In My Own Words Elizabeth Clare Prophet, 2009-01-01 From modest beginnings Elizabeth Clare Prophet rose to become one of the world's most compelling charismatic and controversial spiritual leaders. Her life and accomplishments have been chronicled by others. But never until now has there been a firsthand account. In this book Elizabeth Clare Prophet tells the story of the search for her life's mission during her first twenty-two years. It provides an unflinching view of the struggles and triumphs that helped define her life. This memoir is a glimpse into the life and character of an extraordinary figure in New Age spirituality. It offers an intimate look into what it means to be a mystic in today's world. In My Own Words (Still Running)

Mickey Finn, 2011-07-25 In June 1964 a twelve-year-old child was summonsed to appear at Dublin's Children's Court. The offence for which he was charged related to an amateurish break-in when coerced and accompanied by older children. In terms of gravity the misbehaviour was hardly more than a prank. In the severe surroundings of that oak-panelled court deep in the bowels of Dublin Castle Mickey was sentenced to serve three years' hard labour in what was then known as an industrial school, Letterfrack Industrial School, to which he was sent. It is situated in Connemara, one of Ireland's most isolated regions. For a child its remoteness found its equal only in a Siberian gulag; the likelihood of escape less than that from San Francisco's notorious Alcatraz Prison. Its seclusion in this malevolent place of correction was a major factor in the institutionalised abuse of children by the Christian Brothers, with whom these unfortunate waifs were placed. Many of these ill-fated youngsters had not been convicted of any offence; their crime was that they were orphaned, most if not all were victims of dysfunctional family life. During his sentence Mickey and the hundreds of other children who passed through this den of depravity were methodically physically and mentally tortured and abused. The Irish State was instrumental in providing this depraved band of brothers with a steady supply of victims. With Taliban-like zeal the Christian Brothers methodically administered random life-threatening beatings, merely on a whim the more injurious were witnessed by fellow brothers and many witnessed by other terrified children.
