The Fire Screen James Merrill, 1969 This Composite Voice Mark A. Bauer, 2004-06 First Published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Sincerity's Shadow Deborah FORBES, Deborah Forbes, 2009-06-30

In a work of surprising range and authority Deborah Forbes refocuses critical discussion of both Romantic and modern poetry Sincerity's Shadow is a versatile conceptual toolkit for reading poetry Ever since Wordsworth redefined poetry as the spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings poets in English have sought to represent a sincere self consciousness through their work Forbes's generative insight is that this project can only succeed by staging its own failures Self representation never achieves final sincerity but rather produces an array of sincerity effects that give form to poetry's exploration of self In essays comparing poets as seemingly different in context and temperament as Wordsworth and Adrienne Rich Lord Byron and Anne Sexton John Keats and Elizabeth Bishop Forbes reveals unexpected convergences of poetic strategy A lively and convincing dialectic is sustained through detailed readings of individual poems By preserving the possible claims of sincerity longer than postmodern criticism has tended to while understanding sincerity in the strictest sense possible Forbes establishes a new vantage on the purposes of poetry Table of Contents Introduction 1 The Personal Universal Sincerity as Integrity in the Poetry of Wordsworth and Rich 2 Before and After Sincerity as Form in the Poetry of Wordsworth Lowell Rich and Plath 3 Sincerity and the Staged Confession The Monologues of Browning Eliot Berryman and Plath 4 The Drama of Breakdown and the Breakdown of Drama The Charismatic Poetry of Byron and Sexton 5 Agnostic Sincerity The Poet as Observer in the Work of Keats Bishop and Merrill Conclusion Notes Index From the Conclusion In spite of modern experiments in communal authorship writing poetry remains one of the most individual of acts and yet because it provides the ground upon which the paradoxes of self consciousness can move most freely one of the acts most skeptical about the authority of any individual claim to self understanding In undertaking its experiments poetry may separate itself from certain contexts economic political historical but is itself as local and concrete as these contexts an experience as well as a meditation on our experiences In its particularity its flexibility its sensual and sonic complexity its consideration of the extra rational experiences of pleasure and desire and above all in the ways in which it speaks with both more and less authority more and less presence than an actual human voice poetry offers us the experience of the unknown at the core of proposed self knowledge This is lyric poetry's enduring though not sole claim on us Articulate Flesh Gregory Woods, 1987-01-01 Discusses the themes of the male body war and homosexual love in poetry and analyzes the poetry of D H Lawrence Hart Crane W H Auden Allen Ginsberg and Thom Gunn Selected Poems of James Merrill James Merrill, 2008-10-28 This volume brings together the best of Merrill and dazzles at every turn This balanced and compact selection will be an ideal introduction to his work for both students and general readers and an instant favorite among his familiars James Merrill himself once called his body of work chronicles of love and loss and in twenty books written over four decades he used the details of his own life comic and haunting exotic and domestic to shape a portrait that in turn mirrored the image of our world and our moment Includes poems from the domestic rupture of The Broken Home to the universal connections of Lost in Translation from the American storyteller of The Summer People to the ecologically motivated satirist of Self Portrait in a Tyvek™ Windbreaker Log Then when the flame forked like a sudden path I gasped and stumbled and was less Density pulsing upward gauze of ash Dear light along the way to nothingness What could be made of you but light and this

James Merrill Langdon Hammer,2015-04-14 Langdon Hammer has given us the first biography of the poet James Merrill 1926 95 whose life is surely one of the most fascinating in American literature Merrill was born to high privilege and high expectations as the son of Charles Merrill the charismatic cofounder of the brokerage firm Merrill Lynch and Hellen Ingram a muse ally and antagonist throughout her son s life Wounded by his parents bitter divorce he was the child of a broken home looking for repair in poetry and love This is the story of a young man escaping yet also reenacting the energies and obsessions of those powerful parents It is the story of a gay man inventing his identity against the grain of American society during the eras of the closet gay liberation and AIDS Above all it is the story of a brilliantly gifted fiercely dedicated poet working every day to turn his life into art After college at Amherst and a period of adventure in Europe Merrill returned to the New York art world of the 1950s he was friendly with W H Auden Maya Deren Truman Capote Larry Rivers Elizabeth Bishop and other midcentury luminaries and began publishing poems plays and novels In 1953 he fell in love with an aspiring writer David Jackson They explored boys and bars as they made their life together in Connecticut and later in Greece and Key West At the same time improbably they carried on a forty year conversation with spirits of the Other World by means of a Ouija board The board became a source of poetic inspiration for Merrill culminating in his prizewinning uncanny one of a kind work The Changing Light at Sandover In his virtuosic poetry and in the candid letters and diaries that enrich every page of this deliciously readable life Merrill created a prismatic art of multiple perspectives and comic self knowledge expressing hope for a world threatened by nuclear war and environmental catastrophe Holding this life and art together in a complex evolving whole Hammer illuminates Merrill s chronicles of love loss and the poignant personal journey they record

What Is It Then between Us? Eric Murphy Selinger,2018-10-18 Tracing the solitude of the American self the difference between idolatrous and companionate affection and the dream of an America of love Eric Murphy Selinger shows how such concerns can shape a poet s most intimate decisions about genre and form His lucid elegant prose illuminates not only well known love poets including Emily Dickinson and William Carlos Williams but also more unexpected figures notably Wallace Stevens and Mina Loy Like the poets he discusses Selinger refuses to view love reductively Rather he takes the impulse to debunk love as part of his subject whether it crops up in Puritan theology or contemporary literary theory As he details Whitman s courtship of his readers weighs the restorations of romance in H D and

Ezra Pound and demonstrates the bonds between poets as disparate as Robert Creeley and Robert Lowell Selinger establishes love poetry as an essential American genre The Consuming Myth Stephen Yenser, 1987 Yenser ranges over all of Merrill's writing to date from a precocious book printed when its author was fifteen to his most recent publication a verse play He writes about both of the poet's novels and pays particular attention to the epic poem The Changing Light at Sandover
