The Beaver Hills Country Graham MacDonald, 2009 This book explores a relatively small but interesting and anomalous region of Alberta between the North Saskatchewan and the Battle Rivers Ecological themes such as climatic cycles ground water availability vegetation succession and the response of wildlife and the impact of fires shape the possibilities and provide the challenges to those who have called the region home or used its varied resources Indians Metis and European immigrants

Cheated Bill Waiser, Jennie Hansen, 2023-10-03 Canadians and politicians have a common responsibility to learn from the mistakes inherited from a colonialist legacy and to not repeat the wrongs corruption and injustices our people suffered in the hands of government officials politicians and their oppressive laws Reading and learning from Cheated would be a good place to start reconciliation and reparation Ovide Mercredi former National Chief of the Assembly of First Nations The story of how Laurier Liberals took hold of the Department of Indian Affairs in 1896 and transformed it into a machine for expropriating Indigenous land You won't find the Ocean Man and Pheasant Rump reserves on a map of southeastern Saskatchewan In 1901 the two Nakoda bands reluctantly surrendered the 70 square miles granted to them under treaty It's just one of more than two dozen surrenders aggressively pursued by the Laurier Liberal government over a fifteen year period One in five acres was taken from First Nations This confiscation was justified on the grounds that prairie bands had too much land and that it would be better used by white settlers In reality the surrendered land was largely scooped up by Liberal speculators including three senior civil servants and a Liberal cabinet minister and flipped for a tidy profit None were held to account Cheated is a gripping story of single minded politicians uncompromising Indian Affairs officials grasping government appointees and well connected Liberal speculators set against a backdrop of politics power patronage and profit The Laurier government's settlement of western Canada can never be looked at the same way again

Sources and Methods in Indigenous Studies Chris Andersen, Jean M. O'Brien, 2016-12-19 Sources and Methods in Indigenous Studies is a synthesis of changes and innovations in methodologies in Indigenous Studies focusing on sources over a broad chronological and geographical range Written by a group of highly respected Indigenous Studies scholars from across an array of disciplines this collection offers insight into the methodological approaches contributors take to research and how these methods have developed in recent years The book has a two part structure that looks firstly at the theoretical and disciplinary movement of Indigenous Studies within history literature anthropology and the social sciences Chapters in this section reveal that while engaging with other disciplines Indigenous Studies has forged its own intellectual path by borrowing and innovating from other fields In part two the book examines the many different areas with which sources for indigenous history have been engaged including the importance of family gender feminism and sexuality as well as various elements of expressive culture such as material culture literature and museums Together the chapters offer readers an overview of the dynamic state of the field in Indigenous Studies This book shines a spotlight on the ways in which scholarship is transforming Indigenous Studies in methodologically innovative and exciting ways and will be essential reading for students and scholars in the field
