Jip His Story:

Jip Katherine Paterson, 2005 An abandoned boy turns to his only friend to help him make sense of his past after a menacing stranger comes to town claiming to have been sent by his father JIP : His Story [by] Katherine Paterson Estelle Kleinman, 2002 Jip : His Story by Katherine Paterson : a Novel Study Guide Paterson, Katherine, Frances Stanford, David Stanford, 2000 Cultural Journeys Pamela S. Gates, Dianne L. Hall Mark, 2010-08-16 As multicultural education is becoming integral to the core curriculum teachers often implement this aspect into their courses through literature However standards and criteria to teach and promote active discussion about this literature are sparse Cultural Journeys introduces pre service and experienced teachers to the use of literature to promote active discussions that lead students to think about racial diversity More than just an annotated list of books for children Pamela S Gates and Dianne L Hall Mark provide systematic guidelines that teachers can use throughout their careers to evaluate multicultural literature for students in grades K 8 At the same time the text leads the reader to a deeper understanding of how to use multicultural literature throughout the entire curriculum and not just during specially designated months or time periods With the example unit plans and extensive annotated bibliography this book is a valuable resource that pre service teachers will utilize when they begin teaching and in service teachers will reference repeatedly during their planning periods New York's Grand Emancipation Jubilee Alan J. Singer, 2018-04-25 Examines slavery abolition and race in the United States with a special focus on New York State In this book Alan J Singer discusses the history of race and racism in the United States emphasizing the continuing significance of slavery's past in shaping our present Each chapter addresses a different theme in the history of slavery and the abolitionist struggle in the United States with a focus on events and debates in New York State Chapters examine the founders of the new nation and their views on slavery and equality African American resistance how abolitionists moved from the margins to the center of political debate key players in the anti slavery struggle such as David Ruggles Solomon Northup Harriet Tubman Frederick Douglass William Seward and Abraham Lincoln celebrations of freedom as well as ongoing racism Interspersed throughout the text are teaching notes that explore primary source documents and resources The book draws on the latest scholarship to address and correct historical myths about both New York State before during and after the American Civil War especially the pro slavery anti civil rights stance of New York Copperhead Democrats in Congress and the crucial role of Black and White abolitionists in ending slavery in the United States and challenging racial injustice New York's Grand Emancipation Jubilee is not only an effort to include more African Americans as historical actors and celebrate their activism and achievements but to provide an opportunity to analyze historical moments for change explore their dynamic and discover the conditions that make some of them successful The book's greatest strength is that it situates the activism of New York's black abolitionists in the larger abolition movement It is particularly nice to see prominent African Americans chronicled in a single book Additionally this work will make it easier for both secondary and college level instructors to teach about the importance of African American abolitionists in helping to put an end to slavery
