Selected Poems of August Strindberg

Lotta M. Löfgren, 2002 August Strindberg 1849 1912 was one of the great innovators of modern drama as well as a novelist poet and master of the Swedish language In this collection Selected Poems of August Strindberg editor and translator Lotta M Lofgren has chosen poems from all three volumes of Strindberg s verse Poems in Verse and Prose Sleepwalking Nights on Awake Days and Word Play and Minor Art to illustrate to the English speaking reader the development strengths and versatility of Strindberg the poet Lofgren explains Although August Strindberg is internationally acknowledged as a pioneering realist expressionist and surrealist playwright his poetry is still relatively unknown outside Sweden The only English translation of his poems to date is the 1978 translation of Sleepwalking Nights by Arvid Paulson that gives an incomplete and misleading picture of Strindberg s poetry Lofgren s translation seeks to correct that picture Strindberg s stature as a dramatist alone may be adequate justification for offering a translation of his verse but his poetry stands well on its own All three volumes broke new ground and paved the way for younger generations of poets Lofgren hopes that her translation will not only introduce Strindberg s verse to English speaking readers but will also inspire other scholars to revisit his poetry and give it the attention it deserves Selected Poems of August Strindberg received the American

Scandinavian Foundation s Translation Prize

Sacrifice and Modern War Writing Alex Houen, 2024-09-05

Sacrifice and Modern War Writing presents the most extensive study to date of twentieth and twenty first century war writing Examining works by over 110 authors Alex Houen surveys how war writing explores sacrifice in relation to major modern and contemporary conflicts from the First World War to the War on Terror Various conceptions of sacrifice are examined including Christian Jewish Islamic and secular The discussion ranges across literary portrayals of multiple sacrificial practices including ancient rituals of child sacrifice martyrdom scapegoating and suicide bombing Houen builds an innovative interdisciplinary approach to how war sacrifice and their representations interrelate and a wide range of Anglophone literature is discussed including novels memoirs short stories essays manifestoes elegies ballads and lyric poetry Whereas critics and theorists have tended to emphasize that war's reality exceeds any attempt to represent it Houen contends that political religious and cultural frames of sacrifice have continued to play a significant part in shaping how war's reality is shaped and experienced Those frames are inextricably tied to modes of representation which include symbolism and mimesis Sacrifice and Modern War Writing explores how sacrificial killing in war is itself riddled with symbolic transfigurations and mimetic exchanges and it builds a fresh approach by arguing that the figurative and imaginative aspects of literary writing ironically become its very means of engaging closely with the reality of war's sacrifices. That approach also develops by using the literary analyses to critique and revise various prominent theories of sacrifice and war.
