Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf, Karen Coats, Patricia Enciso, Christine Jenkins, 2011-04-27 This landmark volume is the first to bring together leading scholarship on children's and young adult literature from three intersecting disciplines Education English and Library and Information Science Distinguished by its multidisciplinary approach it describes and analyzes the different aspects of literary reading texts and contexts to illuminate how the book is transformed within and across different academic figurations of reading and interpreting children's literature Part one considers perspectives on readers and reading literature in home school library and community settings Part two introduces analytic frames for studying young adult novels picturebooks indigenous literature graphic novels and other genres Chapters include commentary on literary experiences and creative production from renowned authors and illustrators Part three focuses on the social contexts of literary study with chapters on censorship awards marketing and literary museums The singular contribution of this Handbook is to lay the groundwork for colleagues across disciplines to redraw the map of their separately figured worlds thus to enlarge the scope of scholarship and dialogue as well as push ahead into uncharted territory Fiction Across Borders Shameem Black, 2010 Theorists of Orientalism and postcolonialism argue that novelists betray political and cultural anxieties when characterizing the Other Shameem Black takes a different stance Turning a fresh eye toward several key contemporary novelists she reveals how border crossing fiction represents socially diverse groups without resorting to stereotype idealization or other forms of imaginative constraint Focusing on the work of J M Coetzee Amitav Ghosh Jeffrey Eugenides Ruth Ozeki Charles Johnson Gish Jen and Rupa Bajwa Black introduces an interpretative lens that captures the ways in which these authors envision an ethics of representing social difference They not only offer sympathetic portrayals of the lives of others but also detail the processes of imagining social difference Whether depicting the multilingual worlds of South and Southeast Asia the exportation of American culture abroad or the racial tension of postapartheid South Africa these transcultural representations explore social and political hierarchies in constructive ways Boldly confronting the orthodoxies of recent literary criticism Fiction Across Borders builds upon such seminal works as Edward Said's Orientalism and offers a provocative new study of the late twentieth century novel

Unclaimed Harvest Kavita Panjabi, 2016-12-15 1943 As the British Empire draws to a close the state of Bengal is just emerging from the grip of famine Exploited mercilessly by feudal landlords landless peasants rise in protest and launch a movement in 1946 to retain two thirds of the grain they harvest Tebhaga More than 50 000 women participated in this movement one whose history and tragic end in the crossfire between state violence and revolutionary armed struggle became a legend in its time Yet in the written history of Tebhaga the full fledged women's movement that they forged has never featured In this authoritative study based on interviews and women's memories Kavita Panjabi sets the balance right with rare sensitivity and grace Using critical insights garnered from oral history and memory studies Panjabi raises questions that neither social history nor left historiography ask In doing so she claims the past for a feminist vision of radical social change This account of the transformation of the struggle is unique in feminist scholarship movements Fictions of Fact and Value

Michael LeMahieu, 2013-10 Fictions of Fact and Value looks at logical positivism's major influence on the development of postwar American fiction charting a literary and philosophical genealogy that has been absent from criticism on the American novel since 1945 Eating Well, Reading Well Nicole Jenette Simek, 2008 While rejecting a conception of literature as moral philosophy or a device for imparting particular morals to the reader through exemplary characters and plots Maryse Conde has displayed throughout her writing career a strong valorization of literature as ethical critique This study examines her singular approach to literary commitment as a critical reworking of aesthetic models and modes of interpretation Focusing on four dominant problematics in Conde's work history and globalization in La Belle Creole and Moi Tituba sorciere noire de Salem intertextuality and reception in La migration des c urs and Celanire cou coupe trauma and subjectivity in En attendant le bonheur and Desirada community and ethics in Traversee de la mangrove and Histoire de la femme cannibale this analysis proposes to elucidate how and to what ends Conde engages and alters approaches to reading staging the problematic yet pragmatic need to read well This hermeneutic imperative foregrounds the need to engage with texts to cannibalize texts while recognizing their fundamental opacity and inexhaustibility their resistance to the reader's interpretive habits Nicole Simek is an Assistant Professor of Foreign Languages and Literatures at Whitman College Specializing in French Caribbean literature Simek's research interests include the intersection of politics and literature in Caribbean fiction trauma theory and sociological approaches to literature Table of Contents Acknowledgments Introduction Interpreting through Example Chapter 1 Reading History The Example of the Past after Globalization Chapter 2 Rusing with
