

Why Do We Praise Dogs

Praise is rewarding. Dogs crave our approval and affection. When we praise them, it gives them confidence that they are doing the right thing

Praise contains the information for your dog that you love something he did. That makes it a valuable training tool

Praise is readily available. You might forget to bring treats. But your mouth is always with you. As long as you can speak, you can praise your dog

Praising your dog will make your puppy look at you for guidance more often. And that is rewarding to us

Praise improves your relationship and bond with your puppy. The more you praise your pup, the more you will appreciate the awesomeness of your pooch
