Future Tense New English Fiction From Quebec:

Future Tense Raymond Beauchemin, Denise Roig, 1997 Despite the tensions Canadians hear and read about Quebec's English language literary scene has burgeoned over the past nine years English fiction is a reality in Quebec Future Tense is a delectable sampling of new short fiction writing Included are stories by Julie Keith George Szanto Carolyn Marie Souaid James Boothroyd Robyn Sarah Irene Friedman Karafilly Teresa Jurkowski Connie Barnes Rose R John Woolfrey and F C Salevsky Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research

Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 Promise of Shelter Robyn Sarah, 1997 What a treat it is to read stories that do not seek to reduce the complexity of our lives or the ambiguities of our relationships intriguing stories that are profound without being heavy There are eight stories here some very short others long and all worth reading pondering and then rereading Canadian Books in Print 2002 Edited by Butler Marian, Marian Butler, 2002-02 constructing de centring de stabilizing and especially de mythologizing in the study that illustrates New World myth narrators questioning the past in the present and carrying out their original investigations of myth place and identity Underlining the fact that political realities are encoded in the language and narrative of the works Vautier argues that the reworkings of literary religious and historical myths and political ideologies in these novels are grounded in their shared situation of being in and of the New World Canadian Books in Print, 2003 University of Toronto Quarterly
