

“Now, O LORD my God, You have made Your servant king instead of my father David, but I am a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in.

“And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You have chosen, a great people, too numerous to be numbered or counted.”

“Therefore give to Your servant an understanding heart to judge Your people, that I may discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this great people of Yours?”

“The speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing.” (1 Kings 3:7-10)

Good News Darrin W. Becoming the Good News Michael J. Sanem,2023-03-31 Perhaps you have seen the signs of the times Religious faith on the whole is declining and the number of those claiming no religious affiliation is rising In the face of this evangelization initiatives permeate the mission and vision statements of Catholic dioceses and parishes across the country but many of these initiatives are hampered by a strict sense of the tradition They tend to be an all or nothing approach to evangelization and include some questionable understandings of God the church and the world In Becoming the Good News Michael Sanem shares an authentically Catholic approach to parish evangelization grounded in the rich and diverse tradition to which we belong We the church as the people of God are all called in the common priesthood of all the baptized to consecrate this world to God in the way we encounter accompany and invite people into deeper relationship with Christ We are called not only to proclaim the good news but to become the good news in a world that desperately needs it

God's Generation of Hope Carl Barrett,2024-11-27 In a day and age where society and culture are veering further away from the teachings of God s word in homes globally it is becoming more and more evident that there is a breakdown within the walls of family homes across this great land Undoubtedly these times of confusion in the home schools and communities are escalating each passing day creating more division and disheartenment With all the spiritual threats robbing people s children of Hope something within the walls of the home must change for the well being of these young ones today more than ever If parents and family leaders don't engage with their children and rein in these apparent issues they will continue to see a generation of people spiraling out of control This book God's Generation of Hope is going to reveal some heart wrenching and eye opening facts about how external forces are creeping inside the lives of families and creating a distance between the household and Almighty God Someone must take ownership immediately for the children's state of spiritual survival Parents action is needed today to instill the Living Hope in the lives of the younger generation like never before Getting God

Wrong G. S. Kohler, 2023-10-06 Reading a tone of voice into printed words especially the personal experience of an email or text can disconnect two people even friends Having one friend reinterpret the way another heard the words with their own tone of voice may lead them into discovering how Jesus seems to hear God differently even though he read the same Bible In Getting God Wrong the reader is invited into a conversation on how they taught themselves to misunderstand the One who loves them best Instructions is the same word that gets translated commandments and guidance is the same word sometimes translated law This shift of translations can affect one's emotional engagement with the ideas People have told themselves for centuries that God marched the people of Israel out of four hundred years of slavery out into the desert to tell them Now you'll be my slaves and live under my commandments What if God used a different tone of voice and not the one people usually hear as they read Getting God Wrong suggests that God wants people to hear his heart as clearly as Jesus lived it out in front of them Jesus is God's tone of voice The Divine Nature Simon Kittle, Georg Gasser, 2021-12-30 This book is the first systematic treatment of the strengths and limitations of personal and a personal conceptions of the divine It features contributions from Jewish Islamic Chinese Indian and naturalistic backgrounds in addition to those working within a decidedly Christian framework This book discusses whether the concept of God in classical theism is coherent at all and whether the traditional understanding of some of the divine attributes need to be modified The contributors explore what the proposed spiritual and practical merits and demerits of personal and a personal conceptions of God might be Additionally their diverse perspectives reflect a broader trend within the analytic philosophy of religion to incorporate various non Western religious traditions Tackling these issues carefully is needed to do justice to the strengths and limitations of personal and a personal accounts to the divine The Divine Nature Personal and A Personal Perspectives will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in philosophy of religion and philosophical theology Justification Is for Preaching Virgil

Thompson, 2012-02-09 Although preachers often question their effectiveness no task of the church is more important than proclamation Only the gospel liberates sinners from guilt despair and death and grants them freedom hope and new life Few have grasped this truth better than Martin Luther This volume features contributions by contemporary theologians whose work is shaped by Luther's conviction that God's justification of the ungodly comes through preaching Gerhard Forde Oswald Bayer and their students and friends Taken from the pages of Lutheran Quarterly these essays in historical and theological perspective bring the doctrine of justification to bear on contemporary preaching For Luther the whole creation has its life out of God's pure fatherly divine goodness and mercy without any merit or worthiness of ours at all. Luther's insight to center creation around God's justifying work accents the cosmic scope of the doctrine. Justification is at the core of God's creative and saving activity with respect to all that has been, is, and will be. God's justification of the ungodly is the heart of all Christian theology and mission and inescapably shapes the character of both. Preaching Christ as the justifier of sinners in contrast to the accusing directives of the law does nothing other than establish God's deity over and for the world and brings an end to sinners' own self-deifying quests re-creating them as fully human, fully free. Theologians and preachers gain their compass, purpose, and courage from this truth.     Lent Through Eastertide David L. Bartlett, Barbara Brown

Taylor, 2010-10-01. Feasting on the Word offers pastors focused resources for sermon preparation written by companions on the way. With four different essays on each of the four biblical texts assigned by the Revised Common Lectionary, this series offers preachers sixteen different ways into the proclamation of God's Word on any given occasion. For each reading, preachers will find brief essays on the exegetical, theological, homiletical, and pastoral challenges of the text. The page layout is unusual. By setting the biblical passage at the top of the page and placing the essays beneath it, we mean to suggest the interdependence of these four approaches without granting priority to any one of them. Some readers may decide to focus on the Gospel passage for instance by reading all four essays provided for that text. Others may decide to look for connections between the Hebrew Bible, Psalm, Gospel, and Epistle texts by reading the theological essays on each one. Wherever they begin, preachers will find what they need in a single volume produced by writers from a wide variety of disciplines and religious traditions. These authors teach in colleges and seminaries. They lead congregations. They write scholarly books as well as columns for the local newspaper. They oversee denominations. In all these capacities and more, they serve God's Word, joining the preacher in the ongoing challenge of bringing that Word to life. We have been honored to work with a multitude of gifted thinkers, writers, and editors. We present these essays as their offering and ours to the blessed ministry of preaching. From the introduction by David L. Bartlett, Barbara Brown, Taylor.     Prayer, Middle Knowledge, and Divine-Human Interaction Kyle D.

DiRoberts, 2018-07-27. Christians generally believe that in prayer they are free in their act to petition God. Christians also believe that they pray to a God that is sovereign and omniscient. Kyle DiRoberts maintains that explanation as to how one affirms these two truths is dependent upon one's account of divine providence, which determines how motivated the person is to offer petitionary prayer in the divine-human relationship. The theories of providence and their understanding of petitionary prayer discussed in this book include compatibilism, hard determinism, open theism, and middle knowledge. Each of the theories of divine providence discussed in this book share a desire to construct a view concerning petitionary prayer that would propel the Christian toward God in relationship and then lead the body of Christ to pray without ceasing. DiRoberts argues that middle knowledge is the preferred theory of providence as it relates to petitionary prayer because for middle knowledge, God's sovereignty includes both his omniscience and libertarian human freedom.     The Complete Works of Sir

Matthews Grant,2019-05-16 The traditional doctrine of God s universal causality holds that God directly causes all entities distinct from himself including all creaturely actions But can our actions be free in the strong libertarian sense if they are directly caused by God W Matthews Grant argues that free creaturely acts have dual sources God and the free creaturely agent and are ultimately up to both in a way that leaves all the standard conditions for libertarian freedom satisfied Offering a comprehensive alternative to existing approaches for combining theism and libertarian freedom he proposes new solutions for reconciling libertarian freedom with robust accounts of God s providence grace and predestination He also addresses the problem of moral evil without the commonly employed Free Will Defense Written for analytic philosophers and theologians Grant s approach can be characterized as neo scholastic as well as analytic since many of the positions defended are inspired by consonant with and develop resources drawn from the scholastic tradition especially Aquinas Serving Jesus without Burning Out D.
