Literary Value Cultural Power Verbal Arts In The Twenty First Century:

Literary Value/ Cultural Power Lynette Hunter,2001 Hunter examines the marginalised verbal arts written and spoken texts that don't fit the conventional patterns such as e mail letters diaries writing and speaking from the Black diaspora women's writing and electronic texts The Philosophy of Literature Peter Lamarque,2008-08-11 By exploring central issues in the philosophy of literature illustrated by a wide range of novels poems and plays Philosophy of Literature gets to the heart of why literature matters to us and sheds new light on the nature and interpretation of literary works Provides a comprehensive study along with original insights into the philosophy of literature Develops a unique point of view from one of the field's leading exponents Offers examples of key issues using excerpts from well known novels poems and plays from different historical periods Word & Image in Colonial and Postcolonial Literatures and Cultures Michael Meyer,2009 Verbal imagery and visual images as well as the intricate relationships between verbal and visual representations have long shaped the imagination and the practice of intercultural relationships The contributions to this volume take a fresh look at the ideology of form especially the gendered and racial implications of the gaze and the voice in various media and intermedial transformations Analyses of how culturally specific forms of visual and verbal expression are individually understood and manipulated complement reflections on the potential and limitations of representation The juxtaposition of visual and verbal signifiers explores the gap between them as a space beyond cultural boundaries Topics treated include Caliban English satirical iconotexts Oriental travel writing and illustration expatriate description and picturesque illustration of Edinburgh ethnographic film African studio photography South African cartoons imagery ekphrasis and race in South African art and fiction face and visibility representation and memory in Asian fiction Bollywood Asian historical film Asian British pop music Australian landscape in painting and fiction indigenous children's fiction from Aotearoa New Zealand Canada and the USA Canadian photography Native Americans in film Writers and artists discussed include Philip Kwame Apagya the Asian Dub Foundation Breyten Breytenbach Richard Burton Peter Carey Gurinder Chadha Daniel Chodowiecki J M Coetzee Ashutosh Gowariker Patricia Grace W Greatbatch Hogarth Francis K Honny Jim Jarmusch Robyn Kahukiwa Seydou Keita Thomas King Vladyana Krykorka Alfred Kubin Michael Arvaarluk Kusugak Kathleen and Michael Lacapa L szl Lakner George Littlechild Ken Lum Franz Marc Zakes Mda Ketan Mehta M I A Maya Arulpragasam Timothy Mo William Kent Monkman Lady Mary Wortley Montagu John Hamilton Mortimer Sidney Nolan Jean Rouch Salman Rushdie William Shakespeare Robert Louis Stevenson Richard Van C Zapiro The Social Life of Literature in Revolutionary Cuba Par Kumaraswami,2016-10-05 This study explores the social functions of literature from the perspective of policymakers writers readers and residents in contemporary Cuba It provides a new perspective on post 59 Cuban literature that underlines how cultural policy has made literature a hybrid activity between elite and mass culture with inherent social rather than aesthetic or political value Whilst many traditional studies of Cuban literature assume either its subjugation to politics and ideology or conversely its role in resisting political discourse via a rather naïve notion of artistic freedom this project explores the varied dynamic and multiple ways in which literature works in Cuban society as a catalyst for identity construction aimed at consensus and belonging but also as an instrument of self differentiation and self definition even in the more recent context of a more market oriented system The study reviews policy from 1959 to the present and presents contemporary case studies exploring the social functions of literature for writers readers and ordinary Havana residents

Queer Postcolonial Narratives and the Ethics of Witnessing Donna McCormack, 2015-07-30 Queer Postcolonial Narratives and the Ethics of Witnessing is a critically engaged exploration of power and its relation to ethics and bodies By revisiting and revising Judith Butler's and Homi Bhabha's queer and postcolonial theories of literary performance McCormack expands current understandings of the performative workings of power through an embodied multisensory ethics That remembering is an embodied act which necessitates an undoing of one's sense of self captures how colonial and familial histories silenced by hegemonic structures may only emerge through opaque bodily sensations These non institutionalised forms of witnessing serve both to reconfigure theories of performativity by re situating the act of witnessing as integral to the workings of power and to interrogate the current emphasis on speech in trauma studies by analysing the multifarious communal and public ways in which memories emerge In Queer Postcolonial Narratives and the Ethics of Witnessing the body is reinstated as central to both the workings of and the challenges to colonial discourses

Defining Waka Musically Christopher Hepburn, 2023-08-30 This book considers how music musicality and ideologies of musicality are working within the specific construction of waka on the theme of male love in Kitamura Kigin's Iwatsutsuji 1676 and Ihara Saikaku's Nanshoku kagami 1687 by using a modified generative theory of music This modified theory seeks to get at the interdependent meanings that may exist among the music image and the text of the waka in question In all this study guides the reader through five waka on the theme of male love and demonstrates not only how each waka is inherently musical but how the image and text may interdependently relate to the ways in which premodern Japanese song poets may not only have thought in and with sound but may have also utilized a diverse array of musical gestures to construct new objects of knowledge In the case of this study these new objects of knowledge seem to have aided in situating a changing musicopoetics that aligned with changing constructions of male desire

Negotiating Shakespeare's Language in Romeo and Juliet Lynette Hunter, Peter Lichtenfels, 2016-09-17 Through exciting and unconventional approaches including critical historical printing publishing and performance studies this study mines Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet to produce new insights into the early modern family the individual and society in the context of early modern capitalism Inspired by recent work in cultural materialism and the material book it also foregrounds the ways in which the contexts and the text itself become available to the reader today The opening material on critical historical approaches focuses on the way that readers have frequently read and played the text to explore issues that cluster around the family marriage gender and sexuality Chapter two on the ways that actors today inhabit character and create behaviour provides intertextual comment on acting in the early modern period and the connections between acting and social behaviour that inform self image and the performance of identity both then and now The third chapter on printing publishing approaches to the text offers a detective story about the differences between Quarto One and Quarto Two that focuses on the curious appearance in Quarto Two of material related to the law at word phrase line and scene level The next three chapters integrate a close study of the language of the play to negotiate its potential significance for the present in the areas of Family Marriage Gender and Sexuality Identity Individualism and Humanism and the Law Religion and Medicine Among the startling aspects of this book are that it takes the part of Juliet far more seriously than other criticism has tended to do attributing to her agency and aspects of character that develop the part suddenly from girl to woman recognizes the way the play explores early modern identity becoming a handbook for individualism and humanism in the private domestic setting of early capitalism and brings to light the least recognized element in the play at the moment its demonstration of the emerging structures of state power governance by law the introduction of surveillance detection and witness and the formation of what we now call the subject The volume includes on DVD a scholarly edition with commentary of the text of Romeo Juliet which re instates many of the original early modern versions of the play When the Other is Me Emma LaRocque, 2011-03-10 In this long awaited book from one of the most recognized and respected scholars in Native Studies today Emma LaRocque presents a powerful interdisciplinary study of the Native literary response to racist writing in the Canadian historical and literary record from 1850 to 1990 In When the Other is Me LaRocque brings a metacritical approach to Native writing situating it as resistance literature within and outside the postcolonial intellectual context She outlines the overwhelming evidence of dehumanization in Canadian historical and literary writing its effects on both popular culture and Canadian intellectual development and Native and non Native intellectual responses to it in light of the interlayered mix of romanticism exaggeration of Native difference and the continuing problem of internalization that challenges our understanding of the colonizer colonized relationship Travelling Knowledges Renate

Eigenbrod, 2005-05-25 In the context of de colonization the boundary between an Aboriginal text and the analysis by a non Aboriginal outsider poses particular challenges often constructed as unbridgeable Eigenbrod argues that politically correct silence is not the answer but instead does a disservice to the literature that like all literature depends on being read taught and disseminated in various ways In Travelling Knowledges Eigenbrod suggests decolonizing strategies when approaching Aboriginal texts as an outsider and challenges conventional notions of expertise She concludes that literatures of colonized peoples have to be read ethically not only without colonial impositions of labels but also with the responsibility to read beyond the text or in Lee Maracle's words to become the architect of great social transformation Features the works of Jeannette Armstrong Okanagan Louise Halfe Cree Margo Kane Saulsteaux Cree Maurice Kenny Mohawk Thomas King Cherokee living in Canada Emma LaRocque Cree Metis Lee Maracle Sto lo Metis Ruby Slipperjack Anishnaabe Lorne Simon
