The Cambridge Companion to the African Novel F. Abiola Irele, 2009-07-23 Africa's strong tradition of storytelling has long been an expression of an oral narrative culture African writers such as Amos Tutuola Naguib Mahfouz Wole Soyinka and J M Coetzee have adapted these older forms to develop and enhance the genre of the novel in a shift from the oral mode to print Comprehensive in scope these new essays cover the fiction in the European languages from North Africa and Africa south of the Sahara as well as in Arabic They highlight the themes and styles of the African novel through an examination of the works that have either attained canonical status an entire chapter is devoted to the work of Chinua Achebe or can be expected to do so Including a guide to further reading and a chronology this is the ideal starting point for students of African and world literatures      The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S. Hassan, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arab country as well as Arab immigrant writing in many languages around the world      The Story of Hassan (Hassan Ali Shah) John Anthony, 1928      African Novels in the Classroom Margaret Jean Hay, 2000 Many teachers of African studies have found novels to be effective assignments in courses In this guide teachers describe their favourite African novels drawn from all over the continent and share their experiences of using them in the classroom      The Simple Past Driss Chraïbi, 2020-01-07 The Simple Past came out in 1954 and both in France and its author's native Morocco the book caused an explosion of fury The protagonist who shares the author's name Driss comes from a Moroccan family of means his father a self made tea merchant the most devout of Muslims quick to be provoked and ready to lash out verbally or physically continually bent on subduing his timid wife and many children to his iron and ever righteous will He is known simply as the Lord and Driss who is in high school is in full revolt against both him and the French colonial authorities for whom as much as for his father he is no one Driss Chraïbi's classic coming of age story is about colonialism Islam the subjection of women and finding as his novel does a voice that is as cutting and coruscating as it is original and free      The Swahili Novel Xavier Garnier, 2013 For more than fifty years a dynamic modern literature has been developing in the Kiswahili language The political weight that Kiswahili carries as the emerging national and pan national language of many East African countries places this literature much of it in the form of novels at the centre of heated literary debates on the social function of literature in the context of rapid global social change Garnier provides new insights into the Swahili novel form with all its vibrancy and capacity for experimentation Its obsession with social issues relates to larger all pervasive political debates running through East Africa in its press its streets its public and private places The novels both record and provoke these debates Based on the study of more than 175 Swahili novels by almost 100 authors Garnier brings to light a body of work much neglected by African literary critics but which looks outwards to the wider world Xavier Garnier teaches African Literature at the Universit Paris 3 Sorbonne Nouvelle and is former director of the Centre d Etudes des Nouveaux Espaces Litt raires Universit Paris 13      The Marseilles Trilogy Reader Europa Editions, 2016-08-16 A fantastic addition for fans of Jean Claude Izzo and his famed Marseilles Trilogy this reader provides a greater understanding of Izzo his city of Marseilles and the genre that his works helped establish Mediterranean Noir The Marseilles Trilogy Reader includes a history of the Mediterranean Noir genre by Sandro Ferri a eulogy for Izzo by friend and Italian crime writer Massimo Carlotto an article by Chares Taylor titled Dark Paradise originally published by The Nation that analyzes the multicultural and social aspects of the trilogy words of praise from adored crime novelist and author of The Revolution of the Moon Andrea Camilleri and finally a reading group guide for the first book Total Chaos Altogether these pieces are a wonderful supplement to round out a reading of the Marseilles Trilogy They warmly bring more of the late Jean Claude Izzo into his masterpieces Total Chaos Chourmo and Solea Ways of Seeking Emily Drumsta, 2024-02-20 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In Ways of Seeking Emily Drumsta traces the influence of detective fiction on the twentieth century Arabic novel Theorizing a poetics of investigation she shows how these novels far from staging awe inspiring feats of logical deduction mock the truth seeking practices on which modern exercises of colonial and national power are often premised Their narratives return to the archives of Arabic folklore Islamic piety and mysticism to explore less coercive ways of knowing seeing and seeking Drumsta argues that scholars of the Middle East neglect the literary at their peril overlooking key critiques of colonialism from the intellectuals who shaped and responded through fiction to the transformations of modernity This book ultimately tells a different story about the novel's place in the constellation of Arab modernism modeling an innovative method of open ended inquiry based on the literary texts themselves

French Civilization and Its Discontents Tyler Stovall, Georges Van Den Abbeele, 2003-10-22 What happens when the study of French is no longer coterminous with the study of France French Civilization and Its Discontents explores the ways in which considerations of difference especially colonialism postcolonialism and race have shaped French culture and French studies in the modern era Rejecting traditional assimilationist notions of French national identity contributors to this groundbreaking volume demonstrate how literature history and other aspects of what is considered French civilization have been shaped by global processes of creolization and differentiation This book ably demonstrates the necessity of studying France and the Francophone world together and of recognizing not only the presence of France in the Francophone world but also the central place occupied by the Francophone world in world literature and history Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490-1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243-183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909-1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918-1984 Islam in Contemporary Literature John C. Hawley, 2021-04-06 Suitable for the classroom but completely accessible to the general reader this volume presents many of the most interesting authors writing today from an Islamic background Kamel Daoud Yasmine el Rashidi Hisham Matar Tahar Djaout Mohsin Hamid Hanif Kureishi Edward Said Driss Chaibi Kamila Shamsie Tahar ben Jelloun Leila Aboulela Abdellah Ta'a Ayaan Hirsi Ali Hisham Matar Eboo Patel Reza Aslan and Tamim Ansary among others who embody the various strains of Islamic interpretation and conflict This study discusses an ongoing Reformation in Islam focusing on the Arab Spring the role of women and sexuality the clash of civilizations assimilation and cosmopolitanism jihad pluralism across cultures free speech and apostasy In an atmosphere of political and religious awakening these authors search for a voice for individual rights while nations seek to restore a disrupted destiny Questions of de Arabization of the religion ecumenicism comparative modernities and the role of literature thread themselves throughout the chapters of the book

The Hotel Book Shelley-Maree Cassidy,2003 Who minds sleeping under a mosquito net when it s royally draped over the bed in a lush Kenyan open walled hut fashioned from tree trunks and shielded from the sun by a sumptuous thatched roof This selection of the most splendid getaway havens nestled throughout the African continent is sure to please even the most finicky would be voyagers Photos

Distant Train Ibrahim Abdel Meguid,2007-04-26 While the fading autumn sun sped toward the horizon the young boys headed home they were not used to trying to see at night without the moon s glow So begins this unconventional hauntingly mythic novel In the tradition of magical realism author Abdel Meguid crafts a tale steeped in symbolism Writing in a shimmering lyrical style he brings alive the dreams customs and everyday concerns of people living in historic obscurity on the fringe of the glitzy petrodollar kingdoms of the Middle East The tale begins on a worksite in Egypt s western desert Here in the middle of nowhere railway men and locals wait in hope for the annual return of a distant train When last it came this vehicle brought with it foreigners soldiers and economic opportunity then it stopped Each of Meguid s characters is allegorical in nature Each part of the novel is framed by memory and the way remembrance takes shape and affects the characters The story s main characters are time and place Yet its dramatic thrust is the ways in which place gives rise to history through the passage of time and the rise and fall of settlement Distant Train reaffirms Meguid s status as a new imaginative and distinct voice in the field of narrative literature and the time honored arena of storytelling

Fiction Now Warren F. Motte,2008 Fiction Now reports on the current states of the novel in France taking a series of soundings within the compass of innovative French writing since 2001 Chapters focus closely upon Jean Echenoz Marie Redonnet Christian Gailly Lydie Salvayre G rard Gavarry H l ne Lenoir Patrick Lapeyre and Christine Montalbetti Each of the authors invoked exemplified in his or her work a different set of strategies concerns and approaches one of them transposes the Book of Judith to the Parisian suburbs another imagines the most taciturn of cowboys in the American West still another goes well beyond death into the afterlife of a concert pianist Despite their diversity of theme and technique these writers share a will to make French fiction new and demonstrate compellingly that the novel as it is practiced in France today is an extremely vigorous deeply enthralling and richly plural cultural form

The Paris Directive Gerald Jay,2012-06-19 Christopher Reich Outstanding A beguiling atmospheric and entirely entertaining novel that promises intrigue and suspense from the very first page Inspector Mazarelle is a wonderful creation a world weary gimlet eyed detective who must rouse himself for one last case I expect to see him one day in the pantheon of greats alongside Poirot Maigret Brunetti and Zen Christopher Reich New York Times bestselling author of Rules of Deception In a Berlin hotel room in the late 1990s two former French intelligence agents hire Klaus Reiner a ruthlessly effective killer to eliminate an American industrialist vacationing in southwestern France Reiner easily locates his target in the small Dordogne village of Taziac but the hit is compromised when three innocent people are in the wrong place at the wrong time Enter Inspector Paul Mazarelle Formerly of Paris but now living in Taziac the inspector is charged with bringing his experience and record of success in the capital to bear on the gruesome quadruple homicide at the height of tourist season Both Mazarelle s investigation and Reiner s job become complicated when Molly a New York City district attorney and daughter of two of the victims arrives to identify the bodies and begins asking questions All evidence points to Ali Sedak a local Arab handyman but Mazarelle and Molly have doubts forcing Reiner to return to Taziac to ensure they see things as he arranged them Little does anyone in the picturesque French countryside know how politically charged this crime is its global ramifications stemming from the NATO bombing of the Chinese embassy in Belgrade could overshadow everything Tailored in crisp prose this tantalizing and skillfully written thriller possesses all the luxury refinements of the best international intrigue Jay s novel chills excites and engrosses pitting a smooth calculating villain against an earthy sympathetic Frenchman whose twilight career is suddenly heating up Jay s entertaining first novel pays homage to George Simenon and his legendary detective Inspector Maigret The main draw is the charming indomitable Inspector Mazarelle who enjoys puffing on his old pipe stopping for cognac in the middle of the day and dining on sausages and lentils or his favorite dish duck confit at the Caf Valon Mystery fans will look forward to seeing more of him in the promised sequel Publishers Weekly Gerald Jay has woven threads of police procedural espionage rural noir acts of barbarism and Gallic charm into a story that will be a great fit for almost any crime fan Booklist starred review      Identity Politics Inside Out Lisel Hintz,2018-08-28 The trajectory of Turkey s Justice and Development Party AKP rule offers an ideal empirical window into puzzling shifts in Turkey s domestic politics and foreign policy The policy transformations under its leader Recep Tayyip Erdogan do not align with existing explanations based on security economics institutions or identity In Identity Politics Inside Out Lisel Hintz teases out the complex link between identity politics and foreign policy using an in depth study of Turkey Rather than treating national identity as cause or consequence of a state s foreign policy she repositions foreign policy as an arena in which contestation among competing proposals for national identity takes place Drawing from a broad array of sources in popular culture social media interviews surveys and archives she identifies competing visions of Turkish identity and theorizes when and how internal identity politics becomes externalized Hintz examines the establishment of Republican Nationalism in the wake of imperial collapse and examines failed attempts made by those challenging its Western oriented anti ethnic secularist values with alternative understandings of Turkishness She further demonstrates how the Ottoman Islamist AKP used the European Union accession process to weaken Republican Nationalist obstacles in Turkey thereby opening up space for Islam in the domestic sphere and a foreign policy targeted at achieving leadership in the Middle East By showing how the inside out spillover of national identity debates can reshape foreign policy Identity Politics Inside Out fills a major gap in existing scholarship by closing the identity foreign policy circle      Censorship Derek Jones,2001-12-01
