Finding The Lost:

Finding Lost Nancy Lafleur, 2017-09-27 Finding Lost is a powerful story of one Indigenous woman's lifelong struggle to find who she is. She shares a story of childhood trauma, a story that is still only too common for many Indigenous women today. Walk into Nancy's life and share in her journey as she braids her childhood memories in the lives of five women struggling to survive. Meet the kind of women Nancy thinks she could have become had she not turned life in her favour. Meet Anna, a homeless woman who reveals Nancy's past. Through Anna's memories, glimpse the terrifying times Nancy witnessed beatings of her beloved grandmother by her alcoholic grandfather. Meet Wendy and learn how a child's Christmas came to a devastating end because of alcohol abuse. Share in Nancy's healing journey as she picks up the traumatic pieces of her life and finds the spiritual healing and strength to move forward. Be inspired by how she draws on the strength of the many women she has seen as role models from her small community.

Finding Lost: Childhoods Suellen Murray, 2017-08-01 This book explores care leavers' access to their personal records. People who grew up in care in previous decades may know little about their family nor understand why they were placed in care nor how decisions were made about their lives. Personal records can be a source of this information. Murray posits that it is crucial that those releasing these records understand their significance. Taking a person-centred approach, the book is based on the moving life history accounts of people who have sought their records. Finding Lost: Childhoods highlights the importance of records to their identity formation, recounts what they discovered about themselves and their family, and discusses the consequences of finding this information. With a focus on policy and practice implications, the book will be of particular interest to those engaged in the work of releasing records as well as care leavers themselves, professional bodies, and students and scholars with an interest in social work, policy studies, welfare studies, and youth work.

Finding Lost Words G. Geoffrey Harper, Kit Barker, 2017-03-31 The brokenness of this world inevitably invades our lives. But how do you maintain faith when overwhelmed by grief? When prayer goes unanswered? When all you have are questions, not answers? What do you say to God when you know he is in control but the suffering continues unabated? Is there any alternative to remaining speechless in the midst of pain and heartbreak? This book is about finding words to use when life is hard. These words are not new. They are modes of expression that the church has drawn on in times of grief throughout most of its history. Yet the church in the West has largely abandoned these words, the psalms of lament. The result is that believers often struggle to know what to do or say when faced with distress, anxiety, and loss. Whether you are in Christian leadership training for ministry or simply struggling to reconcile experience with biblical convictions, Finding Lost Words will help you consider how these ancient words can become your own.
