The hm Learning and Study Skills Program Judy Tilton Brunner, Matthew S. Hudson, 2014-08-05 The hm Learning and Study Skills Program Level I was designed to provide learning and study skills strategies for students in grades 5-7 through a series of activity oriented units. It is structured on the assumption that an activity oriented lesson is the most effective instructional strategy for the teaching of study skills. Or more succinctly that learning by doing is the best way to study smart. The Level I Teacher's Guide includes a pre and post test, a wide variety of teaching suggestions, unit summaries, activities for retrieval and closure as well as teaching adaptations through the use of technology. It was published to help teachers assist students in the development of essential study skills and to reinforce their existing strategies that work. The program supports academic independence for students that have a wide range of ability with college and career readiness as a tangible and realistic goal.

Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts, Volume II James Flood, Shirley Brice Heath, Diane Lapp, 2015-04-22 The Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts Volume II brings together state of the art research and practice on the evolving view of literacy as encompassing not only reading, writing, speaking and listening but also the multiple ways through which learners gain access to knowledge and skills. It forefronts as central to literacy education the visual, communicative and performative arts and the extent to which all of the technologies that have vastly expanded the meanings and uses of literacy originate and evolve through the skills and interests of the young.
