Jungle Fighters Jules Archer, 2016-01-19 In the early stages of the Pacific War General Douglas MacArthur was expected to prevent the Japanese from taking Australia With limited forces MacArthur had to be tactical and the key to the continent s defense was the island of New Guinea just above the northeast tip of Australia In order to defend New Guinea MacArthur sent a small task force to Milne Bay where the Coral Sea rounded the southeast tip of the island His plan to establish an airfield base for bomber and fighter planes that could attack enemy invasion convoys as they rounded the tip of New Guinea to attack Australia In the fall of 1941 at the age of twenty six Jules Archer joined the US Armed Forces A few months later he joined MacArthur as a member of the small task force being sent to New Guinea With good reason not to expect to return alive Archer and his troop were plunged into a new kind of war They fought in a jungle among a primitive Melanesian people some tribes of which were headhunters For nearly four years they endured in the distant jungle This is an inside look at one of the lesser known stories of one of the worst wars the world has known It s a story of the absurdities fears camaraderie and even humor of life as a wartime soldier The Pressure Cooker: Forging Naval Officers Through Marine Leadership John Crouch,2015-12-05 Marine Drill Instructor John E Crouch presents a collection of stories memories and recollections of his training of U S Navy flyers Dog, Inc. John Woestendiek,2010-12-30 What Stiff did for the dead and Fast Food Nation did for the burger Dog Inc does for the stranger than fiction world of commercial dog cloning It all began with a pit bull named Booger Former Miss Wyoming Bernann McKinney was so distraught over the death of her dog whom she regarded as her guardian and savior that she paid 50 000 to RNL Bio for the chance to bring her beloved companion back to life The result were five new Boogers the first successful commercial cloning of a canine delivered in 2008 along with a slew of compelling questions about the boundaries of science commerce and ethics Blending shocking investigative reporting with colorful anecdotes Pulitzer Prize winning John Woestendiek takes readers behind the scenes of this emerging industry But Dog Inc isn t just a book about pets Nor is it just a book about science Rather it s a fascinating look at how our emotional needs are bending the reaches of science and technology as well as a study of this uncharted territory With our pet obsession climbing to new heights and our scientific abilities even more so this combination raises a serious concern Are we crossing the boundary of controlling science in the name of science in the name of love in the name of merchandising or a blend of all three Legislative Documents Iowa.
