John Coffey, 2011-11-07 Systems of Education: a History and Criticism of the Principles, Methods, Organization John Gill, 1903 Truth and Knowledge in Curriculum Making

Lobat Asadi, Cheryl J. Craig, 2021-01-01 Truth and Knowledge in Curriculum Making addresses issues in curriculum and instruction such as the lack of Black teachers minority representation and mentorship The book arose from a serial interpretation of five published narrative inquiries that pinpointed complexities lived in a teacher knowledge community at T P Yaeger Middle School a campus located in the fourth largest urban center in America The inquiry initially resulted in a documentary style presentation at an educational conference using performance narrative inquiry as an arts based method to recount the research In Truth and Knowledge in Curriculum Making the process of researchers turned actors is unraveled by looking at the lived experiences and identifying the embodied knowledge of teachers in different content areas including Physical Education Music Teaching English as a Second Language Mathematics and Reading The authors use parallel stories counter stories story constellations musical narrative inquiry performance narrative inquiry and other narrative means of sense making as they examine how they may relate to those stories Ethical research dilemmas including the how and why behind each author's choice to burrow into difficult topics such as race gender and conflict resolution are revealed By unpacking the hidden curriculum examining value creation and by revealing isolated relational experiences of participants and researchers Truth and Knowledge in Curriculum Making instantiates and outlines how truth and knowledge may be formed in educational settings through intertwining narrative inquiry teacher knowledge and aesthetic ways of knowing Education in Hegel

Nigel Tubbs,2011-10-20 In this wide ranging and compelling set of essays Nigel Tubbs illustrates how a philosophical notion of education lies at the heart of Hegelian philosophy and employs it to critique some of the stereotypes and misreadings from which Hegel often suffers With chapters on philosophical education in relation to life and death self and other subject and substance and to Derrida and Levinas in particular Tubbs brings Hegelian education read as recollection to bear on modern social and political relations He argues in sum that Hegelian philosophy comprehended in terms of education yields a theory of self and other that can inform and reform relations between rich and poor West and East Finally the book addresses the most controversial aspect of any defence of Hegel namely the comprehension of the absolute and its imperialist implications for Western history The author argues passionately that through a notion of philosophical education Hegel teaches us not to avoid the dilemmas that are endemic to modern Western power and mastery when trying to comprehend some of our most pressing human concerns
