Jump-rope Rhymes Roger D. Abrahams, 2014-02-15 I had a little brother His name was Tiny Tim I put him in the bathtub To teach him how to swim He drank all the water He ate all the soap He died last night With a bubble in his throat Jump rope rhymes chanted to maintain the rhythm of the game have other equally entertaining uses. You can dispatch bothersome younger siblings instantly and temporarily. You can learn the name of your boyfriend through the magic words. Ice cream soda Delaware Punch Tell me the initials of my honey bunch. You can perform the series of tasks set forth in Teddy Bear. Teddy Bear turn around and find out who really is the most nimble. You can even with impunity conk your teacher on the bean with a rotten tangerine. This collection of over six hundred jump rope rhymes originally published in 1969 is an introduction into the world of children: their attitudes their concerns their humor. Like other children's folklore the rhymes are both richly inventive and innocently derivative ranging from on the spot improvisations to old standards like Bluebells cockleshells with a generous sprinkling of borrowings from other play activities nursery rhymes counting out rhymes and taunts. Even adult attitudes of the time are appropriated but expressed with the artless candor of the child. Eeny meeny miny moe Catch Castro by the toe If he hollers make him say I surrender U S A. Though aware that children's play serves social and psychological functions folklorists had long neglected analytical study of children's lore because primary data was not available in organized form. Roger Abraham's Dictionary has provided such a bibliographical tool for one category of children's lore and a model for future compendia in other areas. The alphabetically arranged rhymes are accompanied by notes on sources provenience variants and connection with other play activities
