Father, Who Are You? Barbara Taylor, 2010-01-29 Barbara Taylor is a different breed. In Father Who Are You Taylor shares with a transparent and humble heart many stirring reflections on being a struggling wife devoted mother and a fearless missionary in India. In this devotional Taylor uses scriptures as a diving board splashing into the memories of her life of growing up in Alaska and later ministering in the villages of India. As she reveals to us how to live a life of faith and how to experience the pure joy peace and freedom there is a deep refreshing. At first glance this book appeals more to Christian women yet Taylor's insight into the problems that ended her marriage and her accounts of the cultural differences and extreme challenges she faced as a missionary in India make it an invaluable read for a larger audience. Creationism and the Book of Revelation Douglas K. Johanson, 2018-06-08 This book Creationism and the Book of Revelation An Outline of the Last Days by Douglas Johanson deserves serious consideration from anyone who is a seeker of truth both scientific and religious. He has created a book that will challenge and provoke serious thinking about the doctrines of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the expanding knowledge from the scientific community. In this fascinating text those two sources are successfully brought together and the result is a faith inspiring exploration of the magnificent power of our Eternal Father. This book is a pleasure to read and it is my privilege to recommend it highly. Daniel W McAllister PhD Associate Professor Lee Business School University of Nevada at Las Vegas. In Creationism and the Book of Revelation An Outline of the Last Days Douglas K Johanson skillfully uses his background in science and his intense study of the scriptures to show how truths about the physical universe and latter day revelation and other scriptures help one see truths in The Revelation of St John the Divine. In significant and expansive detail Johanson provides many answers to important questions about the great plan of God. Richard Dilworth Rust Professor Emeritus of English The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill contains a detailed chronological outline of the last days helps science and religion come together. The scriptures would be fulfilled exactly as given. God loves each and every one of His children.

Justin Grant a professor at a Christian based college in the Midwest is struggling to come to terms with the death of his wife and child During a leave of absence he is hiking through the mountains near a friend's cabin in Kentucky He looks up and watches as a man slowly floats towards the ground He blinks then thinks Where is the parachute Is that a halo Thoughts vanish as the man plummets the last hundred feet to the ground Justin runs to where the broken man lies carries him to the cabin and soon finds out that the man recuperating on his sofa is not of this world As the stranger's wounds heal Justin and the man he now knows as Sandel talk of many things and Justin finds that he likes this mysterious man As Justin listens the story his new friend tells threatens to shatter everything Justin has ever known and in the process uncovers the greatest hoax ever perpetrated against mankind Ernest Gibson lives in the Midwest far enough away from a major city to enjoy small town living Ernest is a graduate of Purdue University He is a retired designer in the auto industry he works part time in an electronics store only because his father he spent a year and a half at home told him to get his ass out of the house and do something He is a lifelong seeker of knowledge and truth and strives to help others do the same The one thing that he finds most abhorrent is a closed mind He has never grown out of the enjoyment of the playing the game of What If After reading this book you will see that the What Ifs went crazy It is after all what brought this book to life Wounded Masculinity and the Search for (Father) Self in American Film Susan Mackey-Kallis, Brian Johnston, 2023-12-12

Drawing on texts and theorists of Greek myth psychoanalysis and masculinities Susan Mackey Kallis and Brian Johnston develop and offer a model of rhetorical and mythic criticism to analyze popular American film In this book Mackey Kallis and Johnston focus their analysis on films that point to the need for father atonement ego decentering and the resurrection of the lost feminine to heal our collective gendered cultural wounds Many of these mystic films they contend affirm the role of meaningful suffering compassion integration of the feminine self sacrifice and transcendence as antidotes to the inevitable woundedness of the human condition Ultimately the authors argue for the importance of digging into the substance of cultural wounds rather than superficially suturing them over to change the conversation about woundedness and provide a roadmap for healing gendered relations in contemporary American culture The book concludes with a discussion of Joseph Campbell's interpretation of the metaphorical power of myth and its transcendent function to argue for a theory of us rather than a theory of us versus them Scholars of film gender studies American studies cultural studies gender studies and psychology will find this book of particular interest Anthology of Russian Literature from the Earliest Period to the Present Time: The nineteenth century Leo Wiener,1903 Father John's Gift R.
