"" ""Brathwaite,2000 Educating African Canadians ,1996 Annotation This book offers a critical assessment of the experiences of African Canadian students exploring strategies that will serve to enhance their academic success Writing from their respective locations as students parents teachers counsellors professors and researchers the contributors to this collection alert readers to many of the challenges that African Canadians face in the educational system They discuss new initiatives and suggest new directions that might improve the academic success of Black students Educating African Canadians offers practical suggestions that can enhance the education not only of African Canadian students but of all students An Our Schools Our Selves book Education of African Canadian Children Awad Ibrahim,Ali A. Abdi,2016-11-01 Hundreds of thousands of African Canadian children demand and deserve quality education that promotes success both within and outside of school Recognizing that the education these young people receive will shape their lives as citizens the contributors to this volume provide an important timely analysis of the educational experiences of African Canadian children and youth With contributions from leading and emerging scholars The Education of African Canadian Children critically responds to and comments on the historical cultural institutional and informational contexts and problems of the learning lives of these children The authors offer a comprehensive history of African Canadians encounters with the education system the current challenges they are facing and opportunities for more inclusive and democratic educational practices that will better serve this population Advocating for cultural redemption and learning success for a population that is not being served well by Canadian public education systems this book will benefit teachers students government program managers policy makers and educational researchers The first multi authored work of its kind The Education of African Canadian Children opens new debates and possibilities for change for those concerned with education in their communities and their country New Perspectives on African-Centred Education in Canada George Jerry Sefa Dei,Arlo Kempf,2013 New Perspectives on African Centred Education in Canada is the first study of African centred schooling in the Canadian context Starting with an in depth look at the creation of an Africentric public school within the Toronto District School Board it tells the story of the movement behind that school s creation and lays bare a rich history of activism organization and resistance on the part of numerous African Canadian communities and their allies

The book presents a critical overview of the issues facing racialized students and offers a unique vision of African centred education as a strategy for student engagement and social transformation. The authors, well known public commentators on African centred education in Canada, offer a comprehensive analysis of the media controversy surrounding African centred schools as well as candid reflections on the personal challenges of fighting a largely unpopular battle. Who's who in Black Canada Dawn P. Williams, 2002. Profiling individuals from business, politics, the arts, religion and other sectors, this work contains biographical information on some 705 living African Canadians who are either pioneers or trailblazers: those occupying senior positions, those making a difference in their communities, those being innovative and creating a niche for themselves or others. Entries provide narrative summaries of the individuals' accomplishments as well as contact information and lists of honors, publications and role models. Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc, Portland, OR, booknews.com. The African Diaspora in Canada Wisdom Tettey, Korbala P. Puplampu, 2005. This book addresses the conceptual difficulties and political contestations surrounding the applicability of the term African Canadian. In the midst of this contested terrain, the volume focuses on first generation Black Continental Africans who have immigrated to Canada in the last four decades and have traceable genealogical links to the continent. African Canadian Leadership Erica S. Lawson, Philip S.S. Howard, 2019-08-25. Challenging the myth of African Canadian leadership in crisis, this book opens a broad vista of inquiry into the many and dynamic ways leadership practices occur in Black Canadian communities. Exploring topics including Black women's contributions to African Canadian communities, the Black Lives Matter movement, Black LGBTQ HIV/AIDS advocacy, motherhood and grieving, mentoring and anti-racism, contributors appraise the complex history and contemporary reality of blackness and leadership in Canada. With Canada as a complex site of Black diasporas, contributors offer an account of multiple forms of leadership and suggest that through surveillance and disruption, practices of self-determined Black leadership are incompatible with and threatening to White structures of power in Canada. As a whole, African Canadian Leadership offers perspectives that are complex, non-aligned and in critical conversation about class, gender, sexuality and the politics of African Canadian communities. International Handbook of Educational Policy Nina Bascia, Alister Cumming, Amanda Datnow, Kenneth Leithwood, David Livingstone, 2008-05-14. Nina Bascia, Alister Cumming, Amanda Datnow, Kenneth Leithwood and David Livingstone. This Handbook presents contemporary and emergent trends in educational policy research in over fifty chapters written by nearly ninety leading researchers from a number of countries. It is organized into five broad sections which capture many of the current dominant educational policy foci and at the same time situate current understandings historically in terms of both how they are conceptualized and in terms of past policy practice. The chapters themselves are empirically grounded, providing illustrations of the conceptual implications contained within them as well as allowing for comparisons across them. The serendipity within chapters with respect to jurisdictional particularities and contrasts allows readers to consider not only a range of approaches to policy analysis but also the ways in which policies and policy ideas play out in different times and places. The sections move from a focus on prevailing policy tendencies through increasingly critical and outsider perspectives on policy. They address in turn the contemporary strategic emphasis on large scale reform, substantive emphases at several levels on leadership and governance, improving teacher quality and conceptualizing learning in various domains around the notion of literacies and concluding finally with a contrasting topic workplace learning which has had less policy attention and thus allows readers to consider both the advantages and disadvantages of learning and teaching under the bright gaze of policy.

Cultural Education - Cultural Sustainability Zvi Bekerman, Ezra Kopelowitz, 2008-02-06 This volume is a path breaking contribution to the study of efforts of diaspora indigenous and minority groups broadly defined to use education formal and informal to sustain cultural continuity while grappling with the influences and demands of wider globalizing, nationalizing or other homogenizing and assimilatory forces. Particular attention is given to groups that use educational elements other than second language teaching alone in programs to sustain their particular cultural traditions. The focus of the book on cultural sustainability changes the nature of questions posed in multicultural education from those that address the opening of boundaries to issues of preserving boundaries in an open yet sustainable way. As forced and elective immigration trends are changing the composition of societies and the educational systems within them, bringing a rich diversity of cultural experience to the teaching learning process, diaspora indigenous and minority groups are looking more and more for ways to sustain their cultures in the context of wider socio political influences. This volume is a first opportunity to consider critically multicultural efforts in dialogue with educational options that are culturally particularistic but at the same time tolerant. Academics will find this an excellent reference book. Practitioners will draw inspiration in learning of others efforts to sustain cultures and will engage in critical reflection on their own work vis vis that of others. Teachers will realize they do not stand alone in their educational efforts and will uncover new strategies and methodologies through which to approach their work.

How Black and Working Class Children Are Deprived of Basic Education in Canada Bairu Sium, 2014-04-03 This book is the culmination of twenty four years of research. It explores the thematic intersections of race, class, immigration and the potential of building student centered classrooms. Of course the building of a truly student centered is itself a slow and contested process. Over the years progressive changes towards more inclusive education made by some governments were dismantled by others and have left disadvantaged children where they were before the study was launched. In the meantime the system has perfected the process of streaming minority children to dead end courses that betray the social and economic mobility advertised to them. This book examines the moments and positions of educational betrayal in which racialized and working class students disproportionately find themselves. For many at that point the only option is to drop out of school and engage in the drug trade or other lifestyles that put them at further risk. This is a longitudinal study of a kind with respect to reform and changes retained in education. It started with eight months observation of a split level grade five and six classroom in September 1986.

That was instrumental in identifying the uphill battle that black working class and new immigrant children and their parents were facing to secure the education they deserved Through continued reviews observation and follow up interviews change or lack of it was traced The results call for urgent overhaul of the way education is provided to all children The book ends with suggestions to effect change

Unite or Perish Mammo Muchie,Vusi Gumede,2015-03-26 This book is an outcome of the third conference in the successful Scramble for Africa International Conference series now renamed the African Unity for Renaissance International Conference The book provides an overview and contains profound analyses of the important issues pertaining to African Unity and African Renaissance The book is accessible to a wide variety of readers ranging from policy makers to researchers from teachers to students and for anyone concerned with the further development of the African continent and Africa s renewal The book outlines the various issues that animate Africa s stand in the global political socio economic cultural and technological arenas The chapters gathered in the book critically examine and evaluate the burning questions and challenges with which Africa is grappling This book is one of the vital texts for understanding how Africa will manage to navigate the tumultuous waters of globalisation as Africa has just recently emerged out of the horrors of slavery colonialism apartheid neo colonialism and genocide and is still wrestling with unceasing conflicts popular unrest neo imperialism coloniality and mushrooming insurgency The chapters provide a much needed insight into the issue of whether Africa has achieved genuine and meaningful independence after 50 years of the founding of the OAU and whether the baby steps Africa has taken towards unity are worth celebrating The contributors highlight these and allied issues with a view to capture more public attention in order to stimulate debate and usher in a new phase in the quest for African Unity and Renaissance The contributors are distinguished authors and established and emerging scholars in their own domains While a majority of the contributors are from the continent distinguished scholars from around the globe have joined their African fellows in dealing with the relevant issues regarding Africa s place in an ever changing world

Encyclopedia of Diversity in Education James A. Banks,2012-05-17 The diversity education literature both nationally and internationally is broad and diffuse Consequently there needs to be a systematic and logical way to organize and present the state of research for students and professionals American citizens need to understand the dynamics of their increasingly diverse communities and institutions and the global world in which we live work and lead With continually evolving information on diversity policies practices and programs it is important to have one place where students scholars teachers and policymakers can examine and explore research policy and practice issues and find answers to important questions about how diversity in U S education enriched with theories research and practices in other nations are explained and communicated and how they affect institutional change at both the K 12 and postsecondary levels With about 700 signed entries with cross references and recommended readings the Encyclopedia of Diversity in Education 4 volumes in both print and electronic formats will present research and statistics case studies and best practices policies and programs at pre and postsecondary levels

Diversity is a worldwide phenomenon and while most of the entries in the Encyclopedia will focus on the United States diversity issues and developments in nations around the world including the United States are intricately connected. Consequently to illuminate the many aspects of diversity this volume will contain entries from different nations in the world in order to illuminate the myriad aspects of diversity. From A to Z this Encyclopedia will cover the full spectrum of diversity issues including race class gender religion language exceptionality and the global dimensions of diversity as they relate to education. This four volume reference work will be the definitive reference for diversity issues in education in the United States and the world.

Politics of Anti-Racism Education: In Search of Strategies for Transformative Learning George J. Sefa Dei, Mairi McDermott, 2013-12-02 This collection of essays invites readers to think through critical questions concerning anti racism education such as How does anti racism education centre race as an analytic and simultaneously work with multiple sites of oppression without reifying hierarchies of difference How can anti racism education be engaged to speak to historical questions of power and privilege within conventional schooling practices How do we recognize anti racism education in its many iterations In this book the authors explore the knowledge that constitutes anti racism education and the ways in which knowledge constitutive of anti racism education becomes embodied through particular pedagogues The authors are anti racism educators with experiences in diverse settings the chapters cover various fields and socio historic geographies address contemporary educational issues and are situated within personal political historical and philosophical conversations Anti racism education is a discursive stance and steeped in politics that shape and are shaped by everyday conversations theories and practices The essays in this collection work through many of the possibilities and limitations of engaging in counter hegemonic education for transformative learning Readers will discover lived experiences theory practice and critical reflexivity

Global Constructions of Multicultural Education Carl A. Grant, Joy L. Lei, 2001-06 This book tells us how various global regions are dealing with three major concerns within the field of multicultural education the conceptualization and realization of difference and diversity the inclusion and exclusion of social groups within a definition of multicultural education and the effects of power on relations between and among groups identified under the multicultural education umbrella All of the chapter authors pay attention to these themes but at the same time they bring their particular interests and perspectives to the book addressing issues such as linguistic racial ethnic and religious diversity class educational inequalities teacher education conceptualizations of citizenship and questions of identity construction In addition the authors offer both historical and social contexts for their analytical discussion of the ideals and practices of multicultural education in a particular region This is not a book that tells us about multicultural education with an international twist it provides readers with different ways to think talk and do research about issues of diversity difference and the effects of power as they relate to education

Handbook for Working with Children and Youth Michael Ungar, 2005-05-11 To study resilience one should adopt a fundamental humility about oneself and one's culture and society and simultaneously a respect for the human strength of others The chapters in this book take these three cautions seriously and offer a convincing demonstration that resilience is indeed a many splendored thing James Garbarino Cornell University The Handbook For Working With Children and Youth Pathways To Resilience Across Cultures and Contexts examines lives lived well despite adversity Calling upon some of the most progressive thinkers in the field it presents a groundbreaking collection of original writing on the theories methods of study and interventions that promote resilience Unlike other works that have left largely unquestioned their own culture bound interpretations of the ways children and youth survive and thrive this volume explores the multiple paths children follow to health and well being in diverse national and international settings It demonstrates the connection between social and political health resources and addresses the more immediate concerns of how those who care for children create the physical emotional and spiritual environments in which resilience is nurtured Key Features Cross cultural Illustrates the rich variety of culturally embedded pathways by which children navigate toward health and well being Multidisciplinary Draws upon international experts utilizing both quantitative and qualitative studies from psychology social work psychiatry nursing education criminology child and youth care community health and family therapy Comprehensive Provides broad developmental perspectives on resilience from theory and research methods to interventions with individuals families and communities Connects theory to practice Clarifies the construct of resilience from the viewpoint of resilience researchers and practitioners in health related disciplines from different methodological paradigms within the social sciences and human services Academics graduate students and professionals studying or working in human service fields such as human development and family studies education social work child and youth care work developmental psychology applied developmental science child psychiatry nursing and family therapy will benefit from this Handbook In essence anyone who works with youth or is interested in the developmental issues related to children and youth in clinical residential or community settings will find Ungar s Handbook to be of great value Fanon and the Counterinsurgency of Education ,2010-01-01 Fanon and the Counterinsurgency of Education takes up the challenge of an anti colonial reading of Fanon to broach questions of identity difference and belonging and the implications for schooling and education The authors deliberately offer a careful and selective capturing of Fanon s works pointing to the relevance for oppressed communities as they resist re organized colonial relations in schooling and education While colonialism and neo colonialism have functioned and continue to function differently in diverse environments and social contexts contributions in the book enthuse that we must raise new questions in a bold attempt to re theorize colonial relations social difference and the representational politics of education Educators must ask new questions in order to contribute to knowledge of how to resist the entrapments of colonialism racism exploitation and alienation Frantz Fanon s oeuvre is informative to the pursuit of critical education especially when we examine the colonial encounter and the colonized experience The book offers concrete lessons in the struggle to revise education to meet the needs of diverse communities Black Girlhood and Identity in Canadian

Elementary Schools Natasha Burford, 2024-11-15 This volume uses interviews and narratives data from self identified Black women reflecting on their childhood in the Canadian public school system to explore voice and agency girlhood and identity in Canada s elementary schools Exploring themes of race gender identity friendship dreams authority and success the author showcases diversity in Black Canadian feminism and gives voice and agency to Black female stories that have traditionally been absent amongst the literary canon of education An intimate and compelling scholarly exploration it contributes to conversations around transforming the Black girl narrative in public education and will appeal to researchers faculty and post graduate students with interests in race and ethnicity in education gender studies and multicultural education

Nuances of Blackness in the Canadian Academy Awad Ibrahim, Tamari Kitossa, Malinda S. Smith, Handel Kashope Wright, 2022-02-02 The essays in Nuances of Blackness in the Canadian Academy make visible the submerged stories of Black life in academia They offer fresh historical social and cultural insights into what it means to teach learn research and work while Black In daring to shift from margin to centre the book s contributors confront two overlapping themes First they resist a singular construction of Blackness that masks the nuances and multiplicity of what it means to be and experience the academy as Black people Second they challenge the stubborn durability of anti Black tropes the dehumanization of Blackness persistent deficit ideologies and the tyranny of low expectations that permeate the dominant idea of Blackness in the white colonial imagination Operating at the intersections of discourse and experience contributors reflect on how Blackness shapes academic pathways ignites complicated and often difficult conversations and reimagines Black pasts presents and futures This unique collection contributes to the articulation of more nuanced understandings of the ways in which Blackness is made unmade and remade in the academy and the implications for interrelated dynamics across and within post secondary education Black communities in Canada and global Black diasporas

Weaving Connections David Selby, Tara Goldstein, 2000 Education plays a vitally important role in building foundations for social progress This remarkable collection describes educational models based on the principles of tolerance equity and justice developed over the past three decades by teachers parents activists and students In a time of crippling cutbacks and educational reforms designed to promote business over education this book is critical reading Contributors from across Canada discuss the initiatives behind their approaches how they developed curricula and the future of their educational work Weaving Connections is a call to action by progressive educators inviting us to cherish educational models that teach us how to live in harmony respect and balance with one another
