Fly Navy Charles Manning, 2000-03-07 This book tells the full story of flight from sea discussing the dangers that naturally come with this seemingly unnatural mode of airbase including the unfortunate losses of over 900 men during this period It covers the development of new technology of the period and how changes in other areas such as the cold war and rise of nuclear power meant that much of the abilities had to be changed and developed

Aircraft Carriers Norman Polmar, 2008-01-01 In the post 1945 era the aircraft carrier has remained a valued weapon despite the development of nuclear weapons cruise and ballistic missiles and highly capable submarines At times as in the early days of the Korean and Vietnam Wars and in the Falklands conflict carriers alone could deploy high performance aircraft to the battlefield In other operations such as enforcing the no fly zones and the U S invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq only carriers could provide the bases needed for sustained combat and support operations This second volume of Norman Polmar's landmark study details the role of carriers in the unification of the U S armed forces and strategic deterrence fiscally constrained Great Britain the development of British Commonwealth and ex colonial navies and the efforts of France and the Netherlands to rebuild their fleets The role of the modern carrier nine nations currently possess them is discussed as are the issues confronting nations that might acquire them Chapters on the Soviet Union's effort to produce carriers are included for the first time The development of both carrier planes and the many oddball aircraft that have flown from carriers such as the U 2 spy plane are also examined Appendixes include comprehensive data on all carriers built and converted through 2006 This volume is a valuable companion to the critically acclaimed Volume I which covers aircraft carrier development and operations from 1909 to 1945

Story Land Aaron McCuddy, 2011 Coalition Air Warfare in the Korean War, 1950-1953 Air Force Historical Foundation. Symposium, 2005 In commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Korean War the official history offices of the U S Army Navy Marine Corps and Air Force and their respective historical associations collaborated to sponsor as comprehensive a symposium as possible including as participants some of the coalition partners who contributed forces and weapons to the war The intent of this symposium titled Coalition Air Warfare during the Korean War 1950-1953 was to focus not only on the contributions made by the armed forces of the United States but also on those of America's allies The diverse group of panelists and speakers included not only scholars with subject matter expertise but also veteran soldiers sailors and airmen who had served in that conflict It was hoped that the melding of these diverse perspectives would provide interesting if sometimes conflicting views about the Korean War The symposium organizers designated an agenda of six specific panels for investigation including Planning and Operations Air Superiority Air

Support of Ground Forces Air Interdiction and Bombardment Air Reconnaissance and Intelligence and Logistical Support of Air Operations Each session began with commentary by the panel chairman which was followed by formal papers and in some instances included a lively question and answer session The papers and most of the proceedings found their way into print and are recorded here in an effort to permanently capture the activities challenges contributions and heroics of the coalition air forces and the airmen who fought during the Korean conflict St. Nicholas Mary Mapes Dodge, 1921
