First Things Reading The Maternal Imaginary:

First Things Mary Jacobus, 1995 Mary Jacobus combines close readings with theoretical concerns in an examination of the many forms taken by the mythic or phantasmic mother in literary psychoanalytic and artistic representations Reading Melanie Klein Lyndsey Stonebridge, John Phillips, 1998 Kleinian psychoanalysis has recently experienced a renaissance in academic and clinical circles Reading Melanie Klein responds to the upsurge of interest in her work by bringing together the most innovative and challenging essays on Kleinian thought from the last two decades The book features material which appears here for the first time in English and several newly written chapters Reading Melaine Klein recontextualizes Klein to the more well known works of Freud and Lacan and disproves the long held claim that her psychoanalysis is both too normative and too conservative for critical consideration The essays address Klein's distinctive readings of the unconscious and phantasy her tenacious commitment to the death drive her fecund notions of anxiety projection and projective identification and most famously her challenge to Freud's Oedipus complex and theories of sexual difference The authors demonstrate that not only is it possible to rethink the epistemological basis of Kleinian theory rendering it as vital as those of Freud and Lacan but also that her psychoanalysis can engage in powerful and productive dialogue with diverse disciplines such as politics ethics and literary theory This timely collection is an invaluable addition to the scholarship on Melaine Kein and catalyst for further debate not only within the psychoanalytic community but also across social critical and cultural studies First Things Mary Jacobus, 1995 In First Things Mary Jacobus combines close readings with theoretical concerns in an examination of the many forms taken by the mythic or phantasmic mother in literary psychoanalytic and artistic representations She carefully explores the ways in which the maternal imaginary informs both unconscious processes and signifying practices at all levels Her fierce analysis of specific texts and paintings raises questions about the the symbolic and biological maternal body and how they relate to each other in literary and psychoanalytic terms The invocation of writings by Kleist Wollstonecraft Mary Shelley Malthus and de Sade along with analysis of French revolutionary iconography and Realist and Impressionist paintings by Eakins and Morisot make this wide ranging text a truly interdisciplinary study First Things sees literary theory and psychoanalysis as mutually illuminating practices The work of Freud Klein Kristeva and Bion shape an inquiry into such topics as population discourse surrogate motherhood AIDS mastectomy and psychoanalysis itself In addition Jacobus elaborates on Freud's oedipal preconceptions Klein's missing theory of signs memory melancholia narcissism and maternal reverie Maternal Echoes Aimee Boutin, 2001-09 Maternal Echoes examines maternal imagery in the poetry of two French Romantic poets the increasingly popular Desbordes Valmore and the critically marginalized Lamartine Drawing on psychoanalytic theories on the maternal voice as well as feminist criticism the book argues that both poets find a voice of their own by echoing their mother's voice Readers and Reading Andrew Bennett, 2014-07-15 Much literary criticism focuses on literary producers and their products but an important part of such work considers the end user

the reader It asks such questions as how far can the author condition the response of the reader and how much does the reader create the meaning of a text Dr Bennett s collection includes important essays from such writers and critics as Wolfgang Iser Mary Jacobus Roger Chartier Michel de Certeau Shoshana Felman Maurice Blanchot Paul de Man and Yves Bonnefoy It looks in turn at deconstructionist feminist new historicist and psychoanalytical response to the school The book then considers the act of reading itself discussing such issues as the uniqueness of any reading and the difficulties involved in its analysis

A Companion to Ingmar Bergman Daniel Humphrey, Hamish Ford, 2025-01-07 A Companion to Ingmar Bergman This collective project brilliantly launches Bergman studies forward at least a generation or two The 35 contributors comprise a Who s Who of prominent and rising star Bergman scholars diversely and globally Arne Lunde UCLA author of Nordic Exposures Scandinavian Identities in Classical Hollywood Cinema 2010 Bergman s films are not static They changed dramatically over the filmmaker s lifetime and so too our ways of critically analysing them This superb Companion lays out the tracks of understanding Bergman today Adrian Martin Film Critic author of Mysteries of Cinema 2018 The first book in English to address Ingmar Bergman s cinema through a broad array of classical and contemporary approaches A Companion to Ingmar Bergman brings together 32 original essays by established scholars and exciting new voices in the field Representing a uniquely wide range of approaches in academic film studies and beyond the chapters that make up the volume illuminate a body of work that changed the way cinema is created defined experienced understood and interpreted Thematically organized into four parts the Companion discusses gender exploration and self representation in Bergman s cinema draws evolutionary insights from The Seventh Seal explores existential feelings and religious iconography in the early 1960s trilogy journeys through the filmmaker s island landscape in the context of cinematic tourism and much more Throughout the book hailing from a range of global contexts and backgrounds the authors provide fresh insights into a deeply complex and challenging film artist often from unexpected perspectives An innovative mixture of new scholarship and fresh updated employments of older approaches A Companion to Ingmar Bergman Examines Bergman s cinema through methodologies as diverse as Film Philosophy Star Studies Bisexual Studies Tourism Studies Transgender Studies and Evolutionary Studies Delves into the director s early period in the late 1940s 1950s through his most challenging modernist period in the 1960s and into the 1980s Engages with films long considered problematic by commentators plus unproduced Bergman screenplays including All These Women The Petrified Prince Face to Face and From the Life of the Marionettes A Companion to Ingmar Bergman is a must read for advanced undergraduate and graduate film students postgraduate scholars college and university lecturers and researchers particularly those interested in the application of classical and modern approaches to the study of twentieth century cinema and Bergman fans around the world

Édouard Vuillard, the Nabis, and the Politics of Domesticity Francesca Berry, 2024-12-12 This ground breaking book is the first to address the feminine and feminist politics of Intimiste art a modernist mode of art making developed in the 1890s by douard Vuillard while associated with the Nabi brotherhood Coined by contemporary critics intimisme encapsulated the shared approach of these artists to depicting intimate settings and themes Vuillard s paintings which are typically small employ bold pigments and economic brushstrokes to depict female figures in tightly composed apartment interiors Those portrayed include his mother and sister just as wives and lovers dominate the art of other Nabis including Maurice Denis and Pierre Bonnard Francesca Berry comparatively analyses the gender politics of Nabi art to reveal real differences Through skilled visual interpretation she argues that Vuillard attempted a profound engagement with the material conditions of feminine domesticity in cooperation with his first and most sustained audience women He did so the author reveals in artworks that explore a complex range of feminine experiences such as sexual initiation stillbirth illicit work and unceasing housework The personal gender politics of Intimiste practice also are foregrounded Vuillard s studio bedroom afforded him access to quotidian femininity But at what risks to his sister s privacy and to his mother s subjectivity Making an artistic project of feminine domesticity also meant entering the field of politics The 1890s was the decade of state legislation and feminist demands with respect to work in the home and women s familial rights Personal in motif and Symbolist in form Berry s extensive historical research reveals these artworks also to have been social and political sometimes even feminist in meaning Transcending the structural repression of domesticity in histories of modernist art this book powerfully overturns residual myths of aesthetic introspection and social retreat that for too long have been attached to Nabi Symbolism

Reading and Writing the Ambiente Susana Chávez-Silverman, Librada Hernández, 2000 In this dynamic collection of essays many leading literary scholars trace gay and lesbian themes in Latin American Hispanic and U S Latino literary and cultural texts Reading and Writing the Ambiente is consciously ambitious and far ranging historically as well as geographically It includes discussions of texts from as early as the seventeenth century to writings of the late twentieth century Reading and Writing the Ambiente also underscores the ways in which lesbian and gay self representation in Hispanic texts differs from representations in Anglo American texts The contributors demonstrate that unlike the emphasis on the individual in Anglo American sexual identity Latino Spanish and Latin American sexual identity is produced in the surrounding culture and community in the ambiente As one of the first collections of its kind Reading and Writing the Ambiente is expressive of the next wave of gay Hispanic and Latin scholarship

That Obscure Subject of Desire Ronnie Lesser, Erica Schoenberg, 2013-11-12 An interdisciplinary collection of papers on Freud s sixth and final case psychogenesis of a case of homosexuality in a woman To date this case has received very little attention which can be seen as a sign of the marginalization of lesbians in both psychoanalytic theory and culture This text seeks to rectify this neglect providing a forum where questions surrounding this case can be discussed This edition first published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Maternal Pasts, Feminist Futures Lynne Huffer, 1998 This book examines the relations among nostalgia gender and foundational philosophies through a critique of the lost mother as a ground for thinking about sexual difference More specifically the author critiques the nostalgic tendencies of feminist theory arguing that an emancipatory system of thought must move beyond a maternally oriented structure Through close readings of works by Maurice Blanchot Luce Irigaray Julia Kristeva and Nicole Brossard the book elucidates the many dimensions of nostalgic paradigms literary psychoanalytic epistemological ontological and sociopolitical This critique ultimately confronts postmodernism and especially the burgeoning field of performative theory as an intellectual paradigm that claims to subvert systems of meaning Analyzing the writings of J L Austin Judith Butler and Irigaray the author argues that despite its antinostalgic structure performative theory provides an inadequate model for understanding the connections among language identity and the social bonds that constitute the ethical and political sphere Asserting through the example of performative theory that a critique is not enough the book examines the possibility of a constructive model that is both non nostalgic and informed by ethical constraints One such model is offered through a reading of the Quebecois writer Nicole Brossard which explores her work in relation to the question of lesbian writing Demystifying nostalgia Brossard not only uncovers and subverts the structures through which a concept of origins is produced but also provides a different visionary way of thinking about the relationship between subjectivity and language Finally the book argues for further feminist work on the relationship between narrative and ethics a field whose future lies in the elaboration of a bridge between the moral commitments of ethical theory and the fractured realities that find their expression in literary forms

Complicity and Responsibility in Contemporary African Writing

Minna Johanna Niemi, 2021-05-03 This book investigates the many ways in which contemporary African fiction has reflected on themes of responsibility and complicity during the postcolonial period Covering the authors Ayi Kwei Armah Tsitsi Dangaremba Nuruddin Farah Michiel Heyns and J M Coetzee the book places each writer's novels in their cultural and literary context in order to investigate similarities and differences between fictional approaches to individual complicity in politically unstable situations In doing so the study focuses on these texts' representations of discomfiting experiences of being implicated in harm done to others in order to show that it is precisely during times of political crisis that questions of moral responsibility and implicatedness in compromised conduct become more pronounced The study also challenges longstanding western amnesia concerning responsibility for historical and present day violence in African countries and juxtaposes this denial of responsibility with the western literary readership's consumption of narratives of African suffering The study instead proposes new reading habits based on an awareness of readerly complicity and responsibility Drawing insights from across political philosophy and literary theory this book will be of interest to researchers of African literature postcolonial studies and peace and conflict studies

Elizabeth Bowen and the Writing of Trauma

Jessica Gildersleeve, 2014-02-15 Elizabeth Bowen and the Writing of Trauma analyses the treatment of memory and the past in Bowen's writing through the lens of trauma theory It draws on the theories of Jacques Derrida Hélène Cixous Julia Kristeva Sigmund Freud and Cathy N. Davidson to propose that Bowen's work is best understood through the psychological narratological and linguistic effects of trauma in her fiction Bowen's writing complicates existing deconstructive and psychoanalytic models of trauma and literature and testifies to the responsibility of survival and the ethics of bearing witness

Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play Lynn M. Somers, 2024-12-26 This book considers the sculpture of Louise Bourgeois 1911-2010 in light of psychoanalyst D.W. Winnicott's 1896-1971 radical ideas regarding transitional objects, potential space and play, offering a model for exploring the complex and psychologically evocative work Bourgeois produced from 1947 to 2000. Critical concepts from British object-relational theories: destruction, reparation, integration, relationality and play, drawn from the writings of Winnicott, Melanie Klein, Marion Milner and Christopher Bollas among others, bear upon the decades-long study of psychoanalysis Bourgeois brought to her sculptural production that was symbolic, metaphorical and most importantly useful. The book demonstrates how Bourgeois's transformative sculptural objects and environments are invested in object-relations, both psychical and tangible, and explores Bourgeois's contention that the observer physically engages with the intricate sculptural objects and architectural spaces she produced. Each chapter focuses on a key body of work: Femme Maison, Personages, Lairs, Janus and Cells, examining how these imaginative and playful objects are staged as embodied encounters in space and time to invoke the mutuality, reciprocity and ambivalence of our object-relationships. Weaving a tapestry of aesthetic, cultural and psychological encounters, Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play addresses critical relationships among Bourgeois's work and that of other artists from Pieter Bruegel to Eva Hesse. It brings together practical archival and theoretical material, offering close examinations of historically situated objects and analyses of their complex affects and spatiality. Gathering critical perspectives from psychoanalysis, cultural analysis, feminist, queer, literary and affect studies, the book extends its specific art-historical scope to investigate the crucial roles that art and cultural experience assume in everyday life.

Travel Narratives in Translation, 1750-1830 Alison Martin, Susan Pickford, 2013-05-07 This book examines how non-fictional travel accounts were rewritten, reshaped and reoriented in translation between 1750 and 1850, a period that saw a sudden surge in the genre's popularity. It explores how these translations played a vital role in the transmission and circulation of knowledge about foreign peoples, lands and customs in the Enlightenment and Romantic periods. The collection makes an important contribution to travel-writing studies by looking beyond metaphors of mobility and cultural transfer to focus specifically on what happens to travelogues in translation. Chapters range from discussing essential differences between the original and translated text to relations between authors and translators, from intra-European narratives of Grand Tour travel to scientific voyages round the world and from established male travellers and translators to their historically less visible female counterparts. Drawing on European travel writing in English, French, German, Spanish and Portuguese, the book charts how travelogues were selected for translation, how they were reworked to acquire new aesthetic, political or gendered identities and how they sometimes acquired a radically different character and content to meet the needs and expectations of an emergent international readership. The contributors address aesthetic, political and gendered aspects of travel writing in translation drawing productively on other disciplines and research areas that encompass aesthetics the history of science literary geography and the history of the book      Scanning the Hypnograph Nathaniel Wallace,2016-09-07 Nathaniel Wallace's Scanning the Hypnograph chronicles a contemporary genre that exploits sleep's evocative dimensions While dreams sleeping nudes and other facets of the dormant state were popular with artists of the early twentieth century and long before sleep experiences have given rise to an even wider range of postmodern artwork Scanning the Hypnograph first assesses the modernist framework wherein the sleeping subject typically enjoys firm psychic grounding As postmodernism begins subjective space is fragmented the representation of sleep reflecting the trend Among other topics this book demonstrates how portrayals of dormant individuals can reveal imprints of the self Gender issues are taken up as well Mainstream heterosexual representations are considered along with depictions of gay lesbian and androgynous sleepers      Thinking through the Mothers Janet Beizer,2011-03-15 If questions of subjectivity and identification are at stake in all biographical writing they are particularly trenchant for contemporary women biographers of women Often their efforts to exhume buried lives in hope of finding spiritual foremothers awaken maternal phantoms that must be embraced or confronted Do women writing in fact have any greater access to their own mothers' lives than to the lives of other women whose stories have been swept away like dust in the debris of the past In Thinking through the Mothers Janet Beizer surveys modern women's biographies and contemplates alternatives to an approach based in lineage and the form of thought that emphasizes the line the path hierarchy unity resemblance reflection and the aesthetic mimesis that depends on these ideas Through close readings of memoirs and fictions about mothers Beizer explores how biographers of the women who came before rehearse and rewrite relationships to their own mothers biographically as they seek to appropriate the past in a hybrid genre she calls bio autography Thinking through the Mothers features the work of George Sand and Colette and spans such varied figures as Gustave Flaubert Julian Barnes Louise Colet Eunice Lipton Vladimir Nabokov Huguette Bouchardeau and Christa Wolf Beizer seeks an alternative to women's salvation biography or resurrection biography that might resist nostalgia be attentive to silence and reinvent the means to represent the lives of precursors without appropriating traditional models of genealogy      British Women's Life Writing, 1760-1840 A. Culley,2014-07-22 British Women's Life Writing 1760-1840 brings together for the first time a wide range of print and manuscript sources to demonstrate women's innovative approach to self representation It examines canonical writers such as Mary Wollstonecraft Mary Robinson and Helen Maria Williams amongst others      Better Britons Nadine Attewell,2014-02-05 In 1932 Aldous Huxley published Brave New World his famous novel about a future in which humans are produced to spec in laboratories Around the same time Australian legislators announced an ambitious experiment to breed the colour out of Australia by procuring white husbands for women of white and indigenous descent In this study Nadine Attewell reflects on an assumption central to these and other policy initiatives and cultural texts from twentieth century Britain Australia and New Zealand that the fortunes of the nation depend on controlling the reproductive choices of citizen subjects Better Britons charts an innovative approach to the politics of reproduction by reading an array of works and discourses from canonical modernist novels and speculative fictions to government memoranda and public debates that reflect on the significance of reproductive behaviours for civic national and racial identities Bringing insights from feminist and queer theory into dialogue with work in indigenous studies Attewell sheds new light on changing conceptions of British and settler identity during the era of decolonization Mary Wollstonecraft , International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature TheInternational Who's Who of Authors and Writersoffers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters
