Literature Based Instruction With English Language Learners K 1:

Literature-based Instruction with English Language Learners, K-12 Nancy L. Hadaway, Sylvia M. Vardell, Terrell A. Young, 2002 This book takes a literature based approach to how children learn language and how it is taught in today's diverse K-12 classrooms. The material is based on the belief that literature offers the most effective instructional approach for English language learners. The book offers meaningful reading, writing, speaking, and listening activities as well as new understandings about the forms and functions of written language. This is the first book that offers instructors guidance in expanding the range of materials they use for teaching ESL by going beyond the standard texts to include books of all kinds: children's literature, trade books, magazines, and other media. Voices from the Classroom: Scenarios from K-12 classrooms with English language learners are provided throughout the chapters, offering practical stories from teachers' points of view. Preparing Classroom Teachers to Succeed with Second Language Learners Thomas Levine, Elizabeth Howard, David Moss, 2014-07-11 This volume identifies resources, models, and specific practices for improving teacher preparation for work with second language learners. It shows how faculty positioned themselves to learn from resources, experts, preservice teachers, their own practice, and each other. The teacher education professionals leverage their experience to offer theoretical and practical insights regarding how other faculty could develop their own knowledge, improve their courses, and understand their influence on the preservice teachers they serve. The book addresses challenges others are likely to experience while improving teacher preparation, including preservice teacher resistance, the challenge of adding to already packed courses, the difficulty of recruiting and retaining busy faculty members and the question of how to best frame the larger issues The authors also address options for integrating the work of improving teacher preparation for linguistic diversity into a variety of different teacher education program designs Finally the book demonstrates a data driven approach that makes this work consistent with many institutions mandate to produce research and to collect evidence supporting accreditation
