Jewish-Christian Dialogue Mary C. Boys, 1997 The stories of dialogue and encounter shared in this book demonstrate how drinking from the wells of another tradition often brings a greater appreciation of the faith we call our own In reflecting on the experiences of others and on her own involvement in Jewish Christian dialogue the author explores the challenge of religious commitment pluralistic world BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved A Story of Shalom Philip A. Cunningham, 2001 Stimulus Books are volumes co sponsored by the Stimulus Foundation and Paulist Press that deal with topics of vital interest to the Jewish Christian dialogue This latest Stimulus Book A Story of Shalom is in the words of the author an experiment In it he takes the dawn of the millennium as an opportunity to retell the Christian story the origins of the church its purposes its doings over the centuries and its goals for the future in a way that envisions a positive relationship between the Christian and Jewish peoples He rejects the old story of creation as supersessionist believing that Christianity has replaced Judaism as God's chosen people And he tells the Christian story in a way that promotes Shalom by affirming Judaism's covenant with God and the validity of Jewish self understanding

Seeking Shalom Philip A. Cunningham, 2015 The amazing historic journey of Jews and Christians coming together In this book Philip Cunningham traces the remarkable developments in Catholic Jewish relations over the last fifty years Centuries of antipathy and suspicion Cunningham says have largely given way to a new mutually enriching relationship between the two traditions of Judaism and Catholicism A specialist in Christian Jewish relations Cunningham recounts the amazing historic journey of Jews and Christians coming together in light of both Scripture and theology covering the period from Vatican II up to the present day After fifty years of significant dialogue Cunningham suggests Catholics and Jews are now on the threshold of building true shalom between their two communities experiencing the Holy One anew in each other's distinctive and edifying ways of walking with God With Oil in Their Lamps Sandra Marie Schneiders, 2000 In this millennial Madeleva Lecture Sandra Schneiders takes a long and clarifying look at feminism both its impact on the past and its promise for the future She explores some of its deeply transformative effects on twentieth century American culture and on the postconciliar Church While Schneiders touches on a wide range of topics including women's emergence in the world of athletics and education and the greater role of women in the Church she pays particular attention to the unique impact that women's Religious Life had in facilitating the transformation Drawing on the insights of feminist thinkers and the biblical tradition the author suggests how a Gospel informed feminism can offer a new vision of humanity Church and world for a new century BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Has God Only One Blessing? Mary C. Boys, 2000 Are we rivals for God's love Dramatic changes in theological thought about Judaism have not yet filtered down to most Christians This compelling book puts the academic scholarship into an accessible narrative form Foremost the book challenges Christians to re examine their traditional belief that Christianity has fulfilled and therefore replaced Judaism It also details the anti Jewish bias in history literature and liturgy yet does it without reducing such attitudes to simplistic hate An eye opening read Has God Only One Blessing summarizes the Church s shared history with Judaism Church treatment of Jews over time and its role in the Holocaust suggests more sensitive and productive ways for Christians to relate to Jews today shows how encounters with Judaism affect the way Christians think teach and preach about life Both absorbing and enjoyable this book is for o DREs o adult ed classes o catechists o religious educators o pastoral staff o liturgy committees o preachers o church historians o interfaith workers o all serious Christians o and also all serious Jews     The Catholic Library World John M.
