Education, Manpower, and Development in Singapore Eng Fong Pang, 1982 Essays on educational planning labour force and economic development trends from 1957 to 1980 in Singapore discusses labour force participation employment creation labour market allocations basic needs satisfaction income distribution labour mobility technicians and professional worker labour demand human resources development migration policies population policies impact of educational levels on income etc Bibliography diagram and graphs Economics of Education and Manpower Development Linda Low, Mun Heng Toh, Teck Wong Soon, 1991 Policy-Making for Education Reform in Developing Countries William K. Cummings, James H. Williams, 2008-08-15 Policy Making for Education Reform in Developing Countries aims at helping policymakers in developing countries better understand the processes and strategies for education reform and the policy options available to them This text focuses on the content of reform options and strategies for achieving educational improvement at different levels of the system e g primary secondary tertiary for different sub sectors e g management teachers and for different purposes with which education systems are tasked e g reaching peripheral groups of students linking youth and employment A holistic approach is increasingly recognized as essential to realizing the promises of education for the development of social and human capital innovation in a global economy sustained economic growth social harmony and greater civic participation decreased achievement gaps and increased equity The End of the "Asian Model"? Holger Henke, Ian Boxill, 2000-03-15 With the economic crisis in Asia which unfolded in recent years the development model on which the phenomenal earlier success of several countries in the region was built requires increasing scrutiny This anthology questions the validity of the notion promoted by some observers and international financial organizations that there is a universally applicable model of industrialization common to Asian countries A number of senior and highly regarded Asia specialists are taking a critical look at the various development experiences of several and some often neglected Asian countries and evaluate their experiences in a comparative perspective Comparing the analyses of countries such as Mongolia the Pacific Islands or Sri Lanka with Singapore South Korea and other countries of the region leads the editors of this volume to the conclusion that the fashionable talk about a model is not justified and that the picture is much more complex Makers of Modern Asia Ramachandra Guha, 2014-08-29 The twenty first century has been dubbed the Asian Century Highlighting diverse thinker politicians rather than billionaire businessmen Makers of Modern Asia presents eleven leaders who theorized and organized anticolonial movements strategized and directed military campaigns and designed and implemented political systems The Dynamics of Asian Labour Markets John Benson, Ying Zhu, 2011-03-02 Asia has undergone rapid economic transformation over the past two decades Despite its constant economic growth the 1997 98 Asian financial crisis and the resulting surge in unemployment highlighted the vulnerability of national systems that base development solely on economic growth This book fills a major research gap by exploring the nature dynamics and functioning of Asian labour markets in eight major Asian economies including Japan South Korea Hong Kong Singapore China Vietnam India and Malaysia It examines the type of labour markets that exist in Asia how they have responded to globalisation and how flexible they are to changing social and economic conditions The book analyses how the current transformation has impacted on the key parties such as employers employees trade unions governments organisations and society as a whole and considers the likely future trends and developments in Asian labour markets

Dynamic Human Resource Systems James P. Begin, 2014-12-11 The goal of this work was to use these cross national comparisons to better understand how human resource policies operate to affect firm performance not as individual practices but as bundles of interacting practices that have positive effects on both productivity and the quality of life of workers

The Challenge of Eastern Asian Education William K. Cummings, Philip G. Altbach, 1997-03-06 The Challenge of Eastern Asian Education highlights how Asian education policy and practice challenge American schools The book focuses on innovations that the nations of the Pacific Rim have developed for their schools and it analyzes how these educational systems have tried to meet the challenges of rapid social and economic change It is unique in that it provides in depth coverage of the Asian approach to education and explicitly discusses the implications of Asian education for America There is special interest in Asian countries not only because of their unparalleled economic success but because Asian societies have been held up as models for social harmony and discipline This book provides specific examples of Asian educational practice that may have relevance to the United States It is unique in that it deals not only with Japan which has received considerable attention but with other Pacific Rim nations as well

Social Context, Policies, And Changes In Singapore: Beyond The First 50 Years Intan Azura Mokhtar, Yaacob Ibrahim, 2022-03-02 This book is a collection of essays by thought and advocacy leaders policymakers and academics in Singapore who have been and are in positions of influence in shaping social policies and hence the social context in the country These essays are meant to initiate discussion promote debate and broaden understanding of the social issues at play the challenges faced and the trade offs involved in enhancing social policies strengthening the social compact and shaping the social context in Singapore This is done through addressing issues and challenges in 1 Government and Civil Society 2 Education 3 Employability and Employment 4 Social and Family Development 5 Demographics and Social Spending 6 Healthcare and Healthcare Financing 7 Urban Planning and the Environment 8 Disruptions New Technologies and Smart Nation It is hoped this book will be useful for students of sociology social policy or public policy as they discuss the dynamics and trade offs involved in planning shaping and implementing social and public policies in Singapore This book also hopes to inform and initiate dialogues among Singaporeans on the social issues and challenges we face in our city state and which we have to collectively address as a nation

An African Exploration of the East Asian Education Experience Birger Fredriksen, Jee-Peng Tan, 2008-01-01 This book aims to promote a better understanding of the education policy choices and implementation modalities that have enabled many East Asian countries over the last 30 40 years to move from education and economic conditions similar to those of many Sub Saharan Africa countries to attain the level of development they enjoy today

Achieving Industrialization in East Asia Helen Hughes, 1988-11-10 This book examines the economic success of the industrializing economies of East Asia Judged in terms of economic growth or by a combination of economic and welfare criteria this group of East Asian countries has established a clear lead over other developing areas of the world

Beneath the Miracle Frederic C. Deyo, 2023-11-15 This important study examines the dynamics of the remarkable economic transformation of South Korea Singapore Taiwan and Hong Kong which has been based in large measure on the production of manufactured goods for export The competitive edge of these countries has in turn been rooted in the mobilization of a low cost disciplined and productive workforce This study seeks therefore to explain how East Asian governments and employers have attempted to manage this workforce It also explores the extent to which workers are able to challenge management decisions and insert working class agendas into public policy Beneath the Miracle moves beyond current explanations for the weakness of East Asian labor movements which emphasize Confucianist culture material welfare gains and political repression It shows that the organizational capacity of workers has been more fundamentally undercut first by the nature of emergent East Asian employment systems and second by the sequencing of developmental change with political controls preceding rapid industrialization and preempting political and union organization of the growing industrial workforce Deyo undertakes an incisive cross national comparison of employment systems and explores anomalous situations such as that in Hong Kong where labor is politically weak even under minimal state controls and that in South Korea where labor is in a stronger position despite far stricter regulation Beneath the Miracle offers a fresh and compelling comparative analysis of Asian labor movements which could lead to a reassessment of many other developmental issues in East Asia In his probing examination Deyo provides an important and exciting contribution to the literature in this field This important study examines the dynamics of the remarkable economic transformation of South Korea Singapore Taiwan and Hong Kong which has been based in large measure on the production of manufactured goods for export The competitive edge of these

Research in Education ,1974      Education for the Elderly in the Asia Pacific Pennee Narot, Narong Kiattikunwong, 2021-09-25 In many countries across the Asia Pacific region people are adapting to the new demographic shift but there is nonetheless much concern This book documents the various educational approaches rendered by both public and private sectors to enable elderly individuals in their own countries to re engage in society more inclusively to stay longer in the labour market and to become less dependent on the state or their families In order to produce active healthy and productive aging citizens the experiments showcased by this book highlight how adaptive action is needed across many policy areas with emphasis on shaping structural differences in the composition and organisation of higher education systems that can better foster lifelong learning among elderly citizens The book is a great venue to underline the interplay of the theory and practices of vastly complex challenges

Institutional Change in Southeast Asia Fredrik Sjöholm, Jose L. Tongzon, 2005 Institutional Change in Southeast Asia examines the institutional changes taking place in and challenges facing the region since 1997 The book focuses on determinants to the adjustments and on implementations of the reforms It also describes various differences in the reform process between countries in the region Southeast Asia's economic development over the last decades has been impressive Most of the region achieved consistently high growth rates accompanied by significant structural transformation and industrialization poverty alleviation and improvements in their overall standard of living as indicated by such social indicators as greater longevity more widespread delivery of basic education and lower infant mortality rates However the crisis that struck Southeast Asia in 1997 had severe economic social and political consequences in the region It also threw into doubt the future economic prosperity of the countries in Southeast Asia and raised intriguing questions about the quality of their institutions and their approach to economic development Sjöholm and Tongzon argue that the economies of Southeast Asia need to reform their institutions if the previous rapid development is to continue The institutional weaknesses have been addressed to different degrees and with different success in the affected countries Against the backdrop of Southeast Asia's importance in the world economy it is hardly possible to overestimate the need to understand this process of change
