Jew Hate As A Sociological Problem:

Jew-hate as a Sociological Problem Perez Bernstein,1951 Jew-hate as a Sociological Problem Perez Bernstein,1951 Hatred of Jews-A Failure of Holocaust Education? Melanie Carina Schmoll,2025-03-24 Hatred of Jews noticed a dramatic rise after the events of October 7 2023 Since Holocaust education was presented for years as the answer to the hatred of Jews the question almost automatically occurs Has Holocaust education failed Does it need to be revised or totally reorganized How do things differ in the future How can Holocaust education contribute to combating hatred of Jews The German Holocaust education expert and historian Dr Melanie Carina Schmoll PhD provides answers to these questions This book teaches academics and practitioners why and what to expect when teaching about the Holocaust Content outcome of Holocaust education gaps in knowledge and the reasons for are examined In comprehensible explanations Dr Schmoll shows the potential failures in Holocaust education and why the teaching of history still matters Hatred of Jews A Failure of Holocaust Education bridges the gap between academic research and practical support for educators teachers and textbook publishers A step by step guide helps on how to improve it in the future Anti-Semitism and its Metaphysical

Origins David Patterson,2015-02-09 This book articulates a deeper understanding of the phenomenon of Jew hatred as a metaphysical aspect of the human soul Proceeding from the Jewish thinking that the anti Semites oppose David Patterson argues that anti-Semitism arises from the most ancient of temptations the temptation to be as God and thus to flee from an absolute accountability to and for the other human being A Psychoanalytic History of the Jews Avner Falk,1996 This includes the evolution of the Hebrew religion as a projective response to the inner conflicts produced by the human family the sociopsychological development of the Israelite kingdoms in Canaan the fascinating duality of Jewish life in the Diaspora and the emotional ties of the Jews to their idealized motherland from the Babylonian exile to modern political Zionism

Key Concepts in the Study of Antisemitism Sol Goldberg,Scott Ury,Kalman Weiser,2020-12-02 This volume is designed to assist university faculty and students studying and teaching about antisemitism racism and other forms of prejudice In contrast with similar volumes it is organized around specific concepts instead of chronology or geography It promotes conversation about antisemitism across disciplinary geographic and thematic lines rather than privileging a single methodological paradigm a specific academic field or an overarching narrative Its twenty one chapters by leading scholars in diverse fields address the relationship to antisemitism of concepts ranging from Anti Judaism to Zionism Each chapter not only traces the history and major scholarly debates around a key concept it also presents an original argument points to avenues for further research and exemplifies a method of investigation Hate and the 'Jewish Science' S.

Frosh,2015-12-31 Psychoanalysis has always grappled with its Jewish origins sometimes celebrating them and sometimes trying to escape or deny them Through exploration of Freud's Jewish identity the fate of psychoanalysis in Germany under the Nazis and psychoanalytic theories of anti-Semitism this book examines the significance of the Jewish connection with psychoanalysis and what that can tell us about political and psychological resistance anti-Semitism and racism Social Problems as Viewed by Catholic Sociologists Arlen Runzler Birr, 1952 The War Against the Jew Dagobert D.

Runes, 2023-12-19 An A to Z reference guide to the major figures concepts and events factoring into antisemitic hatred and violence across history In The War Against the Jews Dagobert D. Runes presents a scholarly account of antisemitism across centuries of war slander atrocities and bigotry as it has manifested around the world Concise entries cover everything from major figures of the Catholic Church who endorsed hate to code names for little known Nazi plans Here readers can learn how Russian emperor Alexander I expelled Jews from Russian towns in the nineteenth century a fifteenth century Franciscan friar travelled through Europe spreading fear of Jews as baby killers the ominous prayer recited by Protestant and Catholic bishops on Hitler's fiftieth birthday and much more The Quest for Jewish Assimilation in Modern Social Science Amos

Morris-Reich, 2008-01-15 The transformation of the human sciences into the social sciences in the third part of the 19th century was closely related to attempts to develop and implement methods for dealing with social tensions and the rationalization of society This book studies the connections between academic disciplines and notions of Jewish assimilation and integration and demonstrates that the quest for Jewish assimilation is linked to and built into the conceptual foundations of modern social science disciplines Focusing on two influential assimilated Jewish authors anthropologist Franz Boas and sociologist Georg Simmel this study shows that epistemological considerations underlie the authors' respective evaluations of the Jews' assimilation in German and American societies as a form of group extinction or as a form of social identity This conceptual model gives a new key to understanding pivotal issues in recent Jewish history and in the history of the social sciences A History of the Jewish People Abraham Malamat, 1976 First published in Hebrew in Tel Aviv in 1969 First

English translation by Weidenfeld and Nicholson in 1976 The Social Roots of Discrimination John W.

Thibaut, 2017-09-04 The Social Roots of Discrimination explains the phenomenon of anti-Semitism In this classic volume Peretz F. Bernstein looks for objective reasons why anti-Semitism flourished in European countries Some civilized people would consider the notion of race uncivilized but the existence of different races and the inequality of races with their specific race characteristics and on top of that the existence of superior and inferior human races was accepted as a fact of life and as a scientific truth long before the Nazis came to power Although there is a marked difference in dealing with anti-Semitism in continental Europe in 1920 and the anti-Semitism in for instance the US in 2000 Bernstein's ideas remain valuable Starting from a concrete problem anti-Semitism in Central Europe Bernstein puts anti-Semitism in a general sociological theoretical framework Far from limiting himself to fruitless elaborations on the common perceived unpleasant characteristics of Jews he recognizes that the group is heterogeneous and that the usual arguments to justify anti-Semitism do not have any general validity although they may hold for some specific individuals of the hated group like individual members of any group may be less pleasant Bernstein's ideas remain valuable Bernstein tries to explain the hatred of Jews as the working of a more general mechanism one that has nothing to do specifically with of Jews as a collective or as individuals In doing so Bernstein attempts to sketch a general theory of social groups and conflicts between groups The Social Roots of Discrimination gives an important message both for social scientists and for all intellectuals who are concerned with the strifes between nations races and social groups More Examples, Less Theory Michael Billig, 2019-10-03 By examining key psychologists from the past this book shows why examples are so important and theory is over valued The Intellectual and Cultural Origins of Chaïm Perelman and Lucie Olbrechts-Tyteca's New Rhetoric Project Michelle Bolduc, David A. Frank, 2023-04-12 Cha m Perelman alone and in collaboration with Lucie Olbrechts Tyteca developed the New Rhetoric Project NRP which is in use throughout the world Sir Brian Vickers in his historical survey of rhetoric and philosophy for the Oxford Encyclopaedia of Rhetoric states that the NRP is one of the most influential modern formulations of rhetorical theory This book provides the first deep contextualization of the project s origins offers seven original translations of the writings of Perelman and Olbrechts Tyteca from French into English and details how their collaboration effectively addresses then philosophical problems of our age New Directions in Race, Ethnicity and Crime Coretta Phillips, Colin Webster, 2013-10-08 The disproportionate criminalisation and incarceration of particular minority ethnic groups has long been observed though much of the work in criminology has been dominated by a somewhat narrow debate This debate has concerned itself with explaining this disproportionality in terms of structural inequalities and socio economic disadvantage or discriminatory criminal justice processing This book offers an accessible and innovative approach including chapters on anti Semitism social cohesion in London Bradford and Glasgow as well as an exploration of policing Traveller communities Incorporating current empirical research and new departures in methodology and theory this book also draws on a range of contemporary issues such as policing terrorism immigration detention and youth gangs In offering minority perspectives on race crime and justice and white inmate perspectives from the multicultural prison the book emphasises contrasting and distinctive influences on constructing ethnic identities It will be of interest to students studying courses in ethnicity crime and justice Consumed by Hate, Redeemed by Love Thomas A. Tarrants, 2019-08-06 Riveting inspiring at times hard to believe but utterly true it gives some measure of hope in these rancorous times John Grisham As an ordinary high school student in the 1960s Tom Tarrants became deeply unsettled by the social upheaval of the era In response he turned for answers to extremist ideology and was soon utterly radicalized Before long he became involved in the reign of terror spread by Mississippi s dreaded White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan described by the FBI as the most violent right wing terrorist organization in America In 1969 while attempting to bomb the home of a Jewish leader in Meridian Mississippi Tom was ambushed by law enforcement and shot multiple times during a high speed chase Nearly dead from his wounds he was arrested and sentenced to thirty years in the Mississippi State Penitentiary at Parchman Farm Unrepentant Tom and two other inmates made a daring escape from Parchman yet were tracked down by an FBI SWAT team and apprehended in hail of bullets that killed one of the convicts

Tom spent the next three years alone in a six foot by nine foot cell. There he began a search for truth that led him to the Bible and a reading of the gospels resulting in his conversion to Jesus Christ and liberation from the grip of racial hatred and violence. Astounded by the change in Tom, many of the very people who worked to put him behind bars began advocating for his release. After serving eight years of a 35 year sentence, Tom left prison. He attended college, moved to Washington DC and became copastor of a racially mixed church. He went on to earn a doctorate and became the president of the C. S. Lewis Institute where he devoted himself to helping others become wholehearted followers of Jesus. A dramatic story of radical transformation, Consumed by Hate, Redeemed by Love demonstrates that hope is not lost even in the most tumultuous of times, even those similar to our own. As a kid in Mississippi in the late 1960s, I remember the men of our church discussing the Klan's bombing campaign against the Jews. The men did not disapprove. Later, I would use this fascinating chapter of civil rights history as the backdrop for my novel The Chamber. Now one of the bombers, Thomas Tarrants, tells the real story in this remarkable memoir. It is riveting, inspiring at times, hard to believe but utterly true, and it gives some measure of hope in these rancorous times. John Grisham, Dramatic, Simply astonishing. Essential reading for these times. If you want to understand how the evil of extremist thought works and how the gospel of God's grace can overcome it, read this book. Mark Batterson, New York Times bestselling author of The Circle Maker, lead pastor of National Community Church, Amazing, Gives hope for what God can do. Dr. John Perkins, president emeritus, John Perkins Foundation, co-founder emeritus, Christian Community Development Association. A riveting narrative. Russell Moore, president, the Ethics Religious Liberty Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention. This gripping and inspiring story is as timely as today's headlines. Put on your seatbelt and prepare to enter into one of the most extraordinary true stories you'll ever encounter. Lee Strobel, best-selling author of The Case for Christ and The Case for Grace, Reveals how easily a political ideology can grow into a radical, extreme life-taking worldview, all the while masquerading for some supposed form of a Christian faith. A powerful story. Eric C. Redmond, associate professor of Bible, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago. Jesus, Politics, and Society Richard J. Cassidy, 2015-02-01. Was Jesus dangerous to the Roman Empire? Reading the Gospel of Luke in the light of Roman-ruled Palestine. Richard J. Cassidy demonstrates that Jesus was a powerful threat to both the political and social structures of his time. Jew-hate as a Sociological Problem; Translated by David Saraph. Peretz Friedreich Bernstein, Nothing New in Europe? Anita Haviv-Horiner, 2021-11-01. Today more than 75 years after the Holocaust and World War II, antisemitism remains a poisonous force in European culture and politics, whether cloaked in the garb of reactionary nationalism or manifested in outright physical violence. Nothing New in Europe provides a sobering look at the persistence of European antisemitism today through fifteen interviews with Jewish Israelis living in Germany, Poland, France, and other countries, supplemented with in-depth scholarly essays. The interviewees draw upon their lived experiences to reflect on anti-Jewish rhetoric, the role of Israel, and the relationship between antisemitism and the persecution of other minorities. The Oxford Handbook of African American Citizenship, 1865-Present Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-05-24 Collection of essays tracing the historical evolution of African American experiences from the dawn of Reconstruction onward through the perspectives of sociology political science law economics education and psychology As a whole the book is a systematic study of the gap between promise and performance of African Americans since 1865 Over the course of thirty four chapters contributors present a portrait of the particular hurdles faced by African Americans and the distinctive contributions African Americans have made to the development of U S institutions and culture From publisher description
