In Company With Christ:

Christ and Business Culture Kam-hon Lee, Dennis McCann, MaryAnn Ching Yuen, Centre for the Study of Religion and Chinese Society, CUHK, 2012 This book reports the results of a research project that spanned more than a decade Integrity is the foundation of business However the marketplace is highly competitive and sometimes hostile to basic moral aspirations It is not easy for Christian executives to remain faithful to their Christian values in the business world This project interviewed a total of 119 Christian executives in Hong Kong They were known among their peers as committed Christians Based on their stories recounting the challenges they faced in the marketplace the authors managed to collect a total of 539 critical incidents that illustrate how they responded when they sensed their integrity was on the line This study makes use of H Richard Niebuhr's framework on Christ and Culture and also the Negotiation Styles Framework in the negotiation literature When putting these two frameworks together the new integrated framework enabled us to understand the Christian executives responses to ethical challenges and their implications to profitability This book demonstrates the usefulness and limitation of positive science and the importance of normative reflection in handling ethical challenges Based on positive science findings we can see Christian executives typical responses as these are shaped by external circumstances such as doing business in China or operating within a Christian corporate culture Based on normative reflection we can see that not infrequently when taking all possible factors into consideration Christian executives may pick atypical ways to respond to ethical challenges In handling such challenges it is important to understand both positive science and normative reflection Christian executives may benefit directly from the insights in this study to better prepare themselves for the ethical challenges in the marketplace Interested readers who are not Christians can also use these insights to compare and contrast as well as develop further their own ways of conducting business with integrity Keep "Company" With God Carla A Nelson, 2003-06 The Complete Works of C. H. Spurgeon, Volume 51 Spurgeon, Charles H., Volume 51 Sermons 2916-2967 Charles Spurgeon 19 June 1834-31 January 1892 is one of the church's most famous preachers and Christianity's foremost prolific writers Called the Prince of Preachers he was one of England's most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today His sermons have spread all over the world and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades In his lifetime Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people often up to ten times each week He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel later the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London for 38 years He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works including sermons commentaries an autobiography as well as books on prayer devotionals magazines poetry hymns and more Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon's messages to be among the best in Christian literature Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London Volume 6

1878 quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon's meetings at Surrey Fancy a congregation consisting of 10 000 souls streaming into the hall mounting the galleries humming buzzing and swarming a mighty hive of bees eager to secure at first the best places and at last any place at all After waiting more than half an hour for if you wish to have a seat you must be there at least that space of time in advance Mr Spurgeon ascended his tribune To the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion which seemed to run at once like an electric current through the breast of every one present and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse It is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly of his language that it is neither high flown nor homely of his style that it is at times familiar at times declamatory but always happy and often eloquent of his doctrine that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with Gospel weapons against irreligion cant hypocrisy pride and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life and to sum up all in a word it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity More than a hundred years after his death Charles Spurgeon's legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world For this reason Delmarva Publications has chosen to publish the complete works of Charles Spurgeon Public business and missions the Great Commission Company These companies intentionally create businesses in strategic locations pursuing profits while remaining unabashedly Christian in their purpose By establishing authentic businesses that employ local workers among the least reached peoples of the world they contribute to the economic health of the immediate community and also provide avenues for both physical and spiritual ministry Based on a five year study of groundbreaking enterprises like Pura Vida Coffee this book offers keen analysis of the principles and practices of these companies In an era where multinational corporations have global influence and impact the Great Commission Company opens up new possibilities for missions minded entrepreneurs and businesspeople who want to change the world to the glory of God
