Finite Perfection Reflections On Virtue:

Finite Perfection Michael A. Weinstein, 1985      Michael A. Weinstein Robert L. Oprisko, Diane

Rubenstein, 2014-12-05 This book is a major reassessment of Michael Weinstein's political philosophy. It situates his singular contribution, designated as critical vitalism, in the context of both canonical American and contemporary continental theory. Weinstein is presented as a philosopher of life and as an American Nietzsche. Yet the contributors also persuasively argue for this form of thinking as a prescient prophecy addressing contemporary society's concern over the management of life as well as the technological changes that both threaten and sustain intimacy. This is the first full-scale study of Weinstein's work, which reveals surprising aspects of a philosophic journey that has encompassed most of the major American pragmatic or vitalist or Continental phenomenological or existential traditions. Weinstein is read as a comparative political theorist, a precursor to post-structuralism, and as a post-colonial border theorist. A different aspect of his oeuvre is highlighted in each of the book's three sections. The opening essays, comprising the Action diptych, contrast meditative versus extrapolative approaches. Contemplation stages a series of encounters between Weinstein and his philosophic interlocutors. Vitalism presents Weinstein as a teacher, media analyst, musician, and performance artist. The book contains an epilogue written by Weinstein in response to the contributors.      Honor: A Phenomenology Robert L. Oprisko, 2012-07-26 Honor is misunderstood in the social sciences. The literature lacks both accuracy and precision in its conceptual development such that we no longer say what we mean because we have no idea what we're saying. We use many terms to mean honor and mean many different ideas when we refer to honor. Honor: A Phenomenology is designed to fix all of these problems. A groundbreaking examination of honor as a metaphenomenon, this book incorporates various structures of social control, including prestige, face, shame, and affiliated honor, and the rejection of said structures by dignified individuals and groups. It shows honor to be a concept that encompasses a number of processes that operate together in order to structure society. Honor is how we are inscribed with social value by others and the means by which we inscribe others with social honor. Because it is the means by which individuals fit in and function with society, the main divisions, internal within the psyche of the individual and external within the norms and institutions of society, honor is the glue that holds groups together and the wedge that forces them apart; it defines who is us and who them. It accounts for the continuity and change in socio-political systems.

Corporal Compassion Ralph R. Acampora, 2019-11-21 Most approaches to animal ethics ground the moral standing of nonhumans in some appeal to their capacities for intelligent autonomy or mental sentience. Corporal Compassion emphasizes the phenomenal and somatic commonality of living beings, a philosophy of body that seeks to displace any notion of anthropomorphic empathy in viewing the moral experiences of nonhuman living beings. Ralph R. Acampora employs phenomenology, hermeneutics, existentialism, and deconstruction to connect and contest analytic treatments of animal rights and liberation theory. In doing so, he focuses on issues of being and value and posits a felt nexus of bodily being termed symphysis to devise an interspecies ethos Acampora uses this broad based bioethic to engage in dialogue with other strains of environmental ethics and ecophilosophy Corporal Compassion examines the practical applications of the somatic ethos in contexts such as laboratory experimentation and zoological exhibition and challenges practitioners to move past recent reforms and look to a future beyond exploitation or total noninterference a posthumanist culture that advocates caring in a participatory approach Putting On Virtue Jennifer A. Herdt, 2012-05-09 This work reveals how a distrust of learned and habituated virtue shaped both early modern Christian moral reflection and secular forms of ethical thought The author's broad historical sweep takes in the Aristotelian tradition as taken up by Thomas Aquinas and has chapters on Luther Bunyan the Jansenists Hume and others Becoming Mature Valerie Bentz, 2024-11-15 Presents an integrated theory of development and maturation focusing on the influence of childhood experience on adult women The book draws on the theories of Mead Habermas and Schutz and on narratives and group discussions to analyze case studies Primo Levi and the Politics of Survival Frederic D. Homer, 2001 At the age of twenty five Primo Levi was sent to Hell Levi an Italian chemist from Turin was one of many swept up in the Holocaust of World War II and sent to die in the German concentration camp in Auschwitz Of the 650 people transported to the camp in his group only 15 men and 9 women survived After Soviet liberation of the camp in 1945 Levi wrote books essays short stories poetry and a novel in which he painstakingly described the horrors of his experience at Auschwitz He also spent the rest of his life struggling with the fact that he was not among those who were killed In Primo Levi and the Politics of Survival Frederic D Homer looks at Primo Levi's life but more important shows him to be a significant political philosopher In the course of his writings Levi asked and answered his most haunting question can someone be brutalized by a terrifying experience and upon return to ordinary life recover from the physical and moral destruction he has suffered Levi used this question to develop a philosophy positing that although man is no match for life he can become better prepared to contend with the tragedies in life According to Levi the horrors of the world occur because of the strength of human tendencies which make relationships between human beings exceedingly fragile He believed that we are ill constituted beings who have tendencies toward violence and domination dividing ourselves into Us and Them with very shallow loyalties He also maintained that our only refuge is in education and responsibility which may counter these tendencies Homer calls Levi's philosophy optimistic pessimism As Homer demonstrates Levi took his past experiences into account to determine that goodwill and democratic institutions do not come easily to people Liberal society is to be earned through discipline and responsibility toward our weaknesses Levi's answer is civilized liberalism To achieve this we must counter some of our most stubborn tendencies Homer also explores the impact of Levi's death an apparent suicide on the way in which his work and theories have been perceived While several critics discount Levi's work because of the nature of his death Homer argues that his death is consistent with his philosophy A book rich in brutally honest philosophy Primo Levi and the Politics of Survival compels one to look at serious questions about life tragedy optimism
