    CRDA News, 2002     Global Power Europe - Vol. 2 Astrid Boening, Jan-Frederik Kremer, Aukje van Loon, 2013-03-27 This two volume project provides a multi sectoral perspective over the EU s external projections from traditional as well as critical theoretical and institutional perspectives and is supported by numerous case studies covering the whole extent of the EU s external relations The aim is to strive to present new approaches as well as detailed background studies in analyzing the EU as a global actor Volume 1 The first volume Theoretical and Institutional Approaches to the EU s External Relations addresses the EU s overall external post Lisbon Treaty presence both globally and regionally e g in its neighborhood with a special emphasis on the EU s institutional framework It also offers fresh and innovative theoretical approaches to understanding the EU s international position With a preface by Alvaro de Vasoncelos former Director European Union Institute for Security Studies Volume 2 The second volume Policies Actions and Influence of the EU s External Relations examines in both quantitative and qualitative contributions the EU s international efficacy from a political economic and social perspective based on a plethora of its engagements     Gender and ICTs for Development, 2005 Around the world information and communication technologies ICTs have changed the lives of individuals organizations and indeed entire nations ICTs can have profound implications for women and men in terms of employment education health environmental sustainability and community development Because of systemic gender biases in ICTs and their applications women are far more likely than men to experience discrimination in the new information society In spite of this resource poor and non literate women and their organizations are aware of the power of information technologies and communication processes and are using them to advance their basic needs and strategic interests improve their livelihoods and help them achieve their human rights Gender and ICTs for Development brings together case studies about women and their communities in developing countries and how they have been influenced by and have used ICTs in development An introduction by Helen Hambly Odame now at the University of Guelph in Canada formerly with the International Service for National Agricultural Research provides a global overview of the issues and a framework for responding to the case studies This book the seventh of these Global Sourcebooks features five major case studies which examine the diverse ways in which women have been able to make the most of digital opportunities e commerce in Bhutan entrepreneurship by women workers in China post conflict communication using radio and ICTs in Sierra Leone sustainable fisheries production in Ghana and information exchange related to HIV AIDS in the Caribbean The extensive and up to date critical bibliography of print and online resources makes this a truly global sourcebook on the topic Published in association with KIT Publishers Gender Equality Norms in Regional Governance Anna van der Vleuten, Anouka van Eerdewijk, C. Roggeband, 2014-06-04 This book analyses the diffusion of norms concerning gender based violence and gender mainstreaming of aid and trade between the EU South America and Southern Africa Norm diffusion is conceptualized as a truly multidirectional and polycentric process shaped by regional governance and resulting in new geometries of transnational activism Designing REDD+ benefit-sharing mechanisms: From policy to practice Wong, G., Pham, T.T., Valencia, I., Luttrell, C., Larson, A.M., Yang, A., Hasan, A., Kovacevic, M., Moeliono, M., Dwisatrio, B., Sarmiento Barletti, J.P., 2022-08-10 Institutionalizing Gender Equality, 2000 This title reflects increasing interest in the experiences of organizations that have begun to incorporate women and gender considerations into their policies not only for projects and programs but also within their own organizations Contributions from an agricultural research organization a cotton development board and a rural development organization in Mali Kenya and Nepal illustrate approaches and strategies being used to integrate women and gender issues into activities and organizational culture A final chapter provides an international perspective on the lessons learned and challenges to be met Material from across the developing world is included in the annotated bibliography and the resources section Published in association with KIT Publishers Handbook of Africa's International Relations Tim Murithi, 2013-09-05 Africa's international relations have often been defined and oriented by the dominant international and geopolitical agendas of the day In the aftermath of colonialism the Cold War became a dominant paradigm that defined the nature of the continent's relationship with the rest of the world The contemporary forces of globalization are now exerting an undue influence and impact upon Africa s international relations Increasingly the African continent is emerging as a vocal and in some respects an influential actor in international relations There is a paucity of analysis and research on this emerging trend This timely book proposes to fill this analytical gap by engaging with a wide range of issues with chapters written by experts on a variety of themes The emerging political prominence of the African continent on the world stage is predicated on an evolving internal process of continental integration In particular there are normative and policy efforts to revive the spirit of Pan Africanism the 21st century is witnessing the evolution of Pan Africanism notably through the constitution and establishment of the African Union AU Given the fact that there is a dearth of analysis on this phenomenon this volume will also interrogate the notion of Pan Africanism through various lenses notably peace and security development the environment and trade The volume will also engage with the emerging role of the AU as an international actor e g with regard to its role in the reform of the United Nations Security Council climate change the International Criminal Court ICC the treaty establishing Africa as a nuclear free zone Internally Displaced Persons the Millennium Development Goals MDGs international trade the environment public health issues security and development issues This book will assess how the AU s role as an international actor is complicated by the difficulty of promoting consensus among African states and then maintaining that consensus in the face of often divergent national interests This book will in part assess the role of the AU in articulating collective and joint policies and in making interventions in international decision and policy making circles The Handbook will also assess the role of African social movements and their relationship with global actors The role of African citizens in ameliorating their own conditions is often underplayed in the international relations discourse and this volume will seek to redress this oversight Throughout the book the various chapters will also assess the role that these citizen linkages have contributed towards continental integration and in confronting the challenges of globalization

Proceedings of The 7th International Conference on Gender Research Ana Isabel Azevedo, The International Conference on Gender Research ICGR is a well established academic conference that has been held annually for seven years bringing together scholars practitioners and researchers from around the world to explore diverse issues related to gender This conference provides a multidisciplinary platform where participants are encouraged to engage in discussions and present research findings on various aspects of gender studies The diversity of the research discussed and the participants involved in the event is an important reflection on how Gender Studies impact all corners of life The International Conference on Gender Research has developed into a comprehensive forum that addresses a wide range of topics related to gender making it a key event for those engaged in gender studies and related fields The published conference proceedings from these events serve as a valuable resource for ongoing research and scholarship in the area of gender research The Proceedings of the 8th International Conference on Gender Research 2025 includes Academic research papers PhD research papers Masters and work in progress papers which have been presented and discussed at the ICGR conference The proceedings are of an academic level appropriate to a professional research audience including graduates postgraduates doctoral and post doctoral researchers All papers have been double blind peer reviewed by members of the Review Committee      Gender Perspectives on Property and Inheritance Sarah Cummings,2001 This title features contributions from the South addressing gender equality and inheritance rights at the household level Disparities between customary law family law and the official legal system are discussed with regard to property rights marriage land rights and inheritance Each article covers the current situation and experiences of violation of women s personal rights and provides policy tools to bring about improvement Material from across the developing world is included in the annotated bibliography and the resources section Published in association with KIT Publishers      The SAGE Handbook of European Foreign Policy Knud Erik Jorgensen,Aasne Kalland Aarstad,Edith Drieskens,Katie Laatikainen,Ben Tonra,2015-04-30 During the last two decades the study of European foreign policy has experienced remarkable growth presumably reflecting a more significant international role of the European Union The Union has significantly expanded its policy portfolio and though empty symbolic politics still exists the Union s international relations have become more substantial and its foreign policy more focused European foreign policy has become a dynamic policy area being adapted to changing challenges and environments such as the Arab Spring new emerging economies powers the crisis of multilateralism and much more The SAGE Handbook of European Foreign Policy Two Volume set is a major reference work for Foreign Policy Programmes around the world The Handbook is designed to be accessible to graduate and postgraduate students in a wide variety of disciplines across the humanities and social sciences Both volumes are structured to address areas of critical concern to scholars at the cutting edge of all major dimensions of foreign policy The volumes are composed of original chapters written specifically to the following themes Research traditions and historical experience Theoretical perspectives EU actors State actors Societal actors The politics of European foreign policy Bilateral relations Relations with multilateral institutions Individual policies Transnational challenges The Handbook will be an essential reference for both advanced students and scholars      Green Empowerment and High Quality Development China Council for International Cooperation on Environment and Development (CCICED) Secretariat,      Agricultural Commercialization, Gender Equality and the Right to Food Joanna Bourke Martignoni,Christophe Gironde,Christophe Golay,Elisabeth Prügl,Dzodzi Tsikata,2022-09-22 This volume explores agricultural commercialization from a gender equality and right to food perspective Agricultural commercialization involving not only the shift to selling crops and buying inputs but also the commodification of land and labour has always been controversial Strategies for commercialization have often reinforced and exacerbated inequalities been blind to gender differences and given rise to violations of the human rights to food land work and social security While there is a body of evidence to trace these developments globally impacts vary considerably in local contexts This book systematically considers these dynamics in two countries Cambodia and Ghana Profoundly different in terms of their history and location they provide the basis for fruitful comparisons because they both transitioned to democracy in the early 1990s made agricultural development a priority and adopted orthodox policies of commercialization to develop the sector Chapters illustrate how commercialization processes are gendered highlighting distinctive gender ethnic and class dynamics in rural Ghana and Cambodia and the different outcomes these generate They also show the ways in which food cultures are changing and the often problematic impact of these changes on the safety and quality of food Specific policies and legal norms are examined with chapters addressing the development and implementation of frameworks on the right to food and land administration Overall the volume brings into relief multiple dimensions shaping the outcomes of processes of commercialization including gender orders food cultures policy translation national and sub national policies corporate investments and programmes and formal and informal legal norms In doing so it offers insight not only on our case countries but also provides proposals to advance rights based research on food security This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of food security agricultural development and economics gender human rights and sustainable development

Institutionalizing Intersectionality A. Krizsan,H. Skjeie,J. Squires,2012-07-31 An exploration of the ways that multiple inequalities are being addressed in Europe Using country based and region specific case studies it provides an innovative comparative analysis of the multidimensional equality regimes that are emerging in Europe and reveals the potential that these have for institutionalizing intersectionality African Studies Abstracts ,2002 Gender, Water and Development
Anne Coles,Tina Wallace,2020-05-12 There is a renewed global commitment to water for all Yet even though women are usually responsible for domestic water provision their needs and voices continue to be marginalized in the development process A close analysis of current policy and practice shows that organizations providing improved water supplies to poor communities typically neglect the gendered nature of access to and control over water resources The resulting gender bias causes inefficiencies and injustices in water provision and reduces the effectiveness of well meant efforts This book shows how in different environmental historical and cultural contexts gender has been an important element in water provision It draws on a wide range of first hand material analyzed from different disciplinary perspectives Case studies include analysis of the role of water in inhibiting the fight against HIV AIDS in southern Africa and the challenges of taking gender into account in large water projects in India and Nepal
