Uncovering Violence Amy Cottrill,2021-10-26 It is no surprise that the Bible is filled with stories of violence having come into being through the crucible of trauma cultural conflict and warfare But the more obvious acts of physical or sexual violence in the Hebrew Bible often overshadow its subtler forms throughout Scripture and belie the variety of perspectives on violence embedded in biblical narratives This hinders readers' ability to recognize the full spectrum of human engagement with violence both in texts and in their lived experiences Uncovering Violence Reading Biblical Narratives as an Ethical Project seeks to provide a theoretical vocabulary for the various forms that violence can take including textual violence interpretive violence moral injury and slow violence and to offer a fresh ethical reading of violence in the biblical text Focusing on four narratives from the Hebrew Bible Cottrill uses the approach of narrative ethics to lay out the many ways that stories can make moral claims on readers not by delivering a discrete lesson or takeaway but by making transformative contact with readers and involving them in a more embodied dialogue with the text Exploring the narratives of Jael s killing of Sisera the toxic masculinity of Samson environmental devastation and failures of legal systems in Ruth and Abigail s mediation with King David Uncovering Violence presents strategies for reading that allow for this close encounter In doing so it helps prepare readers to better recognize interpret and even respond to violence and its many effects within and beyond the text After the spiritual energy revived, I became an immortal pet Oliver Cooper,2007-03-22

The Laris Mountains are a very inconspicuous mountain range on the continent of Eden Although this primitive area stretching for thousands of kilometers borders the famous Warcraft Mountains on the continent of Eden there are very few Warcraft here and theones that do appear are only some relatively ferocious beasts Douluo□The Secret of the Contract Chain Catherine Garcia,2004-05-09 Hinduism has the Bhagavad Gita just as Islam has the Koran and Christianity has the New and Old Testaments The Buddhist scriptures are vast with different schools and divisions doctrines practices and results all based on the scriptures or even named their own divisions Taoism is similar and there is no need to describe it in detail The holy way of salvation is extremely powerful and the key points are all profound and profound both mysterious and historical mixed with mythology some looking to the other side some hoping to become immortals seeking to escape from the sea of suffering and admiring the land of bliss These views are parallel and they have the same purpose It is hard to say who can fully encompass the truth of the universe They all follow their own beliefs and evidence to establish their theories and then they become their religions As modern civilization advances our socialist country has freedom of religion and the glorious constitution has clear provisions The people of various religions were all happy and peaceful and they were not involved in the national affairs and had no disputes

Theology and Fantasy Elise Brooke,1977 There is a long tradition of allegorical writing in the Christian Church Many parts of the Old Testament are written in this form and in the New Testament Christ himself taught in parables Several modern writers have used allegory or one of its allied forms myth parable or fantasy as a means of conveying religious truths This book examines the work of four authors George MacDonald C S Lewis Charles Williams and J R R Tolkien who each made a valuable contribution to this tradition Each of the books mentioned here is well worth reading and if this introduction only serves to send the reader back to the originals it will have fulfilled a most useful purpose The Dragon Revenant Katharine Kerr,2009-12-23 For years the provinces of Deverry have been in turmoil now the conflict escalates with the kidnapping of Rhodry Maelwaedd heir to the throne of Aberwyn Intent on rescuing him his beloved Jill and the elven wizard Salamander infiltrate the distant land of Bardex where Rhodry is held captive Tied to Deverry by obligation and circumstance the immortal wizard Nevyn begins to see that all the kingdom's problems can be traced to a single source a master of dark magics backed by a network of evil that stretches across the sea Now Nevyn understands that he too is being lured away to Bardek and into a subtle deadly trap designed especially for him Katharine Kerr's novels of the Kingdom of Deverry unfold in a world of stunning richness and depth Her vivid portrayal of characters caught in a complex web of fate and magic captures the imagination with a realism that few can match Now she returns to this enchanted kingdom where the wheels of destiny are turning anew

Theatre West Four - So Far as I Can Remember John Anthony Nicholls, 2013-06 It was the best of times it was the best of times to paraphrase Dickens famous line That was the experience of the few youthful hopefuls who founded an amazing tradition all those years ago It was the experience too of the many who happened upon or sought out Theatre West Four and joined up to become faithful supporters and contributors It became for most of them the centre of their social activity and natural supplier of entertainment the highlight of each week Too strong a statement Read Tony Nicholl's wonderful discourse on the life and times of TW4 and discover more The Stages of Life Hugh Crago, 2016-08-11 Is personality in the genes Do our infant experiences matter even though we can't remember them Why do patterns repeat within the lives of individuals and families The Stages of Life provides answers to these and other intriguing questions and presents a refreshingly readable introduction to human development from birth to death The book synthesises those theories and research findings that are most helpful in explaining the paradoxes and complexities of human personality and human problems The book provides a thought provoking discussion of several important topics including how personality evolves in response to both genetic and social influences how individuals differ and what this means for them how some problems tend to develop at particular stages of the life course from early childhood through to midlife and old age Throughout the book Hugh Crago relates both nature and nurture to the challenges individuals must face from early childhood through to old age He draws attention to often ignored clinical findings about cross generational repetition in families and shows how recent developments in epigenetics may supply an explanation for such mysterious phenomena Written without jargon and full of new and provocative ideas the book will be of great interest to students of counselling and psychotherapy and it is also has much to offer the general reader With its engaging examples from history literature and the author's own life readers will find that The Stages of Life illuminates puzzles in their own lives and opens a road to self acceptance

Middle Passages and the Healing Place of History Elizabeth Brown-Guillory, 2006 Middle Passages and the Healing Place of History Migration and Identity in Black Women's Literature brings together a series of essays addressing black women's fragmented identities and quests for wholeness The individual essays concern culturally specific experiences of blacks in select African countries England the Caribbean the United States and Canada They examine identity struggles by establishing the Middle Passage as the first site of identity rupture and the subsequent break from cultural and historical moorings In most cases the authors themselves have migrated from their places of origin to new spaces that present challenges Their narratives replicate the displacement engendered by their own experiences of living with the complexities of diasporic existence Their female characters many of whom participate in multiple border crossings work to define themselves within a hostile environment In nearly every essay the female characters struggle against multiple yokes of oppression giving voice to what it means to be black female poor old and alone The subjects migrations and journeys are analyzed as attempts to heal the displacement both physical and psychological that results from dislocation and relocation from the homeland imagined variously as Africa This volume reveals that black women across the globe share a common ground fraught with struggles but the narratives bear out that these women are not easily divided and that they stand upon each other's shoulders dispensing healing balms Black women's history and herstory commingle the trauma that ensued when Africans were loaded onto ships in chains continues to haunt black women and men too wherever they find themselves in this present moment of the Diaspora

The marvellous budget, 65,536 stories about Jack and Jill Frederick Bennett, 1890 African Son William J. village life in Senegal and Cameroon to detailed accounts of the rich physical and natural worlds in Zimbabwe Malawi and Madagascar to a mock curriculum vitae for a Cameroonian man whose skill set is surprisingly extensive A work of creative non fiction African Son describes individual and later family experiences in a number of African locations from villages to major urban centers and from desert to thick tropical forest
