First Picture Edward Steichen:

Real Fantasies Patricia Johnston, 2023-11-15 During the 1920s and 1930s Edward Steichen was the most successful photographer in the advertising industry Although much has been said about Steichen's fine art photography his commercial work which appeared regularly in Vanity Fair Vogue Ladies Home Journal and almost every other popular magazine published in the United States has not received the attention it deserves At a time when photography was just beginning to replace drawings as the favored medium for advertising Steichen helped transform the producers of such products as Welch's grape juice and Jergens lotion from small family businesses to national household names In this book Patricia Johnston uses Steichen's work as a case study of the history of advertising and the American economy between the wars She traces the development of Steichen's work from an early naturalistic style through increasingly calculated attempts to construct consumer fantasies By the 1930s alluring images of romance and class developed in collaboration with agency staff and packaged in overtly manipulative and persuasive photographs became Steichen's stock in trade He was most frequently chosen by agencies for products targeted toward women his images depicted vivacious singles earnest new mothers and other stereotypically female life stages that reveal a great deal about the industry's perceptions of and pitches to this particular audience Johnston presents an intriguing inside view of advertising agencies drawing on an array of internal documents to reconstruct the team process that involved clients art directors account executives copywriters and photographers Her book is a telling chronicle of the role of mass media imagery in reflecting shaping and challenging social values in American culture During the 1920s and 1930s Edward Steichen was the most successful photographer in the advertising industry Although much has been said about Steichen's fine art photography his commercial work which appeared regularly in Vanity Fair Vogue Ladies Home Journal and almost every other popular magazine published in the United States has not received the attention it deserves At a time when photography was just beginning to replace drawings as the favored medium for advertising Steichen helped transform the producers of such products as Welch's grape juice and Jergens lotion from small family businesses to national household names In this book Patricia Johnston uses Steichen's work as a case study of the history of advertising and the American economy between the wars She traces the development of Steichen's work from an early naturalistic style through increasingly calculated attempts to construct consumer fantasies By the 1930s alluring images of romance and class developed in collaboration with agency staff and packaged in overtly manipulative and persuasive photographs became Steichen's stock in trade He was most frequently chosen by agencies for products targeted toward women his images depicted vivacious singles earnest new mothers and other stereotypically female life stages that reveal a great deal about the industry's perceptions of and pitches to this particular audience Johnston presents an intriguing inside view of advertising agencies drawing on an array of internal documents to reconstruct the team process that involved clients art directors account executives copywriters and photographers Her book is a telling chronicle of the role of mass media imagery in reflecting shaping and challenging social values in American culture

On Display: Visual Politics, Material Culture, and Education Karin Priem, Kerstin te Heesen, 2016 This book focuses on one of the most successful photography exhibitions in history The Family of Man With The Family of Man as its reference point this collection of essays takes a closer look at visual and material objects It examines their relevance for educational issues and exhibition designs We understand these issues in their broadest sense to encompass processes of citizenship and identity formation and the adoption and or preservation of ethical and political values with effects that range from the micro to the macro from the national to the international level The overall hypothesis of this volume is that images objects and designs were created and employed as performers and performances that interacted with and attracted mass audiences This book not only looks at how the presentational representational and social power of images objects and designs was deliberately used by political and cultural stakeholders during the mid 1950s but also how these technologies of display travelled through time and space and as historical objects interacted and continue to interact with new contexts and audiences

The Short Story and Photography, 1880's-1980's Jane Marjorie Rabb, 1998 For over a hundred years stories about photographs and photography have reflected the profound uncertainties and inconclusive endings of the modern world For many writers photography supposedly the most realistic of the arts turns out to be the most ambiguous As Jane Rabb observes in her introduction a number of the stories in this collection involve mysteries perhaps because photography has a capacity for both documentary reality and moral and psychological ambiguity Many nineteenth century writers represented here including Thomas Hardy and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle helped make short fiction as respectable as the novel Some of them were even serious photographers themselves The twentieth century is arguably a golden age for both the short story and photography This collection includes examples from a worldly group of writer Eug ne Ionesco Julio Cort zar Michel Tournier and Italo Calvino as well as the Chinese writer Bing Xin and John Updike Cynthia Ozick and Raymond Carver In this wide range of stories varying from sentimental to obsessive to sinister to tragic and even fatal the reader will find provocative examples of the confluence of the short story and photography both once considered the bastard stepchildren of literature and art

The Visual Culture of East German Picturebooks 1945-1990 Jörg Meibauer, 2025-06-02 This is the first study to explore picturebooks of the Soviet Occupation Zone and the German Democratic Republic analyzing them in the context of contemporary history social and cultural developments and through a precise analysis of selected images and their context By focusing on areas such as architecture and housing consumer culture traffic and transportation including the iconic role of the Trabant and the design of childhood as seen in pioneer uniforms and institutions the study identifies the unique blend of information about reality and socialist ideology typical of children s visual culture during this period This specific combination was aimed at shaping children to become socialist personalities The study thus demonstrates that pictorial representation and its textual integration are crucial for understanding childhood in the immediate post war period and the German Democratic Republic Photo-era Magazine Juan C. Abel, Thomas Harrison Cummings, Wilfred A. French, A. H. Beardsley, 1909

More Matter John Updike,2009-02-19 In this collection of nonfiction pieces John Updike gathers his responses to nearly two hundred invitations into print each an opportunity to make something beautiful to find within oneself a treasure that would otherwise remain buried Introductions reviews and humorous essays paragraphs on New York religion and lust here is more matter commissioned by an age that as the author remarks in his Preface calls for real stuff not for the obliquities and tenuousities of fiction Still the novelist s shaping hand his gift for telling detail can be detected in many of these literary considerations

Books by Edith Wharton Dawn Powell John Cheever and Vladimir Nabokov are incisively treated as are biographies of Isaac Newton Abraham Lincoln Queen Elizabeth II and Helen Keller As George Steiner observed Updike writes with a solicitous almost tender intelligence The critic and the poet in him are at no odds with the novelist the same sharpness of apprehension bears on the object in each of Updike s modes The Horn Book Magazine ,1929 The Self in Black and White Erina Duganne,2010 A study of race and authenticity in the photography of the civil rights era and beyond The Valiant Knights of Daguerre Sadakichi Hartmann,1978-01-01 From 1898 until shortly after World War I Hartmann rampaged through the photographic world first as Alfred Stieglitz s iconoclastic hatchetman of the Photo Secession movement later as an unruly rebel sniping away at his mentor under the pseudonym of Caliban One of the most prolific photographic critics of all time Hartmann discovered many of our greatest photographers championed photography as an art form and sparked endless controversies about the medium page 2 of cover [Catalog of Copyright Entries.
