Education As My Agenda:

Education As My Agenda J. Robinson, 2005 Education As My Agenda J. Robinson, 2005-10-14 When Gertrude Williams retired in 1998 after forty nine years in the Baltimore public schools The Baltimore Sun called her the most powerful of principals who tangled with two superintendents and beat them both In this oral memoir Williams identifies the essential elements of sound education and describes the battles she waged to secure those elements first as teacher then a counselor and for twenty five years as principal She also described her own education growing up black in largely white Germantown Pennsylvania studying black history and culture for the first time at Cheyney State Teachers College and meeting the rigorous demands of the program which she graduated from in 1949 In retracing her career Williams examines the highs and lows of urban public education since World War II She is at once an outspoken critic and spirited advocate of the system to which she devoted her life

Power Dynamics in Education Chetan Sinha, 2023-03-24 The educational domain provides a platform for social mobility and social change This book investigates the new National Educational Policy NEP to understand how it can bring social justice and transform education in a meaningful way to match the imagination of students from diverse groups The author discusses matters of emotion and authority in education and argues for the need for educational psychology which takes into account the self conscious emotions of students and teachers The book reflects on important topics such as critical pedagogy dehumanization power in education through bricolage and legitimacy in education all within the context of critical educational psychology Through research and observations it discusses the socialpsychological aspect of stereotyping othering and prejudices in the educational domain The book will be of interest to students teachers and researchers working on education school education sociology of education and educational psychology It will also be useful for academicians educators policymakers schoolteachers and those interested in the politics of education

Education and Neoliberal Globalization Carlos Alberto Torres, 2008-11-19 This volume by noted critical education scholar Carlos Alberto Torres takes up the question of how structural changes in schooling and the growing impacts of neoliberalism and globalization affect social change national development and democratic educational systems throughout the world The first section of the book offers analytical avenues to understand and criticize the practices and policies of neoliberal states both domestically and internationally More than a mere lament of the state of educational policy however Torres also documents the critiques and alternatives developed by social movements against neoliberal governments and policies Ultimately his work urges readers to engage in the struggle to resist the oppressive forces of neoliberal globalization and proactively and deliberately act in informed ways to create a better world

Political Agendas for Education Joel Spring, 2017-07-14 Following the epic contentious 2016 presidential election Joel Spring s ongoing documentation and analysis of political agendas for education reflect the major political issues since 2012 Here he examines the 2016 education planks of the Republican Democratic Libertarian and Green Parties using their official platforms and other statements speeches given by each candidate and media reports and publications Each party's position is linked to previous political movements in education Spring offers an alternative agenda for American schools including a proposed education amendment to the U S Constitution and replacing human capital agendas with goals emphasizing education for a long life and happiness Taking a fresh look at the social and political forces educational research and ideologies shaping their educational agendas and a comparative approach the book stimulates reflection and discussion Updates and changes in the Sixth Edition Betsy DeVos's education agenda supporting vouchers free market competition and for profit schools and its relationship to the education section of the 2016 Republican platform The important role religion and culture played in the evolution of Republican education policies after the school prayer and Bible decisions of the 1960s The influence of human capital economics on Democratic education proposals How No Child Left Behind and Democratic President Barack Obama opened doors to the growth of the for profit education industry and investment bankers The 2016 Democratic positions on the cost of higher education and student loan debts The Democratic left as represented by the 2016 campaign of Democrat Bernie Sanders and his influence on the presidential candidate Hillary Clinton and the Democratic Party platform The education proposals of the Green and Libertarian parties

Governors on Governing Robert D. Behn,1991 Offers introspective essays reflecting distinctive leadership and management styles by fifteen of the nation's governors clustered under three major themes The first theme gubernatorial challenges constraints and opportunities provides an institutional framework from which the modern governorship derives its authority constraints and opportunities for leadership Secondly gubernatorial roles leadership and management offers an introspective and personal view of the governorship by the practitioners themselves Finally the section on governors in action case studies ranging from Three Mile Island to educational reform offers a glimpse of governing techniques and practices applied to real life situations and crises in state government The essayists all presenting their views while still in office include Governors Lamar Alexander Tennessee John Ashcroft Missouri Victor Atiyeh Oregon Terry Branstad Iowa John Carlin Kansas Richard Celeste Ohio Booth Gardner Washington Bob Graham Florida Madeleine Kunin Vermont Richard Lamm Colorado Scott Matheson Utah Richard Riley South Carolina Charles Robb Virginia John

Sununu New Hampshire and Dick Thornburgh Pennsylvania The essays are a compendium of presentation made by the governors while participating as Gubernatorial Fellows at Duke University from 1984 to 1988 Co published with the National Governors Association Educational Research Practice in Southern Contexts Sharlene Swartz, Nidhi

Singal, Madeleine Arnot, 2023-10-13 Bringing together a unique collection of 18 insightful and innovative internationally focused articles Educational Research Practice in Southern Contexts offers reflections case studies and critically research methods and processes which decentre reframe and reimagine conventional educational research strategies and operationalise the tenets of decolonising theory This anthology represents a valuable teaching resource It provides readers with the chance to read high quality examples of research that critique current ways of doing research and to reflect on how research methods can contribute to the project of decolonising knowledge production in and about education in for example Africa South Asia Asia and Latin America It grapples with everyday dilemmas and tricky ethical questions about protection consent voice cultural sensitivity and validation by engaging with real world situations and increasing the potential for innovation and new collaborations Educational Research Practice in Southern Contexts will be essential reading for anyone teaching educational research methods and will encourage novice and experienced researchers to rethink their research approaches disentangle the local and global and challenge those research rituals codes and fieldwork practices which are often unproblematically assumed to be universally relevant Diary of A Deputy Susan M. Tranter, 2002-11-01 Susan M

Tranter has produced a practical account of what the role of a Deputy Head entails and suggests how it might be fulfilled successfully Lyndon Johnson J.J. Parker, 2007-05-25 Lyndon Johnson was both man and myth As myth he mastered Congress bending it to his will Yet the man passed bills as president and majority leader by trading political plums for key Congressional votes Though critics carped at his refusal to return U S troops from Vietnam they praised him for signing into law civil and voting rights acts education and public housing aid Medicare and Medicaid But the Vietnam War drained money from Americas budget that couldve been used to sustain LBJs beloved Great Society programs Unfortunately he angrily rejected Robert McNamaras belated advice to Vietnamize the conflict because he didnt want to become the first U S president to lose a war Yet this seemingly macho Texan was more complex than anyone not knowing him could imagine He could be bitter envious paranoid proud angry happy mocking serious longing often one emotion after another For better or worse Lyndon Johnson dominated Washington D C as few presidents have He was a Goliath in a city of David sized politicians But like Davids slingshotted stone Johnson was toppled from his throne by an unforeseen weapon unrelenting criticism of his prosecution of what originally was a limited but seemingly endless war overseas Living a Political Life Madeleine May Kunin, 2011-07-27 The first time Madeleine M Kunin ran for office it was because she thought there ought to be more women in politics In time she fulfilled that belief by becoming the first woman governor of Vermont Throughout her career Kunin found that the rules for women politicians were different she would not be forgiven nor would she forgive herself for neglecting her family She could not afford to display emotion at the wrong times lest she be thought weak And she would have to learn to play political hardball with the best of them while keeping her integrity In Living a Political Life Kunin who is now Deputy Secretary of the U S Department of Education takes a frank look at the challenges that confronted her as she tried not just to succeed in politics but to set a precedent for other women In doing so she illuminates both what it means to be a woman and what it means to be a public servant and gives us a memoir as thoughtful and revealing as any to emerge from the corridors of power

Posthumanism and Higher Education Carol A. Taylor, Annouchka Bayley, 2019-04-17 This book explores ways in which posthumanist and new materialist thinking can be put to work in order to reimagine higher education pedagogy practice and research The editors and contributors illuminate how we can move the thinking and doing of higher education out of the humanist cul de sac of individualism binarism and colonialism and away from anthropocentric modes of performative rationality Based in a reconceptualization of ontology epistemology and ethics which shifts attention away from the human towards the vitality of matter and the nonhuman posthumanist and new materialist approaches pose a profound challenge to higher education In engaging with the theoretical twists and turns of various posthumanisms and new materialisms this book offers new experimental and creative ways for academics practitioners and researchers to do higher education differently This ground breaking edited collection will appeal to students and scholars of posthumanism and new materialism as well as those looking to conceptualize higher education as other than performative practice

The Poverty and Education Reader Paul C. Gorski, Julie Landsman, 2023-07-03 Through a rich mix of essays memoirs and poetry the contributors to The Poverty and Education Reader bring to the fore the schooling experiences of poor and working class students highlighting the resiliency creativity and educational aspirations of low income families They showcase proven strategies that imaginative teachers and schools have adopted for closing the opportunity gap demonstrating how they have succeeded by working in partnership with low income families and despite growing class sizes the imposition of rote pedagogical models and teach to the test mandates The contributors teachers students parents educational activists and scholars repudiate the prevalent but too rarely discussed deficit views of students and families in poverty Rather than focusing on how to fix poor and working class youth they challenge us to acknowledge the ways these youth and their families are disenfranchised by educational policies and practices that deny them the opportunities enjoyed by their wealthier peers Just as importantly they offer effective school and classroom strategies to mitigate the effects of educational inequality on students in poverty Rejecting the simplistic notion that a single program policy or pedagogy can undo social or educational inequalities this Reader inspires and equips educators to challenge the disparities to which underserved communities are subjected It is a positive resource for students of education and for teachers principals social workers community organizers and policy makers who want to make the promise of educational equality a reality

The Industrialisation of Arts Education Samantha Broadhead, 2022-11-17 This book comprises the responses of a group of multi disciplinary writers researchers practitioners to the proposition that arts education in the twentyfirst century has become industrialised Historical and contemporary examples of how arts education prepares students for working in industry are discussed to show how the expectations of educators students and industry representatives do not always concur The extent to which arts pedagogies have been informed by the agendas of the cultural industries as well as wider neoliberal ideologies are also considered This leads to questions about the function and value of arts education The debates expose tensions of producing students who are industryready in an educational context that must at the same time consider other issues such as sustainability and widening participation Writers educators and researchers in vocational education creative writing jewellery design animation fashion branding and popular music investigate the complexities relating to this topic from their own diverse points of view

Internationalization of Higher Education H Vinod Bhat,Neeta

Inamdar,2025-03-07 Mobility of scholars for seeking knowledge has existed since the earliest ideal of universities These universities have played a pivotal role in the movement of people across borders and the resultant transformation of societies due to transcultural interactions Drawing on Neil Postman s idea of media ecology this book introduces the notion of educational ecology and discusses the evolving landscape associated with it It compiles the expectations best practices and experiences within the field of internationalization to discuss the interconnectedness of higher education institutions in today s world and their implications on the educational ecology Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan
