Jesus The Fact Behind The Faith:

Jesus: the Fact Behind the Faith C. Leslie Mitton, 1974 Do the Gospels give us any accurate information about the historical figure called Jesus C Leslie Mitton says yes finding in the New Testament the record of a historical Jesus whose qualities and powers compel us to declare him to be beyond question the unique Son of God Mitton begins with a survey of the quest debate of the past century a debate that has led many to doubt and skepticism Refuting the claims of those scholars who assert that there is no historical Jesus the author proposes some objective tests to determine how much authentically historical data may be found in scripture Armed with the results of these tests Mitton finds in the New Testament three categories of factual information about Jesus the portrait drawn in the Gospels the best possible listing of the sequence of events that constituted his ministry and a reliable account of Jesus teaching The result of this critical inquiry is a core of factual information about the life of Jesus and an affirmation of the essential historical reliability of the scripture account Mitton s conclusions will prove welcome to all those who take the gospel message seriously but not unthinkingly Publisher

The Archaeology of Faith Louis J. Cameli, 2015-03-23 Drawing on family history and his own story noted theologian and pastoral leader Fr Louis J Cameli takes readers on an archaeological exploration into the faith passed down across time and place Beginning in his ancestral home in Italy and tracing the story through the centuries Cameli unearths layers of faith to lead readers to a clearer understanding of their own faith as a legacy from the community of the Church In The Archaeology of Faith Fr Louis Cameli digs into his ancestry to uncover the source of his own faith and invites believers and seekers alike to examine their own faith in the context of history and within the community of the Church Tracing the evolution of faith from pre Christian times in his ancestral village of Grottamare on Italy s Adriatic coast Cameli discovered how faith intersects with the most basic predicaments of life While studying the rise of monasticism he learned that faith is lived in community As he looked at the medieval raids of Saracen pirates Cameli found a sense of living with vulnerability Finally he realized that trust in God was modeled for him by the relatives who farm the same land today as their ancestors did As Cameli studied the rich complexity of faith in his family history he reflected on his own life his vocation and the personal challenges that his beliefs pose Cameli is a highly respected priest in the Archdiocese of Chicago where he has served as the Cardinal s delegate for formation and mission and is a frequent speaker at conferences and workshops What Lies beyond Faith Jamarr Holland, 2020-11-30 What happens when you dig below the surface of several beliefs When you compare it to that of your own what will you find What happens when you take those different belief systems practices backgrounds and histories and place them side by side What types of truths will unfold before your eyes What is truth when you are faced with what lies beyond faith Faith Lies Darrell Smith, 2019-01-08 Faith Lies 7 Incomplete Ideas That Hijack Faith and How to See Beyond Them is for people noticing the cracks in the foundation of their faith as well as those who feel they have been hurt or discarded by a God or a faith that just does not make sense Faith lies are those seemingly required religious ideas or spiritual beliefs that are often confusing and rarely helpful

LIE 1 The Bible is the Literal Word of God The Bible is not the written record of God's dictation. God was most certainly the inspiration for the Bible but not the medium. People were the medium; they did the storytelling, the writing, the selecting, and the interpretation that resulted in the Bible. The Bible is not God's Bill of Rights and Constitution. Rather, it is a divinely inspired story of progression that should open things up rather than constrict and regulate.

LIE 2 God is Angry and Doesn't Like Me Especially When I Sin Instead of perceiving God as a loving parent, many of us understand God as a cosmic scorekeeper intent on our purification. Understanding God as a loving parent not only requires a reframing of our perception of God but also invites us to see each other and ourselves as beloved children.

LIE 3 The Devil is God's Counterpart This is the bad idea that the Bible presents: a continuous, consistent narrative about the devil. It simply does not. Moreover, when we string together what we actually have: disparate statements about Satan made by different people from different places, languages, cultures, and times, we arrive at the strange notion that there is a good God who is responsible for the good things in our lives and a bad God, Satan, who handles the bad stuff.

LIE 4 I Am Supposed to Protect and Defend God and My Faith There are real tensions and conflicts around the globe today that are built on the notion that as people of faith, one of our jobs is to defend our faith or our God. Rather than settling for a God who needs our protection, we can follow the powerfully divine thread of moving beyond the tribe that is found throughout the Bible.

LIE 5 There is One Right Way to Believe and One Right Way to Behave One of the root lies of fundamentalism in all faiths is the notion that true faith is defined by believing the right things and acting the right way. Isn't it more likely that we are all part of a diverse creation that flows from a God that cannot be contained by any one belief or behavior?

LIE 6 Faith is a Private Matter Much like whom we voted for in the last election or how much money we make, people have wrongfully accepted the idea that faith is a private matter and not to be shared with others. The spiritual life has always been a communal life. We require others to undertake our journey, and others need us too.

LIE 7 Real Faith is Blind Belief The idea that true faith has no doubts or questions creates a powerless and impotent faith that discourages critical thinking and fosters the ridiculous assumption that science and faith are unrelated. Real faith actually requires doubt, criticism, and exploration in order to change us, let alone change the world. While the loud voices at the margins adamantly declare faith either completely irrelevant or capable of being contained in one narrow ideology, most people get lost in the mix, feeling no certainty or comfort in either direction.

Faith Lies deconstructs the terrible notion that faithlessness and fundamentalism are our only options.

Emil Brunner (1889-1966) was the most widely read theologian in the English-speaking world throughout the mid-twentieth century. Brunner was Professor of Systematic and Practical Theology at the University of Zurich from 1924-55. His key works, The Mediator, The Divine Imperative, and Man in Revolt, were standard texts for Protestant seminaries for decades.

A Grammar of Christian Faith Joe R. Jones, 2002-06-03. A Grammar of Christian

Faith is a two volume set that aims to confront the widespread disarray in the language and practices of Christian faith today As a grammar it explains how Christian faith provides special ways of speaking and acting that make sense of human life by giving it meaning practicality and hope It advances the thesis that learning how to speak Christian language in worship and life is crucial to learning how to be a Christian Rather than supposing that Christian language and theology need continual updating in order to be relevant to the world Jones urges the church to recover anew how Christian concepts and understanding are intended to form Christian life in all its rich depths Construing theology as confessional theology in the context of the church Jones understands the church as that liberative and redemptive community called into being by the Gospel of Jesus Christ to witness in word and deed the triune God for the benefit of the world The full range of doctrinal themes that are deemed essential to the witness of the church are explored including clear explanations of why they are essential and how they are to be understood In pursuit of a truthful and beneficial witness of the church the work centers on a trinitarian understanding of God in which God freely and lovingly interacts with the world as Creator Reconciler and Redeemer The work throughout affirms the belief that the gracious triune God is the Ultimate Companion who will redeem all creation

Beyond Faith Aaron Minsky,2008 This is an important book which should see the light of day Rabbi Pinchas Stolper Orthodox Union I feel this work will be of great value to the thinking Jew Rabbi Yitzhak Rosenbaum National Jewish Outreach Program There is little doubt in my mind that this encyclopedic work will be an indispensable resource Rabbi Tovia Singer Outreach Judaism Israel National Radio This book would also be beneficial to non Jews who wish to know what Judaism thinks of them and their role in creation Rabbi Yisroel Fried Chabad Lubavitch CLICK HERE to go to the author s personal website

Church Dogmatics Karl Barth,1936 Facts and Interpretation Charles Miori,2023-06-12 Some people believe that there is a difference albeit inconsiderable between a Christian and a believer They argue that a Christian has not completely understood the valid valuable and invaluable role that the Holy Spirit plays in serving Christ They aver that a believer on the other hand is a Christian who has learned and developed a conviction born from experience that without a daily contact and yielding to the Holy Spirit could not be true to God let alone communicate with Him The question is are you willing hungry and determined to communicate with God on behalf of lost souls in ways that would enrich your participation and discipline your understanding about the great commission as a prayer warrior Prayer warriors are believers who have made a conscious effort to intercede for lost souls and to reach the world for Christ They believe and have this inveterate conviction that prayer undergirds witnessing and witnessing cultivates a culture of absolute and undeviating dependence on the Holy Spirit They also believe that the church exists to witness for Christ This book is about the Holy Spirit and His influence on all aspects of prayer That is why any church qua church that does not have a group of dedicated men and women whose avowed mission is to pray for souls prayer warriors is making itself irrelevant in preparing for the second return of Christ As you read whether it is the chapter on prayer and the knowledge of God prayer and the will of God prayer and praise prayer and faith prayer and witnessing prayer and the sovereignty of God or secret prayer you will discover as I did that the Holy Spirit stands ready to transform your own life because He that watereth shall himself be watered is an inflexible Biblical principle My hope is that the Holy Spirit will not only fight for His outcomes as you read and apply these principles in your own life but also leaven your conviction

Faith Among Faiths James Lee Fredericks, 1999 In the twenty first century the meaning of non Christian religions for Christian faith will become a central question Are all religions including Christianity responding to the same transcendent truth or are religions fundamentally different In Faith among Faiths James Fredericks moves beyond the popular pluralist model of religions and explores the meaning of Christianity in light of non Christian religions By doing theology comparatively Fredericks shows how Christians can look upon religious diversity as an opportunity for enriching their own spiritual quest BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
