Inside Venice:

Humans vs Monsters David A. King Jr,2019-01-31 The year is 1912 The world is reeling from the worldwide Great Depression which has left every nation on earth reeling financially During this time two camps of nations have risen to prominence The nations of America France England and Russia despite the economic collapses have managed to start to pull themselves out of the Great Depression On the other side is the UMN the United Monster Nations comprised of Transylvania home of the vampires Luciansburg home of the werewolves or Lycans Covenia home of the Witches or Wiccans and Decemus home of the zombies or the walking dead Both groups of nations are weary of one another The UMN is ruled over with an iron hand by Grand Chancellor Alucard who has brought to an end the centuries long war between the monster races and has had the monster clans united in their hatred of mankind At the outset of our story the UMN has been on a military buildup for more than ten years now and is planning a massed military assault against the human nations listed above for control of the Earth Though they preach for peace with America this is just a clever ruse by Lord Alucard to buy his nations more time to prepare for war One can only imagine the horrors of a conventional war Gone are the days of lining up soldiers and having them simply walk into oncoming fire This is a new century with new ways of warfare A conventional war could mean the deaths of countless millions of lives both monster and human

Venice's Secret Service Ioanna Iordanou,2019 Ioanna Iordanou traces the remarkable development of Venetian intelligence in the city state system of Northern Italy contesting that early modern Venice was home of the world s first centrally organized state intelligence service setting a framework that has been instrumental in the creation of modern intelligence

Venice's Hidden Enemies John Martin,2023-09-01 How could early modern Venice a city renowned for its political freedom and social harmony also have become a center of religious dissent and inquisitorial repression To answer this question John Martin develops an innovative approach that deftly connects social and cultural history The result is a profoundly important contribution to Renaissance and Reformation studies Martin offers a vivid re creation of the social and cultural worlds of the Venetian heretics those men and women who articulated their hopes for religious and political reform and whose ideologies ranged from evangelical to anabaptist and even millenarian positions In exploring the connections between religious beliefs and social experience he weaves a rich tapestry of Renaissance urban life that is sure to intrigue all those involved in anthropological religious and historical studies students and scholars alike How could early modern Venice a city renowned for its political freedom and social harmony also have become a center of religious dissent and inquisitorial repression To answer this question John Martin develops an innovative approach that deftly connects Brodsky Abroad Sanna Turoma, 2010-05-26 Expelled from the Soviet Union in 1972 and honored with the Nobel Prize fifteen years later poet Joseph Brodsky in many ways fits the grand tradition of exiled writer But Brodsky's years of exile did not render him immobile though he never returned to his beloved Leningrad he was free to travel the world and write about it In Brodsky Abroad Sanna Turoma discusses Brodsky's poems and essays about Mexico Brazil Turkey and Venice Challenging traditional conceptions behind Brodsky's status as a leading migrant poet and major descendant of Russian and Euro American modernism she relocates the analysis of his travel texts in the diverse context of contemporary travel and its critique Turoma views Brodsky's travel writing as a response not only to his exile but also to the postmodern and postcolonial landscape that initially shaped the writing of these texts In his Latin American encounters Brodsky exhibits disdain for third world politics and invokes the elegiac genre to reject Mexico's postcolonial reality and to ironically embrace the romanticism of an earlier Russian and European imperial age In an essay on Istanbul he assumes Russia's ambiguous position between East and West as his own to negotiate a distinct and controversial interpretation of Orientalism And Venice the emblematic tourist city becomes the site for a reinvention of his lyric self as more fluid hybrid and cosmopolitan Brodsky Abroad reveals the poet's previously uncharted trajectory from alienated dissident to celebrated man of letters and offers new perspectives on the geopolitical philosophical and linguistic premises of his poetic imagination Sable Cove Volume One R. E.

Legislative Networks and Reforms in Post-Soviet States Marta Matrakova, 2025-01-17 This book presents the legislative networks in charge of drafting democratic reforms as gatekeepers to the actual adoption implementation and internalisation of democratic norms in selected post Soviet countries It demonstrates that the composition of legislative networks which draft the legal reforms in Armenia Georgia and Moldova is controlled by powerful political actors who seek to have their preferences reflected in the reform outcomes Furthermore the book shows that there are limited modifications after the adoption of the first draft by these legislative networks despite the later reform stages being the focus of the existing literature The book s analysis of political reforms in the Rule of Law inter institutional and electoral accountability in these three countries identifies the control strategies used by domestic political elite to restrain the space for democratisation while instrumentalising the institutional framework to increase its power This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of democratisation post Soviet studies East European politics EU politics and policy comparative politics and international relations

Angel in the Sun Gerald Finley, 1999-03-10 Turner was deeply affected by the world in which he lived the sciences that explained it and the conflicts and accomplishments of his society He wove these strands into the dense fabric of the historical pictures he created pictures that were extremely varied complex original and controversial In Angel in the Sun Gerald Finley untangles the various thematic strands running through Turner s art including the intersection of private and public histories classical and biblical history and contemporary events and science and religion and shows how Turner s use of light and colour played an important role in conveying these ideas Angel in the Sun includes over 130 illustrations in colour and black and white that reveal Turner s remarkable achievement as a painter of historical subjects Because of its interdisciplinary nature the book will appeal not only to art historians and landscape theorists but also to historians of science and literature

Colonial Justice and the Jews of Venetian Crete Rena N. Lauer, 2019-03-07 When Venice conquered Crete in the early thirteenth century a significant population of Jews lived in the capital and main port city of Candia This community grew diversified and flourished both culturally and economically throughout the period of Venetian rule and although it adhered to traditional Jewish ways of life the community also readily engaged with the broader population and the island s Venetian colonial government In Colonial Justice and the Jews of Venetian Crete Rena N Lauer tells the story of this unusual and little known community through the lens of its flexible use of the legal systems at its disposal Grounding the book in richly detailed studies of individuals and judicial cases concerning matters as prosaic as taxation and as dramatic as bigamy and murder Lauer brings the Jews of Candia vibrantly to life Despite general rabbinic disapproval of such behavior elsewhere in medieval Europe Crete s Jews regularly turned not only to their own religious courts but also to the secular Venetian judicial system There they aired disputes between family members business partners spouses and even the leaders of their community And with their use of secular justice as both symptom and cause Lauer contends Crete s Jews grew more open and flexible confident in their identity and experiencing little of the anti Judaism increasingly suffered by their coreligionists in Western Europe

When Ethnicity Did Not Matter in the Balkans John V. A. Fine, 2010-02-05 This is history as it should be written In When Ethnicity Did Not Matter in the Balkans a logical advancement on his earlier studies Fine has successfully tackled a fascinating historical question one having broad political implications for our own times Fine s approach is to demonstrate how ideas of identity and self identity were invented and evolved in medieval and early modern times At the same time this book can be read as a critique of twentieth century historiography and this makes Fine s contribution even more valuable This book is an original much needed contribution to the field of Balkan studies Steve Rapp Associate Professor of Caucasian Byzantine and Eurasian History and Director Program in World History and Cultures Department of History Georgia State University Atlanta When Ethnicity Did Not Matter in the Balkans is a study of the people who lived in what is now Croatia during the Middle Ages roughly 600 1500 and the early modern period 1500 1800 and how they identified themselves and were identified by others John V A Fine Jr advances the discussion of identity by asking such questions as Did most some or any of the population of that territory see itself as Croatian If some did not to what other communities did they consider themselves to belong Were the labels attached to a given person or population fixed or could they change And were some people members of several different communities at a given moment And if there were competing identities which identities held sway in which particular regions In When Ethnicity Did Not Matter in the Balkans Fine investigates the identity labels and their meaning employed by and about the medieval and early modern population of the lands that make up present day Croatia Religion local residence and narrow family or broader clan all played important parts in past and present identities Fine however concentrates chiefly on broader secular names that reflect attachment to a city region tribe or clan a labeled people or state The result is a magisterial analysis showing us the complexity of pre national identity in Croatia Dalmatia and Slavonia There can be no question that the medieval and early modern periods were pre national times but Fine has taken a further step by demonstrating that the medieval and early modern eras in this region were also pre ethnic so far as local identities are concerned The back projection of twentieth century forms of identity into the pre modern past by patriotic and nationalist historians has been brought to light Though this back projection is not always misleading it can be Fine is fully cognizant of the danger and has risen to the occasion to combat it while frequently remarking in the text that his findings for the Balkans have parallels elsewhere John V A Fine Jr is Professor of History at the University of Michigan Perspecta 56 Guillermo Acosta Navarrete, Gabriel Gutierrez Huerta, 2024-07-23 Exploring architecture as a form of concealment and obfuscation in engendering new ways of understanding conceptualizing and reshaping the world Architecture is the perfect form of camouflage As buildings recede into the background of everyday life the myriad forces that shape our natural social and political landscapes hide in plain sight Embedded within the spatial and material organizations of the built environment are ideas of value hierarchy and control that tilt the ground and influence perception in the name of endless competing interests Operating across multiple scales and mediums architectural camouflage gives familiar form to obscure objectives Design transforms and encodes our shared environments from domestic domains to digital territories through its material practices aesthetics and discourses Immanent in the periphery architecture s images are internalized as forms for understanding and reshaping the world Camouflage in turn dwells in the architecture of our collective subconscious Latent within architecture s deceptions is a profound capacity to reflect the elusive intentions and surreal ambiguities of our ecological entanglements In masking hierarchies and shifting sensitivities to what escapes perception architecture can engender vital questions around the agency and significance of its world making practices Mediating with and within the background architecture can awaken new modes of attention to material and social layers previously unimagined or hidden and engage directly with the mirrored frameworks that define reality This issue of Perspecta considers the complexities and potentialities of architectural concealment obfuscation and mimicry of the power inherent in architecture s expanding capacity as media In the veiled extents of our physical and digital worlds what is still not found Contributors APRDELESP and Xavier Nueno Guitart Ashley Bigham and Erik Herrmann Esther M Choi feminist architecture collaborative Marianela D Aprile and Douglas Spencer Theo Deutinger and Christopher Clarkson DESIGN EARTH David Freeland and Brennan Buck Linda Gordon Noah Kalina Dana Karwas Andrew Economos Miller M C Overholt and Alex Whee Kim Trevor Paglen Lukas Pauer Nina Rappaport David Sadighian Matthew Soules Jerome Tryon Michael Young Harper's New Monthly Magazine Henry Mills Alden, 1896 Harper s informs a diverse body of readers of cultural business political literary and scientific affairs A Dictionary of British and Irish Travellers in Italy, 1701-1800 John Ingamells, 1997-01-01 This dictionary identifies over 6000 British and Irish travellers who toured in Italy in the 18th century Compiled from the archive accumulated by Sir Brinsley Ford it provides brief formal biographies of these travellers their Italian itineraries and selective accounts of their experiences A History of

Venetians in Constantinople Eric Dursteler, 2006-05 Historian Eric R Dursteler reconsiders identity in the early modern world to illuminate Veneto Ottoman cultural interaction and coexistence challenging the model of hostile relations and suggesting instead a more complex understanding of the intersection of cultures Although dissonance and strife were certainly part of this relationship he argues coexistence and cooperation were more common Moving beyond the clash of civilizations model that surveys the relationship between Islam and Christianity from a geopolitical perch Dursteler analyzes the lived reality by focusing on a localized microcosm the Venetian merchant and diplomatic community in Muslim Constantinople While factors such as religion culture and political status could be integral elements in constructions of self and community Dursteler finds early modern identity to be more than the sum total of its constituent parts and reveals how the fluidity and malleability of identity in this time and place made coexistence among disparate cultures possible
