BMom Crissy Shreve, 2014-02 Rich and real BMom is one woman's mosaic of love, life and loss and of being found among the pieces. No one piece is a whole yet all are precious together a masterpiece and each a gem. It's God restoring the shattered pieces of my life and my soul. His fingerprints are all over it. The reader will laugh and the reader will cry and in that we will become friends. BMom begins with my relinquishing my infant son into the hands of parents I couldn't know. It moves through the intervening years until he found me on to our reunion and beyond. Not only was I reunited with my son I was reunited with myself. Interspersed are various interludes that speak of lessons learned, feelings finally understood and felt and poetry written as part of my journey. BMom is entertaining and engaging while occasionally making a point to be taken or not as the reader chooses. BMom is above all else a good read. Gathering the Desert Gary Paul

Nabhan, 2016-10-01 Winner of the John Burroughs Association's John Burroughs Medal for natural history writing and a Southwest Book Award from the Border Regional Library Association. To the untrained eye a desert is a wasteland that defies civilization yet the desert has been home to native cultures for centuries and offers sustenance in its surprisingly wide range of plant life. Gary Paul Nabhan has combed the desert in search of plants forgotten by all but a handful of American Indians and Mexican Americans. In Gathering the Desert readers will discover that the bounty of the desert is much more than meets the eye whether found in the luscious fruit of the stately organ pipe cactus or in the lowly tepary bean. Nabhan has chosen a dozen of the more than 425 edible wild species found in the Sonoran Desert to demonstrate just how bountiful the land can be. From the red hot chiltepin of Mexico to the palms of Palm Springs each plant exemplifies a symbolic or ecological relationship which people of this region have had with plants through history. Each chapter focuses on a particular plant and is accompanied by an original drawing by artist Paul Mirocha. Word and picture together create a total impression of plants and people as the book traces the turn of seasons in the desert. Grow Your Own Palm Tree Editors of Cider Mill
