SERIES: TRUTH FOR YOUTH

SUBJECT: The Gift of Youth

READING: John 6:5-14

TEXT: "There is a lad here" (6:9).

Introduction

The feeding of the five thousand is a miracle which is recorded by each of the gospel writers. The story of this little boy gives this miracle a special relevance in the ministry of our Lord. The events that took place on this memorable occasion illustrate the redemptive compassion, provision, and intention of our Savior. Consider three salient lessons that emerge from the story before us:

I. The Availability of the Lad (6:9)

- 1) The Lad Was Willing to Seek Jesus (6:9)
- 2) The Lad Was Waiting to Serve Jesus (6:9)

II. The Potentiality of the Lad (6:9)

- 1) The Potential for Fulfilling the Will of the Master (6:10-11)
- 2) The Potential for Supplying the Need of the People (6:12)
- 3) The Potential for Advancing the Cause of the Gospel (6:14)

III. The Responsibility of the Lad (6:9)

- 1) The Lad Yielded His All to the Savior (6:11)
- 2) The Lad Trusted His All to the Savior (6:11)

Conclusion

We have seen what we mean by the gift of youth. All God wants is the availability, the potentiality, and the responsibility of an individual who is prepared to give his all. If we do our part God will do the rest and the world will be blessed.

Morlan, 2012-12-20 This study explores the conversion theologies of Luke and Paul For Luke and Paul conversion played an important role in the early Christian experience and Morlan offers a fresh look into how they interpreted this phenomenon Morlan traverses representative texts in the Lukan and Pauline corpus equipped with three theological questions What is the change involved in this conversion Why is conversion necessary Who is responsible for conversion Morlan presents theological and exegetical analysis of Luke 15 Acts 2 Acts 17 16 34 Romans 2 and Romans 9 11 and answers these questions and in turn builds theological profiles for both Luke and Paul These profiles provide fresh insight into the theological relationship between Luke and Paul showing significant similarities as well as sharp contrasts between them Similarities surface between Luke and Paul concerning the centrality of Christology in their conversion theologies While showing a complex relationship between human and divine agency in conversion both Luke and Paul understand successful conversion to be impossible without the intervention of an agency outside of the pre convert

A Philosophical Exploration of the Humanities and Social Sciences Giorgio Baruchello, Ársæll Már Arnarsson, 2022-11-07 Humor has been praised by philosophers and poets as a balm to soothe the sorrows that outrageous fortune's slings and arrows cause inevitably if not incessantly to each and every one of us In mundane life having a sense of humor is seen not only as a positive trait of character but as a social prerequisite without which a person's career and mating prospects are severely diminished if not annihilated However humor is much more than this and so much else In particular humor can accompany cruelty inform it sustain it and exemplify it Therefore in this book we provide a comprehensive reasoned exploration of the vast literature on the concepts of humor and cruelty as these have been tackled in Western philosophy humanities and social sciences especially psychology Also the apparent cacophony of extant interpretations of these two concepts is explained as the inevitable and even useful result of the polysemy inherent to all common sense concepts in line with the understanding of concepts developed by M Polanyi in the 20th century Thus a thorough nuanced grasp of their complex mutual relationship is established and many platitudes affecting today's received views and scholarship are cast aside Like Aristotle and Dewey Arnarsson and Baruchello do not define their terms at the outset but instead they relentlessly pursue the meanings of two ordinary words that everyone vaguely understands to arrive at a critical insight into the concepts these words represent which are both disparate and interrelated Richard Marc Rubin President George Santayana Society
