Green,2016-01-28 FATHER GHOST

weaves the tapestry of a prominent southern family's alcoholic son Erroll Mason husband of Ruth father of Skipper and Andrew Part One of the novel chronicles how a father's addiction shapes the lives of his family In an era when mothers don't work outside the home his wife is forced to search for a livelihood she can no longer count on her husband to provide Like many children of alcoholics Skipper and Andrew thirteen months apart in age excel in academics sports and good behavior in hopes of winning their father's love Both popular among their peers they avoid close friendships that might bring unexpected visitors to a house filled with secret shame The brothers allies in an unnamed war believe they are the only kids in town whose father is a drunk Eager to leave the small town of Brenner after high school each chooses a college far from home Free of the confines of an unhappy childhood they begin to discover who they are Part Two examines the adult lives of Skipper and Andrew Mason and the baggage they're unaware of carrying denial buried emotions depression and a predisposition for alcoholism The novel is a story of triumph and tragedy of strength and weakness and truth and lies but in spite of the human frailties exposed on its pages it is an overarching story of redemptive love forgiveness and grace Dad Bob Seay, 2021-04-09 Can an underachieving son reconnect with his father before it's too late Jacob's life is already complicated enough Now his Dad whose mind isn't as sharp as it once was is driving out for a visit Or he was before he got lost along the way Now it's up to Jacob to get this right A touching story about families relationships and aging parents Editorial Review by Jon Michael Miller of Readers Favorite In Dad by Bob Seay we meet Jacob our narrator and protagonist in his mid to late thirties struggling both in his professional world and in his marriage With his compulsion to tell everybody everything he tells us his story as if we are his best friends exposing all his failures and amusing quirks Brooke his wife wants all his money and he has lost his job as a high school teacher In survival mode he lives in Colorado and works as a ghost writer of term papers for college students He lives and works online from the back room of a laundry His squalid existence is interrupted when he is informed by his brother back in Cincinnati that their dad suffering from Alzheimer's has hit the road and is in a hotel room in Kansas City Missouri Jacob is the logical person to collect his old man In so doing he finds his dad having lunch with a hotel maid Amelia who is watching over him We soon become familiar with the sights along Interstate 70 as his dad tells Jacob about installing communications devices in St Louis's Gateway Arch He has other stories about his activities on Mars and in submarines Despite Jacob's honest flaws and his relentless search for self and redemption I came to like and even to identify with him Yes he is largely responsible as he admits for his own problems Fortunately he is in a stable tight knit family all intent on taking care of their sad but sometimes funny dad But I felt that Dad is the vehicle of the real underlying story which is Jacob trying to dig himself out of the hole he has dug for himself He meets his female spiritual twin in the person of Amelia not really a hotel housekeeper but a refugee from nursing and an aspiring artist She escapes from an abusive Confederate flag flying boyfriend into Jacob's black Mustang convertible nicknamed Beast which hauls Jacob back and forth several times between Denver Kansas City Topeka and Cincinnati We're all doing the best we can says Amelia compassionately I was both sadly moved and often amused by Jacob's search for a better life And along with the story we learn a lot from the various topics Jacob ghost writes about nursing burnout the Feds Buddhism and neo Nazis to name only a few Oh yes and the Stanford Marshmallow Index which somehow nibbles at Jacob's core And we meet a quirky loving family in the turmoil of losing the family patriarch who is quite an overarching backdrop in his own right Author Bob Seay dedicates his novel Dad to all families with aging parents and I cannot imagine a more accurate portrayal or one more moving
