Education Information And Transformation Essays On Learning And Thinking:

Education, Information, and Transformation Jeffrey Kane,1999 Designed to spark educators to reflect on the nature of human thinking and the academic goals of education this collection of essays by scholars from widely disparate orientations and disciplines explores and explains the human cognitive capacities that transcend computation and substantially affect our judgment and action Asks the critical questions Is there more to thinking than information processing What more is there and What difference does it make to education Addresses numerous critical issues from educational standards to the environmental social and moral dimensions to the role of the senses in human development Demonstrates how to identify new intelligences and identifies both Naturalist and Existential Intelligences Explores the question of how science may address questions of spirituality Introduces and provides unique insight into cultural educational issues Considers different educational levels to demonstrate the practical meanings of the various theoretical positions For prospective and practicing educational professionals

Education and the Soul John P. Miller,2000-01-01 With emphasis on preparing students for jobs standards and achievement testing many think that North American education has become inwardly deadening yet this book provides a counterbalance as it offers a way to nurture the soul in classrooms and schools

Information and Communication Technologies and Real-Life Learning Tom J. van Weert,Arthur Tatnall,2006-01-28 Information and Communication Technologies in Real Life Learning presents the results of an International Federation for Information Processing IFIP working conference held December 2004 in Melbourne Australia The working conference was organized by IFIP Working Group 3 2 Informatics and ICT in Higher Education and IFIP Working Group 3 4 Professional and Vocational Education in Information Technology The papers in this book present a cross section of issues in real life learning in which Information and Communication Technology ICT plays an important role Some of the issues covered include education models for real life learning enabled by ICT effective organization of a real life learning environment the changing role of the student the changing role of educational institutions and their relationship with business and industry the changing role of teachers and their use of ICT and management of ICT rich education change An Introduction to the

Collected Works of C. G. Jung Clifford Mayes,2016-03-24 An Introduction to the Collected Works of C G Jung Psyche as Spirit offers a concise and engaging overview of Jung s work and contributions to the field of psychology Mayes first examines Jung s philosophical influences as well as his work and eventual break with Sigmund Freud providing insights into how these experiences shaped Jung s theory Mayes brings into focus the major concepts and themes explored in Carl Gustav Jung s Collected Works including the ego Self Axis archetypes personality types and the Collective Unconscious presenting a thorough introduction and a valuable resource for both Jungian students as well as Jungian scholars Teaching and Learning for Wholeness Clifford Mayes,2016-12-08 In Teaching for Wholeness Clifford Mayes continues to expand the horizons of Jungian pedagogy a movement that draws upon the thought of Carl Jung and Jungian scholars to address crucial educational issues and define new ones Mayes leads readers through an analysis of Freudian and post Freudian psychology in educational theory and practice an examination of the epistemological foundations of Jungian thought and a demonstration of how Jungian psychology can uniquely help teachers reflect deeply upon their roles as educators Mayes also explores Jung's view of symbolism and its implications for curriculum and the Jungian idea of the shadow as the launching point for an examination of education as reclamation of the soul before concluding with the case for individuation as the proper goal of education

Seven Curricular Landscapes Clifford Mayes, 2003 Seven Curricular Landscapes offers a holistic presentation and critique of what the author considers to be the seven major types of curricula This book which is suitable for both upper division and graduate education courses differs from previous holistic approaches in that it closely considers the holistic implications of postmodernism adds new categories and terms to the holistic repertoire includes the latest developments in transpersonal theory examines the Existentialist curriculum as a spiritual phenomenon and discusses the curricular implications of both Eastern and Western spirituality      Nurturing the Whole Student Clifford Mayes, Ellen Williams, 2012-11-06 Nurturing the Whole Student Five Dimensions of Teaching and Learning begins with the assumption that education is at its best healthiest most engaging and most effective when it is holistic By holistic the authors mean that the various dimensions of the teacher and student are honored and nurtured throughout the education process These dimensions are organic psychodynamic cultural academic and existential Nurturing the Whole Student contends that any truly humane educational theory or practice must celebrate and cultivate these facets of the student teacher relationship In readily accessible theoretical terms as well as in practical suggestions for classroom application the authors demonstrate how holistic education is an antidote to the standardized approaches to education that breed failure alienation and discouragement in the classroom Systematically broken down into five thematic chapters this teacher s guide will help any educator foster the five dimensions of teaching and learning      The Developing Person Through Childhood and Adolescence Kathleen Stassen Berger, 2005-10-19 This text presents theory research practical examples and controversial issues in a way that inspires students to think about development addressing the individual s role in both the community and the wider world This second edition contains revised chapters on adolescence and new research into brain development      Teaching Peace through Transformative Literature and Metaethics Maryann P. DiEdwardo, 2023-06-14 This book is about content driven lectures panels round tables seminars and workshops aiming to improve learning communities and academic literature skills It advocates teaching peace through transformative literary works DiEdwardo gives her readers her original poetry critiques of fiction and film as well as an exploration of peace studies to facilitate a concentration on curiosity solitude and self development through writing      Developing the Whole Student Clifford Mayes, 2019-12-31 This book proposes a new way of categorizing curricula in the holistic educational tradition This is an idea that goes back in the Western tradition at least as far as Plato and Lao Tzu in the Eastern tradition It is certainly present in Spinoza and Schopenhauer It is called a holarchy The idea of a holarchy gives rise to Integrative Curriculum Theory which with major modifications draws on Ken Wilber s in his evolutionary model of the development of consciousness at personal cultural and ontological realms Integrative Curriculum Theory will 1 Prove a useful addition to the holistic repertoire of systematic and above all humane terminologies and technologies for making and evaluating specific curricula as well as for theorizing the curriculum at a time when scientistic technist and profit driven views of education have commandeered the podium policy and praxis and 2 address some areas of concern that with certain holistic models of education and 3 address some problems in Wilber s integral model of psychological cultural and spiritual evolution      Understanding the Whole Student Clifford Mayes, Ramona Maile Cutri, Neil Goslin, Fidel Montero, 2016-03-03 Understanding the Whole Student presents a holistic approach to multicultural educational issues by viewing them in terms of the student as a physical psychosocial cognitive ethical and spiritual being Conversely these levels of a student s being cannot be seen apart from the student s cultural identities This unique book demonstrates that in a pluralistic democracy good teaching and deep learning must be multicultural and must look at the student as a whole being not just as a future worker in a transnational corporate economy as is currently the case with both neo liberal and neo conservative programs for reform The authors contend that good education is and must be multicultural in order to gain a deeper perspective on issues under analysis in the classroom through the sharing and negotiating of many different cultural perspectives Computing and Educational Studies Eugene F. Provenzo, Jr.,2014-05-01 This special issue calls for a greater awareness of computing as a critical area of study for those interested in educational studies Its purpose is to open up a wider dialogue about computing and education than has previously existed in the field The questions raised provide the basis for a lively discussion and analysis of the role of educational studies in interpreting the role of computing in our culture and educational system This issue also provides a model for exploring other topics of similar significance and importance to the field in future issues of the journal Consciousness-Based Leadership and Management, Volume 1

Anil K. Maheshwari,2023-03-09 This two volume set examines the need for a consciousness based view of leadership which emphasizes universal human flourishing as opposed to a resource based view which focuses on sustaining a competitive advantage This approach is built around three main principles 1 Paradigm Consciousness is primary including complementary existence of opposites 2 Interpersonal focusing on empathy and compassion and 3 Individual experiencing Oneness and expressing creativity Volume One is divided into three sections The first section focuses on Consciousness based approaches to Inclusive Purposeful Quantum and Vedic leadership The second section focuses on leadership principles from Vedic scriptures such as Ramayana and Vedanta The third section includes leadership principles from other scriptures such as Buddhism Confucianism Daoism and Thirukural Aligning leadership practices with the notion of unbounded consciousness this edited collection will extend the literature on organizational culture leadership and sustainability contributing to solving the grand challenges facing humanity Non-Western Educational Traditions Timothy G.

Reagan,2004-09-22 This text provides a brief yet comprehensive overview of a number of non Western approaches to educational thought and practice Its premise is that understanding the ways that other people educate their children as well as what counts for them as education may help us think more clearly about some of our own assumptions and values and to become more open to alternative viewpoints about important educational matters The value of this informative mind opening text for preservice and in service teacher education courses is enhanced by Questions for Discussion and Reflection and Recommended Further Readings included in each chapter New in the Third Edition Chapter 2 Conceptualizing Culture I We and The Other is new to this edition It is a response to feedback about the problems inherent in our general discourse about culture and in addition provides an example of a culture that is near to us but nevertheless alien the culture of the Deaf World Chapter 9 which deals with Islam and traditional Muslim education has been substantially revised The subtitle of the Third Edition has been changed to Indigenous Approaches to Educational Thought and Practice reflecting not so much a change in the emphases found in the book but rather a recognition of the growing scholarly interest in indigenous peoples their languages cultures and histories Various points throughout the text have been expanded and clarified and chapters have been updated as needed      Talent Development as a Framework for Gifted Education Paula

Olszewski-Kubillus,Rena F. Subotnik, Frank C. Worrell,2021-09-23 Talent development is a phrase often used in reference to the education of gifted children Recently it has been presented by researchers to refer to a specific approach to the delivery of gifted education services      Non-Western Educational Traditions Timothy Reagan,2017-07-06 Indigenous Knowledge Systems Concluding Reflections Questions for Reflection and Discussion Author Index Subject Index      Psychology Express: Educational Psychology (Undergraduate Revision Guide) Penney Upton,Charlotte Elizabeth Taylor,2014-02-19 The Psychology Express undergraduate revision guide series will help you understand key concepts quickly revise effectively and make your answers stand out
