Garden Beyond:

Beyond Wild Raymond Jungles, 2021-11-09 Monograph on Raymond Jungles a contemporary landscape architect based in Miami known for innovative but timeless design and a commitment to ethical stewardship of the land For almost 40 years Raymond Jungles has generated design solutions that respond to surrounding natural systems while restoring nature's balance and harmony on a micro scale His completed gardens personify timelessness and beauty with verdant spaces that entice participation and soothe the psyche This monograph the fourth to focus on his work will present 21 completed projects along with a section of work in progress featuring sketches renderings and site plans of 12 current projects of varying typologies including an 18 acre Phipps Ocean Park in the Town of Palm Beach Florida Among the featured works are major landscapes surrounding luxury residential complexes as well as lush private gardens from the mountains in Mexico to volcanic craters in Panama Caribbean beachfronts the Florida Keys and densely populated cities like Manhattan and Miami Highlights include the restoration of the famed interior garden by the revered landscape architect Dan Kiley at the Ford Foundation Center for Social Justice in New York a landscape to evoke the work of legendary Brazilian designer Roberto Burle Marx at the New York Botanical Garden and two new gardens at the the Naples Botanical Garden Founded in 1985 by Raymond Jungles the firm's design priorities are generated by the scale and functionality of a space Simple clean and well detailed hardscape elements are the quintessential bones of a garden Planting volumes vary and bold colors and textures are used with intent The firm is guided by Raymond's personal and design principles integrity relevance and nature's honor Their informed designs tread lightly on the land provide habitat and incorporate elements of surprise The Garden Just Beyond Lindsey Leavitt, 2025-05-20 For fourteen year old Magnolia Gartner nothing is more important than tradition and the most important traditions in her eccentric family are the magical dinner parties they've been hosting for generations Anyone lucky enough to have dined at the Gartner's estate in Humble Hollow will claim the meal was life changing and that's true because the crops the family harvests and the dishes they prepare have the power to alter the emotions and fortunes of anyone who eats them It's not just the food either for as long as anybody can remember the whole Gartner family has been exceptional though Maggie often feels like the exception That's going to change when Maggie cooks her first dinner and proves she's just as special just as Gartner as everyone else But when a mysterious stranger moves to town and threatens the family's century old secrets the Gartner family and all of Humble Hollow are at risk of losing far more than a seat at the table With the help of new kid Graham as well as trusty townsfolk and family folklore Maggie must dig deep to see what others can't especially buried truths that feel just beyond her reach Devilishly absurd and heartachingly true The Garden Just Beyond untangles themes of heritage identity and legacy in a tale that twists and turns until the enchanted end Gardens and Academies in Early Modern Italy and Beyond Denis Ribouillault, 2024-10-21 This collection of essays explores the role of gardens in early modern academies and conversely the place of what might be called academic culture in early modern gardens While studies of botanical gardens have often focused on their association with a research institution the intention of this book is deliberately broader seeking to explore the interconnections between the built environment of the early modern garden and the more or less organised social and intellectual life it supported As such the book contributes to the intersection of several fields of research garden history literary history architectural history and socio political history and considers the garden as a site of performance that requires an intermedial approach

Agreement beyond the Verb Marina Chumakina, Oliver Bond, Steven Kaye, 2023-11-15 This book explores unusual patterns of agreement one of the most intriguing and theoretically challenging aspects of human language Agreement is typically thought to reflect a structural relationship between a verb and its arguments within the clause and all major theories of agreement have been developed with the centrality of this relationship in mind But beyond the verb items belonging to practically every other part of speech have been found to function as agreement targets including adpositions adverbs converbs nouns pronouns complementizers and other conjunctions Data on these targets provide rich insights into the structural domains in which agreement operates demonstrating that unusual targets can be associated with unexpected domains that are independent of the agreement domain of the verb Following an introduction to the typology of unusual targets and unexpected domains across the world s languages the chapters in this volume provide detailed treatments of a wide range of rare and complex agreement phenomena in seven languages belonging to five different language families of Eurasia and the Pacific The contributions are all based on novel data collected by the authors which detail the syntactic semantic and pragmatic properties of agreement on non verbal targets within the clause Small Spaces, Beautiful Gardens Keith Davitt,2001 Describes how to create a beautiful garden out of a small plot of land with tips on ways to visually enlarge a garden Aesthetics beyond the Arts Arnold Berleant,2016-03-23 Taking the view that aesthetics is a study grounded in perception the essays in this volume exhibit many sides of the perceptual complex that is the aesthetic field and develop them in different ways They reinvigorate our understanding of such arts as music and architecture they range across the natural landscape to the urban one they reassess the place of beauty in the modern environment and reassess the significance of the contributions to aesthetic theory of Kant and Dewey and they broach the kinds of meanings and larger understanding that aesthetic engagement with the human environment can offer Written over the past decade these original and innovative essays lead to a fresh encounter with the possibilities of aesthetic experience one which has constantly evolved moving in recent years in the direction of what Berleant terms social aesthetics which enhances human environmental integration and sociality Centenary record. Stonyhurst college, its life beyond the seas, 1592-1794, and on English soil, 1794-1894 John Gerard,1894 Garden and Metaphor Ana Kučan,Mateja Kurir,2023-10-24 Never before had the garden to fulfil so many demands as it does today It is a refuge from digitalised life and acts as a bridge to nature As a man made place where plants grow it is cultivated and untamable at the same time While for centuries the gardener s ambition was to control and subjugate nature today it serves more as a place for retreat a possible surrogate for wilderness a habitat for animals or it fulfils the dream of self sufficiency In this book landscape architects sociologists architects artists philosophers and historians illuminate different aspects of the garden in the Anthropocene in six chapters the garden as a place of community garden as art garden as a place of enchantment and rapture opening up questions of what garden as a model could stand for Our Community Garden ,2004-08 In this special garden each child plants an item that reflects their personality and or ethnic heritage Barbara Pollak s delightful illustrations show what the children do there from playing hide and seek around giant sunflowers and counting ladybugs to weeding digging and making compost mazes The garden provides a venue for all the children and their families to gather and celebrate with a potluck of dishes made from the garden s harvest Readers will enjoy following the progress of the garden and will be inspired to start one of their own Beyond Emasculation Adnan Hossain,2022-02-03 This book is based on long term ethnographic research with hijras the emblematic figure of South Asian sexual and gender difference in Dhaka Bangladesh It proposes the hijra as a counter cultural formation that embodies not only a direct contrast to hegemonic patterns of masculinity but also as an alternative subculture offering the possibility of varied forms of erotic pleasures and practices otherwise forbidden in mainstream society While most studies view hijras as an asexual emasculated third sex gender this book calls into question the phallogocentric logic that obscures alternative sites and sources of bodily power and pleasure emphasizing how hijras craft their own subject position Ethnographically rich and theoretically engaged this book will cause a new global re examination of both hijras in particular and the wider range of male femininities in general

DREAM BEYOND THE STARS A JOURNEY OF MEMORY, LIGHT, AND AWAKENING ARTIOM PODGURSCHI, Dream Beyond the Stars A Journey of Memory Light and Awakening is a poetic and philosophical exploration of consciousness the soul and the mysterious realm that lies beyond the visible world Through a fusion of memory dreamscapes and cosmic reflection this book invites readers to awaken the deeper layers of their being and reimagine their place in the universe Weaving together insights on light time and identity the narrative unfolds like a lucid dream each page a portal to inner truths and ancient knowledge long buried within us Whether you are a seeker of meaning a lover of metaphysics or someone navigating the quiet questions of existence this book will resonate with the yearning to connect with something greater Thought provoking lyrical and deeply human Dream Beyond the Stars is not just a book it s a mirror of your own awakening

Beyond the Easel Gloria Lynn Groom,Nicholas Watkins,Jennifer Paoletti,Thérèse Barruel,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2001-01-01 The Contributions of Artists Pierre Bonnard Edouard Vuillard Maurice Denis and Ker Xavier Roussel to the French avant garde of the 1890s as members of the Nabis are widely recognized What is less known about these artists careers is their extraordinary work in decorative painting work on a large or unusual scale for private interiors This illustrated book focuses on the many decorative works carried out by the four artists between 1890 and 1930 During these years they moved beyond the narrow parameters of easel painting and applied their wholly untraditional aesthetic of decoration to a wide range of works for domestic interiors from wall size ensembles to folding screens The cosmopolitan group of patrons who made this work possible ranged from the avant garde circle of La Revue Blanche to prominent members of the French establishment An examination of their role and tastes is another fascinating feature of this publication The book and accompanying exhibition reunite paintings that have long been dispersed introducing contemporary viewers to a group of bold and evocative works which had a wide ranging though little recognized influence on modern art As the book s authors argue the aesthetic embodied by these works indeed helped set the stage for the large non narrative paintings by artists as diverse as Rothko and Lichtenstein that came to dominate the avant garde after World War II
