Miyamoto Walters, 2015-09-09 The events of December 7 1941 rocked the lives of people around the world The bombing of Pearl Harbor had intimate repercussions too especially in the territory of Hawaii In Love and War recounts the wartime experiences of author Melody M Miyamoto Walters's grandparents two second generation Japanese Americans or Nisei living in Hawaii Their love story narrated in letters they wrote each other from July 1941 to June 1943 offers a unique view of Hawaiian Nisei and the social and cultural history of territorial Hawaii during World War II Drawing on her grandparents' letters Miyamoto Walters fleshes out what it meant to live and work on the islands of Kauai Oahu and Hawaii during the war years Although to outsiders twenty somethings Yoshiharu Ogata and Naoko Tsukiyama were both Japs the couple came from different socioeconomic classes and cultures Naoko the author's grandmother hailed from a prosperous Honolulu merchant family whereas Yoshiharu grew up poor part of the laboring class on a sugar plantation on Kauai Their courtship was riddled with challenges He stayed on Oahu then moved to Kauai she moved to the Big Island Yoshiharu faced the possibility of being drafted into the military After the bombing of Pearl Harbor they both lived under martial law Some Americans operating under nativist and xenophobic beliefs questioned Japanese Americans loyalty to the United States But as the letters collected here show the Nisei were patriots Naoko and Yoshiharu spoke English participated in the YMCA and the USO and taught in public schools They embraced American popular culture quoting lines of pop songs in their correspondence and celebrated both Japanese and American traditions Through their experiences Miyamoto Walters shows how Japanese Americans negotiation of race ethnicity and cultural space in wartime indelibly shaped Hawaii s postwar economic political and social landscape

Song James Tatum,2018-10-30 No matter when or where they are fought all wars have one thing in common a relentless progression to monuments and memorials for the dead Likewise all art made from war begins and ends in mourning and remembrance In The Mourner s Song James Tatum offers incisive discussions of physical and literary memorials constructed in the wake of war from the Vietnam Veterans Memorial to the writings of Stephen Crane Edmund Wilson Tim O Brien and Robert Lowell Tatum s touchstone throughout is the Iliad not just one of the earliest war poems but also one of the most powerful examples of the way poetry can be a tribute to and consolation for what is lost in war Reading the Iliad alongside later works inspired by war Tatum reveals how the forms and processes of art convert mourning to memorial He examines the role of remembrance and the distance from war it requires the significance of landscape in memorialization the artifacts of war that fire the imagination the intimate relationship between war and love and its effects on the ferocity with which soldiers wage battle and finally the idea of memorialization itself Because all survivors suffer the losses of war Tatum s is a story of both victims and victors commanders and soldiers women and men Photographs of war memorials in Vietnam France and the United States beautifully augment his testimonials Eloquent and deeply moving The Mourner s Song will speak to anyone interested in the literature of war and the relevance of the classics to our most pressing contemporary needs War
