Nietzsche's Naturalist Deconstruction of Truth Peter Bornedal, 2020-01-03 Nietzsche's Naturalist Deconstruction of Truth A World Fragmented in Late Nineteenth Century Epistemology offers a new interpretation of Nietzsche's discussions of truth and knowledge covering the period from his early essay On Truth and Lies in an Extra Moral Sense to his late notebooks It places these discussions in the context of the neo Kantian Naturalist Positivist and Pragmatic schools influential in Nietzsche's late nineteenth century Europe Peter Bornedal argues for a view of Nietzsche's epistemological thought as an elaboration of this paradigm proposing ideas that are anti metaphysical and anti theological in their polemic orientation and in general promoting new scientific naturalist ideals in the discussions of knowledge Bornedal suggests that the rational pursuit of these new ideals to the unencumbered mind logically leads to Nihilism in its most profound epistemological sense Nietzsche's critique of metaphysics is thus seen as having sprung from sources different from and at times in patent opposition to more recent postmodern and deconstructionist critiques This book contextualizes Nietzsche in relation to a number of philosophical peers and juxtaposes him to contemporary thinkers in a way that resolves some of the difficulties that have plagued recent Nietzsche scholarship

Victorian Empiricism Peter Garratt, 2010 Empiricism one of Raymond William's keywords circulates in much contemporary thought and criticism solely as a term of censure a synonym for spurious objectivity or positivism Yet rarely if ever has it had this philosophical implication Dr Johnson it should be recalled kicked the stone precisely to expose empiricism's baroque falsifications of common sense In an effort to restore historical
