Finding Our Feet Understanding Crosscultural Discourse:

Finding Our Feet Mary Isabelle Bresnahan, 1991 For Westerners and Americans in particular Philippine culture is deceptively familiar Vestiges of Spanish and American colonial culture as well as contemporary American media have created resonances for identifying American culture in Philippine culture This book guides the reader in re examining these assumptions of sameness By taking an unfamiliar text of a noted writer of Tagalog fiction this study restores the sense of wonder in experiencing Tagalog culture on its own terms rather than by tastes dictated from the outside The book also examines the broader Tagalog traditions in which the writer Amado Hernandez wrote Amerasia Journal, 1991

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1997-12 Metaphors for Learning Erich A. Berendt, 2008-03-13 In Contemporary Metaphor Theory CMT research has predominantly focused on the English language with few studies of others and even less systematic comparative work This volume focuses on the discourse domain of LEARNING formal technical and informal aspects and brings together a variety of language perspectives some specifically comparative on aspects of learning from historical transformations in metaphoric language use through contemporary social values and classroom discourse to planning for the future in educational policy to see how conceptual metaphoric patterns and conventional metaphors with related figurative language impact on social values and culturally conditioned perspectives in learning Most papers reflect Lakoffian conceptual metaphoric research including critical evaluation of analytical issues Languages included are Arabic Chinese English Hungarian Japanese Malay Polish Russian and the South African language area Most papers utilize extensive data including such genre as technical writing essays conversational interaction newspaper corpus and proverbs

Interlanguage Pragmatics Gabriele Kasper, 1993 The book is divided into three sections each prefaced by an introduction by the editors that provides relevant theoretical and methodological background The first section concerns cognitive approaches to interlanguage pragmatic development The second addresses interlanguage speech act realization of a variety of speech acts The final section is devoted to discursual perspectives on interlanguage Subject Guide to

Psychology Catherine A. Sanderson,2009-12-02 Catherine Sanderson s Social Psychology will help open students minds to a world beyond their own experience so that they will better understand themselves and others Sanderson s uniquely powerful program of learning resources was built to support you in moving students from passive observers to active course participants Go further in applying social psychology to everyday life Sanderson includes application boxes on law media environment business health and education in every chapter right as the relevant material is introduced rather than at the end of the book This allows students to make an immediate connection between the concept and the relevant application and provides a streamlined 15 chapter organization that helps you cover more of the material in a term      Cultural Studies

Lawrence Grossberg,Janice Radway,2005-06-28 Cultural Studies explores popular culture in a uniquely exciting and innovative way Encouraging experimentation intervention and dialogue Cultural Studies is both politically and theoretically rewarding      Spatial Politics in the Postcolonial Novel Sara Upstone,2016-04-01 In her innovative study of spatial locations in postcolonial texts Sara Upstone adopts a transnational and comparative approach that challenges the tendency to engage with authors in isolation or in relation to other writers from a single geographical setting Suggesting that isolating authors in terms of geography reinforces the primacy of the nation Upstone instead illuminates the power of spatial locales such as the journey city home and body to enable personal or communal statements of resistance against colonial prejudice and its neo colonial legacies While focusing on the major texts of Wilson Harris Toni Morrison and Salman Rushdie in relation to particular spatial locations Upstone offers a wide range of examples from other postcolonial authors including Michael Ondaatje Keri Hulme J M Coetzee Arundhati Roy Tsitsi Dangarembga and Abdulrazak Gurnah The result is a strong case for what Upstone terms the postcolonial spatial imagination independent of geography though always fully contextualised Written in accessible and unhurried prose Upstone s study is marked by its respect for the ways in which the writers themselves resist not only geographical boundaries but academic categorisation Educational Administration Robert Palestini,2011-10-16 Newly appointed school administrators are often confused when faced with the prospect of having to assume a leadership role in a complex organization like a school or school system Where does one start An effective method would be to systematically examine the vital components that make up an organization A system of organizational diagnosis and prescription will lead to a comprehensive and integrated analysis of the organization s strengths and weaknesses and point the way toward possible improvement The new edition of Educational Administration Leading with Mind and Heart suggests such a sequential and systematic approach Utilizing it effectively can produce dramatic results
