Policy Research Janelle Scott, 2025-07-17 The second edition of the Handbook of Education Policy Research the largest volume published in AERA's history addresses a variety of policy and contextual issues in early childhood K 12 and postsecondary education that have received extensive empirical attention during the past 15 years With the pandemic and social turmoil as a backdrop the editors build on the breadth and depth of the first edition while expanding the scope of the project to include subjects methods theories and analyses that have contributed powerfully to the study of education policy and politics in the 2010s and 2020s The field has become more comprehensive and inclusive and the authors represent a diversity of racial ethnic and gender identities and intellectual and disciplinary orientations Most chapters come from multiple authors reflecting the multi sourced development of research in education policy since the first volume was published This compilation consists of 70 chapters and nine commentaries that map past present and future directions of the field and richly attend to critical issues of interest to students researchers policy makers and practitioners Does

Education Have a Future? Jarl Bengtsson, Albert van den Berg, Alain Gras, B.J. Hake, Ian Lister, Jürgen Zimmer, 2012-12-06 This volume has been prepared in the framework of Project 1 Educating Man for the 21st Century of Plan Europe 2000 sponsored by the European Cultural Foundation While most of the studies launched under this Project deal with specific aspects or levels of education the present volume attempts to provide a more global view of educational futures and their relationships to alternative futures of the overall socio economic system It should not be considered as a general integration or synthesis of the different studies of the Education Project of the European Cultural Foundation although it draws on them as well as other recently published documents Rather it should be regarded as one of several possible approaches analytical tools and incentives to the study and open discussion of educational problems seen in a long term perspective The volume is the result of a collective effort of a multinational team of researchers A colloquium of some sixty participants meeting at the University of York in October 1972 provided critiques and comments to the first version of the report But only the authors themselves claim responsibility for the methodology of the study and the opinions and conclusions expressed therein These do not necessarily reflect those of the sponsors of the volume the European Cultural Foundation and the Scientific Committee of its Education Project Such a synthesis will appear as the concluding report of the Project Navigating Leadership and
