when God walked among us in our streets and our neighborhood and into our homes Mary s gospel calls us from self woven narratives and familiar scripts to a place of transformation an encounter with the Divine to become more fully who we long to be on earth as it is in heaven Book jacket

Christology and Global Ethics Martins, Alexandre A., 2023 This book offers a Christological account developed among the poor in Latin America and their experience of a God incarnated in history It places two realities together the academia where faith is object of studies and the grassroots community where faith is embodied The author introduces the reader to a contemporary Christological discussion from a Latin American liberating perspective with three essential characteristics first it is a Christology created from the reality of the poor and marginalized and at the same time oriented toward this reality as a pastoral resource Second its method goes beyond the polarization Christology from below and Christology from above Third it is a Christological essay that has a biblical text at its center Lk 4 16 30 as a starting point from where important theological disciplines are stressed such as systematic theology moral theology and liturgy In this way this book presents to the readers how different areas of theology are related and form a unity around the mystery of Christ and the faith experience of a Christian community Therefore it is an excellent book to initiate people in theological studies and method that can be used in theological classes in colleges schools and Catholic communities
