

Literary Device: Symbolism

Symbolism occurs when one object or entity within a literary work represents another object or entity completely separate from itself.

Example: "Mockingbirds don't do one thing but make music for us to enjoy. They don't eat up people's gardens, don't nest in corncribs, they don't do one thing but sing their hearts out for us. That's why it's a sin to kill a mockingbird."

– Harper Lee's To Kill a Mockingbird

After examining the quote above, what do you think that the mockingbird could represent within Harper Lee's work?

The Son-Father Relationship and Christological Symbolism in the Gospel of John Adesola Joan Akala, 2014-07-31 This volume examines Johannine symbolism within the lens of Jesus relationship with the Father After demonstrating that the Gospel narrative symbolically portrays Jesus as the Son of God who is relationally inseparable from his Father the study shows how the Son Father Relationship SFR is at the center of the network of Christological symbols in the Gospel of John Using an innovative narrative framework this book unveils the creative and symbolic introduction of the SFR in the Prologue Jn 1:1-18 its development through the words and actions of Jesus teaching ministry within the Johannine narrative and its culmination in the Prayer Jn 17 the SFR motif then concludes in the remainder of the Gospel This narrative framework reveals how the SFR shapes the literary style and theological strategy of the Gospel and acts as an integrative force by giving structure and cohesion to the Gospel's symbolic system. Two key features presented in this book are a theory of symbolism and a network of symbols. The specially formulated Theory of Johannine Symbolism explains the theoretical and theological underpinnings of the Gospel's symbolic network called John's Christological Symbolology. Through the symbolic network, the author of the Gospel fulfills the theological purpose stated in Jn 20:31 that hearer/readers believe in Jesus the Christ as the Son of God and thereby experience eternal life.

These essays wrestle with a number of postformalist questions and are ordered so as to present a new argument for the self-sufficiency of the text. Collectively they suggest that recovery of interest in the meaning of texts and the exchange between writer and reader may become the next new criticism.

A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15 The Artist as Divine Symbol Adam Edward Carnehl, 2023-10-09. In critical yet appreciative dialogue with four different art critics who demonstrated theological sensitivities, Adam Edward Carnehl traces an ongoing religious conversation that ran through nineteenth-century aesthetics. In Carnehl's estimation, this critical conversation between the John Ruskin, Walter Pater, and Oscar Wilde culminated in the brilliant approach of G. K. Chesterton, who began his journalistic career with a series of insightful works of art criticism. By conducting a close reading of these largely neglected works, Carnehl demonstrates that Chesterton developed a theological aesthetic that focuses us on the revelation of God's image in every human being. In Chesterton's eyes, only those made in God's image can produce images themselves, and only those who receive a revelation of truth are able to reveal truths for others. Art is therefore a rich and symbolic unveiling of the truth of humanity, which finds its origin and purpose in God, the Divine Artist.
