In Extremis And Other Alaskan Stories:

In Extremis and Other Alaskan Stories Jean Anderson, 1989-01 Alaska with its midnight sun seemingly endless winter and vast stretches of isolated land is a main character here playing subtle but key roles in each story of this superior first collection In PARTING OUT a professor's middle aged wife sits at her breakfast table her thoughts jumping from the facts of her marriage to fantasies of her husband's unfaithfulness But even with her disturbing inner visions it is the winter scene outside the window that transfixes her In VREELUND a transplanted Alaskan attends a memorial service for a friend a mountain climber The mother of toddler twins in DISTANCE discovers that the climate is not her harshest foe when tragedy compels her to recall the bravery she and her husband had needed to travel so far together into this land whose very extremity was the thing she loved and wanted A pioneer charting frontier Anderson surveys both the exotic terrain and the readily recognisable natives

Alaskans Tanyo Ravicz, 2008-03 Here are ten celebrated stories of contemporary Alaska a full color no holds barred portrayal of life in the Great Land Alaskans paints a series of unforgettable portraits of Alaskans in all walks of life A firefighter confronts his mixed identity as a wildfire rages a teenager discovers one of the perils of cannery work friends hunt for happiness at the top of the world rivals meet over the grave of the man they loved Spirited wide ranging by turns tender and blunt written in a lean and vigorous prose the selection includes Tanyo Ravicz's classic novella A Fox in May in which young Jed Hanson a boy on the cusp of manhood becomes immersed in the terrors and beauties of the natural world Part of a true literature of Alaska embraces the vast land to include firefighters fishermen quirky old timers startlingly real Natives and eager cheechakos male and female who bring to this demanding dream filled world a memorable energy and a hunger for authenticity Ravicz's writing whispers sings and howls about colliding passions unforgiving realities hard won success enduring love and never predictable joy These stories tell lasting truths about our lives Jean Anderson author of In Extremis and Other Alaskan Stories

Updating the Literary West, 1997 Western writers says Thomas J Lyon in his epilogue to Updating the Literary West have grown up with the frontier myth but now find themselves in the early stages of creating a new western myth The editors of the Literary History of the American West TCU Press 1987 hoped that the first volume would begin not conclude their exploration of the West's literary heritage Out of this hope comes Updating the Literary West a comprehensive reference anthology including essays by over one hundred scholars A selected bibliography is included with each piece In the ten years since publication of LHAW western writing has developed a significantly larger presence in the national literary stream A variety of cultural viewpoints have developed along with new tactics for literary study New authors have risen to prominence and the range of subjects has changed and widened Updating the Literary West looks at topics ranging from western classics to cowboys and Cadillacs and considers children's literature ethnicity environmental writing gender issues and other topics in which change has been rapid since publication of LHAW This volume again affirms the West's literary legitimacy status hard earned by the Western Literary Association and the lasting place of popular western writing as part of the growing and changing literary and American experience An excellent reference for a wide range of readers and an invaluable resource for scholars and libraries Selected list of contributors James Maguire Fred Erisman Susan J Rosowski Gerald Haslam Tom Pilkington A Carl Bredahl Richard Slotkin John G Cawelti Robert F Gish Ann Ronald Mick McAllister Human Being Songs Jean Anderson, 2017-02-15 The public image of Alaska for those who live elsewhere tends to be bound up with the outdoors But while that s not necessarily false it s a far from complete picture This collection of stories shows us what we re missing set in Alaska s cities and suburbs homes and back roads cars and kitchens and bedrooms it offers not tales of adventures but quietly powerful psychological dramas introspective explorations of the private triumphs and failures of personal life played out in an extraordinary place Jean Anderson delicately balances the lyrical and the experimental to tell the stories of hardworking Alaskans teachers laborers dental hygienists artists worrying over fairness and equity and meaning falling in and out of love and pondering elusive long dreamed of goals Powered by a rich empathy Human Being Songs shows us life in Alaska as it s actually lived today its successes failures and moments of transcendent beauty Olderr's Fiction Index ,1989 The Publishers Weekly ,1990
